SCHEDULE 3.

SCHEDULE 4.

MEAT PRODUCTS AND SPREADABLE FISH PRODUCTS
REGULATIONS, 1987
PART I

Subsidiary
1987/057

Title and commencement.

1.(1) These regulations may be cited as the Meat Products and Spreadable Fish Products Regulations 1987.

(2) These regulations shall come into operation on the 1st day of August, 1987.

Interpretation.

2.(1) In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires:

“additive” means any substance permitted for use in food by the Colouring Matter in Food Regulations 1987, the Antioxidants in Food Regulations 1987, the Preservatives in Food Regulations 1987, the Emulsifiers and Stabilisers in Food Regulations 1990 , the Miscellaneous Additives in Food Regulations 1987, and the Sweeteners in Food Regulations 1987 and flavourings and smoke and smoke solutions in so far as their use in food is not prohibited by the Preservatives in Food Regulations 1987;

“catering establishment” has the meaning assigned to it by the Food Labelling Regulations 1987;

“cooked”, in relation to a food, means subjected to a process of cooking throughout the whole food so that the food is sold for consumption without further cooking, and “uncooked” shall be construed accordingly;

“cured meat” means a food consisting of meat and curing salt, whether or not the food also contains any the ingredients specified in Schedule 1, but does not include any food which contains any other ingredient not specified in Schedule 1;

“curing salt” has the meaning assigned to it by regulation 5(5);

“fish” means the edible portion of any fish, including edible molluscs and crustacea;

“ingredient” has the meaning assigned to it by the Food Labelling Regulations 1987;

“labelling” has the meaning assigned to it by the Food Labelling Regulations, 1987;

MEAT PRODUCTS AND SPREADABLE FISH PRODUCTS
REGULATIONS, 1987

“lean meat content” means the total weight of lean meat free when raw of visible fat;

“meat” means the flesh, including fat, and the skin, rind, gristle and sinew in amounts naturally associated with the flesh used of any animal or bird which is normally used for human consumption, and includes any part of the carcass specified in Part I of Schedule 2 which is obtained from such an animal or bird, but does not include any other part of the carcass;

“meat product” means any food which consists of meat or of which meat is an ingredient, other than a food specified in Schedule 3;

“the Act” means the Food and Drugs Act;

“prepacked” has the meaning assigned to it by the Food Labelling Regulations 1987;

“sell” includes offer or expose for sale and includes have in possession for sale, and “sale” shall be construed accordingly;

“spreadable fish product” means:-

- (a) any product of which fish is an ingredient and in the labelling or advertising of which the name “paste”, “pate” or “spread” is used as part of the name of the food, or
- (b) any other readily spreadable product of which fish is an ingredient, but does not include any product that contains fish oil but no other constituent of fish;

“ultimate consumer” has the meaning assigned to it by the Food Labelling Regulations 1987.

(2) For the purposes of these regulations the supply of food, otherwise than by sale, at, in or from any place where food is supplied in the course of a business shall be deemed to be a sale of that food, and references to purchasing and purchasers shall be construed accordingly.

(3) All proportions mentioned in these regulations are proportions calculated by weight.

(4) Any reference in these regulations to a numbered regulation or schedule shall, unless the reference is to a regulation of, or schedule to, specified regulations, be construed as a reference to the regulation or schedule so numbered in these regulations.

REGULATIONS, 1987

Subsidiary
1987/057

Scope.

3.(1) Subject to paragraph (2) of this regulation, these regulations apply to food which is ready for delivery to the ultimate consumer or to a catering establishment.

(2) These regulations do not apply to any food which is:-

- (a) not intended for sale for human consumption;
- (b) intended at the time of sale for export to any place outside Gibraltar; or
- (c) marked or labelled with a clear indication that the food is intended exclusively for consumption by babies or young children.

PART II

Restrictions on the use of certain names.

4. (1) For the purposes of the Food Labelling Regulations 1987, a name which appears in column 1 of Schedule 4 shall not be used in the labelling or advertising of a meat product or a spreadable fish product as the name of the food, whether or not qualified by other words, unless either:-

- (a) the product complies with the appropriate requirements in column 2 of Schedule 4, or
- (b) the name is used in accordance with paragraph (2) of this regulation.

