Special Needs.

2A.(1) A child has “special needs” for the purposes of these regulations if he has a learning difficulty which calls for special educational provision to be made for him.

(2) Subject to subregulation (3) a child has a “learning difficulty” for the purposes of these regulations if—

- (a) he has a significantly greater difficulty in learning than the majority of children of his age; or
- (b) he has a disability which either prevents or hinders him from making use of educational facilities of a kind generally provided for children of his age in government schools; or
- (c) he is under 15 years of age and is, or would be if special educational provision were not made for him, likely to fall within paragraph (a) or (b) when of that age.

(3) A child is not to be taken as having a learning difficulty solely because the language (or form of the language) in which he is, or will be, taught is different from a language (or form of a language) which has at any time been spoken in his home.

Establishment of Special Needs Assessment Panel.

3.(1) There is hereby established a Special Needs Assessment Panel (“the panel”).

- (4) Notwithstanding anything contained in subregulation (3) the Minister may, in his discretion, terminate the appointment of any member of the panel at any time on the grounds of inability, neglect of duty, persistent failure to attend meetings or due to the person no longer being eligible to be a member by virtue of that person no longer holding an employment listed under subregulation (2)(a).
- (5) The Minister—

(2) Without prejudice to anything contained in subregulation (1) the panel may give advice to the parents or any other person who has custody of a child with special needs as to the care and treatment of such child.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in subregulation (1) the panel shall not be bound to carry out the duties imposed upon it by such subregulation unless it is satisfied that the parents of the child referred to it have been consulted, This subregulation shall not be construed as requiring the consent of the parents to the reference of the child to the panel.
