(2) Any such list compiled shall, once approved by the Government, form a part of Schedule 2 hereto.

(3) In considering whether to include in a list compiled under subsection (1), the Board may take into account not only the building, structure, site or land itself, but also—

- (a) any respect in which the exterior contributes to the architectural or historic interest of any group of buildings of which it forms part; and
- (b) the desirability of preserving, on the ground of its architectural or historic interest, any feature of the building or structure consisting of a man-made object or structure fixed to it or adjoining it or forming part of the land and comprised within the curtilage of the building.

(4) Before compiling any list under this section, the Board shall consult with the Government and with such persons or bodies of persons as appear appropriate as having special knowledge of or interest in, buildings or structures of architectural or historic interest.

Amendment of Schedule 2.

42. (1) Subject to sections 43, 46 and 47, the Government may, after consultation with the Board, (acting either on its own initiative or on application from the owner of a building, structure, site or land) from time to time amend Schedule 2—

- (a) by adding or deleting from that Schedule any building, structure, site or land; or
- (b) by varying the description of any building, structure, site or land in that Schedule.

(2) The Government shall not, without the prior consent of a Secretary of State, add to Schedule 2 any building, structure, site or land held by or on behalf of the Crown for the purposes of the Government of the United Kingdom or vary the description in that Schedule of any such building, structure, site or land.

46. (1) On the expiry of the time specified in section 44 for filing notices of objection to the proposed exercise of any power of the Government under section 42, where any such notices have been filed and have not been withdrawn, the Board shall appoint a time, date and place for the hearing of the objections, and shall give every objector not less than fourteen days notice in writing of the time, date and place of hearing.

(2) At the hearing, every objector may appear either personally or by counsel, and may call evidence in support of his objection and may cross-examine witnesses called by any other party and make submissions in support of his objection.

(3) After giving every objector who appears at the hearing an opportunity to be heard, the Board shall consider and advise the Government on the objections.

Determination of objections.

47. (1) On considering the advice of the Board on the objections heard under section 46, the Government shall determine every such objection by allowing it wholly or partly, or by disallowing it.

(2) The Government shall cause notice of his decision in relation to each objection to be published in the Gazette, and a copy of the notice to be served on each objector.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), where any objections have been heard under section 46, the Government may, on the expiry of the period of one month following the date on which notice under subsection (2) is published in the Gazette, proceed to exercise the powers conferred on him by section 42.

(4) Where the Government has allowed an objection wholly or partly, he shall not exercise his powers under section 42 in a manner which is contrary to his decision in so allowing it.

(2) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in the Land (Acquisition) Act, in assessing under that Act any compensation that is to be paid for injurious affection, the archaeological, architectural, artistic, historical and vernacular factors that contribute to the value of any building, structure, site or land shall be disregarded except to the extent that the person entitled to compensation proves that he has acquired an estate or interest therein, and in doing so that he paid valuable consideration in good faith for any such factors.