(2) A name which appears in column 1 of Schedule 4 shall not be used in the labelling or advertising of a food, whether or not qualified by other words, in such a way as to suggest, either expressly or by implication, that the product designated by that name is an ingredient of the food unless either:-

- (a) (i) that product is an ingredient of the food, and
- (ii) that product complied, at the time of preparation of the food, with the appropriate requirements in column 2 of Schedule 4, or

REGULATIONS, 1987

- (b) (i) the name used as the name of the food for that food is a name which appears in column I of Schedule 4, and
- (ii) the name is used in accordance with paragraph (1) of this regulation.

(3) No person shall sell a food in the labelling of which a name is used in contravention of the foregoing paragraphs of this regulation.

(4) No person shall use a name in contravention of the foregoing paragraphs of this regulation in advertising a food for sale.

Name of the food for certain meat products.

5 (1) Subject to paragraphs (3) and (4) of this regulation, where any person sells any meat product which has the appearance of a cut, joint, slice, portion or carcase of raw meat, cooked meat or cured meat, this regulation shall apply.

(2) For the purposes of the Food Labelling Regulations 1987, and name used as the name of the food in the labelling of any meat product to which this regulation applies shall include an indication of the ingredients used in preparation of the product other than water and other than:-

- (a) in the case of cooked meat, additives or salt, herbs or spices used as seasoning, and
- (b) in the case of cured meat, curing salt or an ingredient specified in column 1 of Schedule 1 and used in accordance with the conditions specified in column 2 of Schedule 1,

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (1) of this regulation, no account shall be taken of the presence in or on the food of any seasoning, flavouring, garnishing or gelatinous substance, nor of any packing material enclosing the food.

(4) This regulation shall not apply where the name used as the name of the food is a name which appears in column 1 of Schedule 4 whether or not qualified by other words or to a food having the appearance of minced raw meat which has been shaped.

(5) In this regulation "curing salt" means sodium chloride, potassium chloride, sodium nitrate, potassium nitrate, sodium nitrite or potassium nitrite whether alone or in any combination, except that sodium chloride or potassium chloride alone or a mixture of sodium chloride and potassium chloride alone is to be regarded as a curing salt when used in a meat product

REGULATIONS, 1987*Subsidiary 1987/057

only if used in sufficient quantity to have a significant preserving effect on the meat product.

List of ingredients.

6.(1) Notwithstanding regulation 15(1) of the Food Labelling Regulations 1987 (which makes provision as to the name used for an ingredient in a list of ingredients), and subject to subregulation (1 A) of this regulation where a meat product is required by those regulations to be marked or labelled with a list of ingredients and is required by regulation 7 to be marked or labelled with a declaration of its minimum meat content, any animal or bird fat which, because of the requirements of regulation 11, cannot be taken into account in the declaration of the minimum meat content of the meat product shall be separately identified in the list of ingredients.

(1A) If any fat in a meat product cannot be taken into account in the declaration of its minimum meat content only because the meat content declared is less than that actually present, such fat shall be disregarded for the purposes of subregulation (1) of this regulation unless the total lean meat content of the product is, in the case of a product to which regulation 11(2) applies, less than 50 per cent, and in any other case less than 65 per cent of the total meat content of the product.

(2) No person shall sell a meat product if it is marked or labelled with a list of ingredients that does not accord with paragraph (1) of this regulation.

Declaration of meat or fish content.

7. (1) Every meat product, other than a product to which regulation 8 applies, shall, subject to subregulations (3) to (9) of this regulation be marked or labelled with a declaration of its minimum meat content in the form “minimum X% meat”, there being inserted in place of “X” such number as makes the declaration an indication of the minimum meat content of the product.

(2) Every spreadable fish product shall, subject to the following paragraphs of this regulation, be marked or labelled with a declaration of its minimum fish content in the form “minimum y% fish”, there being inserted in place of “y” such number as makes the declaration an indication of the minimum fish content of the product.

(3) In the case of a meat product which includes a liquid medium that is not normally consumed, the declaration shall include an indication that the weight of the liquid medium has not been included in calculating the minimum meat content of the product.

