LEGAL ASSISTANCE (ASSESSMENT OF RESOURCES AND SCALE OF CONTRIBUTION) RULES

Subsidiary
1960.12.06-1

Title.

1. These Rules may be cited as the Legal Assistance (Assessment of Resources and Scale of Contribution) Rules.

Interpretation.

2. In these Rules, unless the context otherwise requires—

“capital” means capital as assessed in accordance with the provisions of rule 4;

“income” means income as assessed in accordance with the provisions of rule 5.

Contributions from legally assisted person.

3. Where costs are awarded against a legally assisted person, the maximum liability of such person to contribute to such costs shall be—

- (a) a contribution in respect of income in accordance with Schedule 1;
- (b) a contribution in respect of capital in accordance with Schedule 2.

Computing capital of person receiving legal assistance.

4.(1) Subject to the provisions of subrule (3), there shall be included in the computation of the capital of a person seeking or receiving legal assistance the amount or value of every resource ascertained as on the date of application for legal assistance.

(2) So far as any resource does not consist of money, the value shall be taken to be the amount which it would realize on sale in the open market.

(3) There shall not be taken into account in computing the capital of a person seeking or receiving legal assistance—

- (a) any amount which he is under any law, bond, covenant, guarantee or other instrument, reasonably likely to have to pay within the twelve months next following the date of application;
- (b) the amount of any debt, other than a secured debt, owed to him;

LEGAL ASSISTANCE (ASSESSMENT OF RESOURCES AND SCALE OF CONTRIBUTION) RULES

- (c) the first £2,000 of the value of his interest in his dwelling house after deduction of encumbrances thereon;
- (d) the value of household furniture and effects, personal clothing, tools and implements of trade;
- (e) the amount of any disablement gratuity payable under the Social Security (Employment injuries insurance) Act ;
- (f) the amount of any maternity grant or death grant payable under the Social Security (Insurance) Act;
- (g) an amount of £50, where he has living with him either a spouse whose resources are required to be aggregated to his or a dependent child or other dependent relative wholly maintained by him; and
- (h) any resources which, in the opinion of the Registrar, are not readily realizable or ought not to be taken into consideration.

Computing income of person receiving legal assistance.

5.(1) Subject to the provisions of subrule (3), there shall be led in the computation of the income of a person seeking or receiving legal assistance the total income from all sources which he may reasonably expect to receive during the period of computation.

(2) The period of computation shall be the period of twelve months next after the date of application for legal assistance, or such other period of twelve months as the Registrar may consider appropriate in the particular circumstances of any case.

(3) There shall not be taken into account in computing the income of a person seeking or receiving legal assistance—

- (a) any disablement pension payable under the Social Security (Employment Injuries Insurance) Act;
- (b) either the first £1 a week of any superannuation or pension payments made in respect of previous service or employment from which the recipient has retired (whether payable by a former employer or not), or the first £1 a week of any widow's benefit or old age pension payable under the Social Security (Non-Contributory Benefits and Unemployment Insurance) Act;

- (c) the amount of any pension payable in respect of wounds, disablements or disability attributable to or aggravated by service in any of Her Majesty's Forces;
- (d) the amount of rent and rates payable in respect of his dwelling house;
- (e) an amount of twenty-five pence a week in respect of each dependent child and in respect of a spouse living with him and of any other dependent relative wholly maintained by him;
- (f) the amount of any interest payable by him on any loan; and
- (g) such other amounts as the Registrar may consider ought not to be taken into consideration, having regard to the particular circumstances of the case.

Husband and wife.

6. Any resources of a person's husband or wife shall be treated, for the purposes of these Rules, as that person's resources, unless that person is legally separated from the husband or wife.

Minors.

7. In the case of a minor, the resources of the father and mother of such person, or, if there is no father or mother, of the guardian or, if there is no such guardian, of the person who maintains the minor, shall be treated, for the purposes of these Rules, as the resources of the minor.

Registrar to determine capital of income.

8. The capital and income of a person and the extent of his liability to pay costs in respect of any proceedings shall be determined by the Registrar.