MEAT PRODUCTS AND SPREADABLE FISH PRODUCTS
REGULATIONS, 1987

Subsidiary

(4) Subject to paragraphs (6) and (7) of this regulation, a meat product which has a meat content of less than 10 per cent and a spreadable fish product which has a fish content of less than 10 per cent may, instead of being marked or labelled in accordance with paragraph (1) or (2) of this regulation, be marked or labelled with the declaration “less than 10% meat” or “less than 10% fish”, as the case may be.

(5) Subject to paragraphs (6) and (7) of this regulation, a meat product which has a meat content of more than 100 per cent and a spreadable fish product which has a fish content of more than 100 per cent shall, instead of being marked or labelled in accordance with paragraph (1) or (2) of this regulation, be marked or labelled with the declaration “not less than 100% meat” or “not less than 100% fish”, as the case may be.

(6) In any declaration with which a meat product or spreadable fish product is marked or labelled pursuant to any of the foregoing paragraphs of this regulation, the word “meat” or “fish” may be replaced by the name of the type of meat or fish.

(7) In any declaration marked or labelled in accordance with the provisions of regulation 10(2A) other than a declaration in respect of cured meat, the word “meat” or “fish” or the name of the type of meat or fish may be omitted from the form of words prescribed by this regulation.

(8) Nothing in this regulation shall apply to any meat product to which regulation 5 applies unless the product is required by regulation 5(2) to carry an indication of added ingredients.

(9) If it is shown that the meat or fish content of a meat product or spreadable fish product is less than that declared in the declaration required by subregulations (1), (2) or (5) of this regulation this shall be evidence of a contravention of this regulation.

Declaration of corned meat content.

8. (1) Subject to paragraph (2) of this regulation, every meat product sold under the name “corned X” whether or not qualified by other words, there being inserted in place of “X” the name of a type of meat, shall be marked or labelled with the declaration “100% corned X”, there being inserted in place of “X” the aforesaid name of a type of meat.

(2) Every meat product sold under-

- (a) the name “corned X”, qualified by words which include the name of a food other than meat, there being inserted in place of “X” the name of a type of meat, or

REGULATIONS, 1987*Subsidiary
1987/057

- (b) a name which includes the name “corned X”, there being inserted in place of “X” the name of a type of meat, in such a way as to suggest that corned meat is an ingredient of the product, shall be marked or labelled with a declaration of its minimum corned meat content in the form “minimum z% corned X” there being inserted in place of “z” such number as makes the declaration an indication of the minimum corned meat content of the meat product and in place of “X” the aforesaid name of a type of meat.

(3) If it is shown that the corned meat content of a meat product is less than that declared in the declaration required by subregulation (1) or subregulation (2) of this regulation this shall be evidence of a contravention of this regulation.

Declaration of added water content.

9.(1) Any food to which regulation 5 applies shall be subject to the provisions of this regulation.

(2) Where the food does not bear an indication in accordance with regulation 5 of the presence of any ingredients and contains added water, it shall be marked or labelled in the case of:-

- (a) raw or cooked meat, with a declaration in the form “with not more than X% added water” there being inserted in place of “X” such number as makes the declaration an indication of the maximum added water content of the food..
- (b) uncooked cured meat of which more than 10 per cent is added water, with a declaration in the form “with not more than y% added water” there being inserted in place of “y” such number expressed as a multiple of 5 as makes the declaration an indication of the amount by which the maximum added water content of the food exceeds 10 per cent; and
- (c) cooked cured meat with a declaration in the form “with not more than z% added water”, there being inserted in place of “z” such number expressed as a multiple of 5 as makes the declaration an indication of the maximum added water content of the food.

(3) Where the food bears an indication in accordance with regulation 5 of the presence of any ingredients and contains added water, it shall be marked or labelled in the case of:-

MEAT PRODUCTS AND SPREADABLE FISH PRODUCTS
REGULATIONS, 1987

- (a) raw or cooked meat, or
- (b) cooked cured meat, or uncooked cured meat of which than 10 per cent is added water, with a declaration in the form “with added water”.

(4) If it is shown that the added water content of the food is greater than that declared in the declaration required by subregulation (2) of this regulation this shall be evidence of a contravention of subregulation (2) of this regulation.

Miscellaneous provisions relating to declarations.

10.(1) A meat product or spreadable fish product which, but for this paragraph, would be required by any of the provisions of regulations 7, 8 or 9 to be marked or labelled with a declaration need not be so marked or labelled if:-

- (a) the product is not prepacked or is prepacked for direct sale (within the meaning of regulation 24 of the Food Labelling Regulations 1987), and
- (b) the declaration appears on a ticket or notice displayed in immediate proximity to the food or on a label attached to the food.

(2) Subject to subregulation (2A) of this regulation, a declaration with which a meat product or spreadable fish product is –

- (a) required to be marked or labelled by any provision of regulation 7 or regulation 8; or
- (b) marked or labelled in the manner permitted by regulation 7(4), shall, if the product is required by the Food Labelling Regulations 1987 to be labelled with a list of ingredients, appear in immediate proximity to that list.

(2A) Where only one type of meat or cured meat, or fish or cured fish, is present in a meat product or spreadable fish product, it shall be sufficient compliance with subregulation (2) of this regulation if a declaration referred to in that subregulation appears in the list of ingredients in immediate proximity to the name of the ingredient to which it relates.

REGULATIONS, 1987

Subsidiary
1987/057

(3) A declaration with which a meat product is required to be marked or labelled by any of the provisions of regulation 9 shall appear either in the name of the food or in immediate proximity thereto.

(4) Regulations 32, 33 and 34 of the Food Labelling Regulation 1987 (which relate to the manner of marking or labelling of food) shall apply to the declarations with which a meat product or spreadable fish product is required to be marked or labelled by regulations 7, 8 or 9, or with which a meat product or spreadable fish product is marked or labelled in pursuance of regulation 7(4), or which appear on a ticket or notice pursuant to paragraph (1) of this regulation, as if those declarations were particulars with which food is required to be marked or labelled by or which appear on a ticket or notice pursuant to, the Food Labelling Regulations 1987.

(5) No person shall sell a meat product or spreadable fish product which is not marked or labelled in accordance with the provisions of regulations 7, 8 or 9 or of the foregoing paragraphs of this regulation, unless, in an appropriate case, the provisions of paragraph (1) of this regulation are observed

(6) Regulations 7, 8 and 9 do not apply to:

- (a) food prepared otherwise than in the course of a trade carried on by the person preparing it, or
- (b) food which is not required by the Food Labelling Regulations 1987 to be marked or labelled with the name of the food, or
- (c) food to which regulation 28 or 29 of the Food Labeling Regulations 1987 (which relate to food for immediate consumption) applies.

Lean meat content.

11.(1) No person shall sell a meat product which is required by regulation 7 to be marked or labelled with a declaration of minimum meat content, other than a product to which paragraph (2) of this regulation applies, unless the lean meat content of the product is at least 65 per cent of the declared minimum meat content.

(2) No person shall sell:-

- (a) a meat pie or part of a meat pie, or
- (b) sausage or part of a sausage or a meat product of which sausage is an ingredient, or

MEAT PRODUCTS AND SPREADABLE FISH PRODUCTS
REGULATIONS, 1987

- (c) a food for which the name of the food for the purposes of the Food Labelling Regulations 1987 is “pate”, whether or not qualified by other words, if it is a meat product which is required by regulation 7 to be marked or labelled with a declaration of minimum meat content, unless the lean meat content of the product is at least 50 per cent of the declared minimum meat content of the product.

(3) No person shall sell a meat product which is required by regulation 8 to be marked or labelled with a declaration of minimum corned meat content, unless the lean meat content of the product is at least 96 per cent of the meat content of the product.

(4) In this regulation the word:-

- (a) “meat pie” means a product containing meat which is wholly or partly encased in pastry, whether or not there are other ingredients also encased in the pastry, and includes meat pudding and sausage roll, and
- (b) “sausage” includes chipolata, frankfurter, link, salami and any similar product, and includes sausage meat.

Calculation of meat content.

12.(1) For the purposes of these regulations the meat content of a meat product is, subject to the following paragraphs of this regulation, the sum of:-

- (a) the total weight of meat (calculated as raw meat) used as an ingredient in the preparation of the meat product, and
- (b) the total weight of any solid bone naturally associated with the meat used if the presence of the bone in the product is indicated, either expressly or by implication, in the name of the product, expressed as a percentage of the total weight of the product as sold.

(2) Where a meat product is in dehydrated or partially dehydrated form, or contains an ingredient in dehydrated or partially dehydrated form, and the product or ingredient, as the case may be, is intended to be reconstituted before consumption, the meat content of the product for the purposes of these regulations shall be calculated on the basis of the product when reconstituted as directed.

MEAT PRODUCTS AND SPREADABLE FISH PRODUCTS
REGULATIONS, 1987

Subsidiary
1987/057

(3) In calculating the meat content of a sausage the weight of any detachable edible skin which wholly or partly encloses the sausage shall not be included either:-

- (a) in the total weight of meat used as an ingredient in the preparation of the sausage, or
- (b) in the total weight of the sausage as sold.

(4) In calculating the meat content of a meat product which includes a liquid medium that is not normally consumed, the weight of the liquid medium shall not be included in the total weight of the product as sold.

(5) In this regulation "sausage" has the meaning assigned to it by regulation 11(4).

Calculation of fish content, corned meat content and added water content.

13.(1) For the purposes of these regulations:-

- (a) the fish content of a spreadable fish product is the total weight of fish (calculated as raw fish) used as an ingredient in the preparation of the product expressed as a percentage of the total weight of the product as sold;
- (b) the corned meat content of a meat product shall be taken to be five-sixths of the meat content of the product;
- (c) the added water content of a meat product is the total weight of added water in the product expressed as a percentage of the total weight of the product as sold.

(2) For the purposes of these regulations water that is present in a meat product, whether the meat product is cooked or uncooked, shall be regarded as added water to the extent, and only to the extent, that the quantity of water present in the product exceeds the quantity of water that would naturally be present in the meat used in the product when raw.

Parts of the carcase in uncooked meat products.

14.(1) No person shall sell an uncooked meat product in the preparation of which any part of the carcase specified in Part II of Schedule 2 has been used as an ingredient unless that part has been used solely as a sausage skin.

(2) In this regulation "sausage" has the meaning assigned to it by regulation 11(4).

PART III

Penalties.

15. If any person contravenes or fails to comply with any of the foregoing provisions of these regulations he shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £1,000.

Defences.

16.(1) In any proceedings for an offence against these regulations of having in possession for sale any food in the labelling of which a name is used in contravention of regulation 4 or 5, or which is not marked or labelled in accordance with regulation 6 to 10 or which does not comply with regulation 11 or 14, it shall be a defence for the defendant to prove that before offering or exposing the food for sale he took all reasonable steps to ensure, as the case may be, that a name was not used in the labelling of the food in contravention of regulation 4 or 5, or that the food was marked or labelled in accordance with regulations 6 to 10 or that the food complied with regulation 11 or 14.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3) of this regulation, in any proceedings for an offence of selling a meat product which is not marked or labelled in accordance with regulation 9(2)(b) or (c) it shall be a defence for the defendant to prove that he took all reasonable precautions and exercised all due diligence to avoid the commission of the offence.

(3) If in any case the defence provided by paragraph (2) of this regulation involves an allegation that the commission of the offence in question was due to the act or default of another person or due to reliance on information supplied by another person, the defendant shall not, without leave of the court, be entitled to rely on that defence unless he has served on the prosecutor at least seven clear days before the hearing a notice in writing giving such information identifying or assisting in the identification of the other person as was then in his possession.

Application of various sections of the Act.

17. Sections 46(2) and (3) (which relate to prosecutions), 47(1) and (2) (which relate to evidence of analysis), 49 (which relates to the power of a court to require analysis by the Government Chemist in the United Kingdom), 50 (which relates to contravention due to some person other than the person charged), 51(2) (which relates to the conditions under which a warranty may be pleaded as a defence) and 52 (which relates to offences in relation to warranties and certificates of analysis) of the Act shall apply for the purposes of these regulations as if references therein to proceedings or a prosecution, under or taken or brought under the Act included references to proceedings, or a prosecution, as the case may be, taken or brought for an offence under these regulations and as if the reference in the said Section 49 to subsection (3) of Section 46 included a reference to that subsection as applied by these regulations.

Offences due to fault of another person.

18. Where the commission by any person of an offence under these regulations is due to the act or default of another person, that other person shall be guilty of the offence and may be charged with and convicted of the offence by virtue of this regulation whether or not proceedings are taken against the first mentioned person.
