- (b) in the case of a pleasure yacht built outside of Gibraltar, the same evidence as in the case of a pleasure yacht built in Gibraltar, unless the declarant who makes the declaration of ownership declares that the time and place of its building are unknown to him, or that the builder's certificate cannot be produced, in which case there shall be required only the bill of sale under which the pleasure yacht or share therein became vested in the applicant for registration;
- (c) in the case of a pleasure yacht previously registered outside of Gibraltar other than a pleasure yacht to which regulation 32 applies a declaration that the pleasure yacht is free from all maritime liens and encumbrances, except as otherwise provided in regulation 51;

Provided that paragraphs (a) and (b) shall not apply to a pleasure yacht under construction.

(2) In respect of the requirements of paragraphs (b) and (c) of subregulation (1), the Registrar may direct that those requirements be waived upon it being shown to his satisfaction that the owner has attempted to obtain such documents as are specified therein but that due to wholly exceptional and abnormal circumstances prevailing in the other country inordinate delay has occurred due to reasons beyond the control of the owner:

Provided that such waiver shall be subject to any direction as to the production of such other like document as the Registrar may make.

(3) The Registrar may in cases of civil political or military crisis, temporarily suspend or modify the requirements of this regulation and of regulation 26 in respect of permission for transfer or certificates of deletion and similar documents which would otherwise be required from such place or places of registration.

Refusal of registration and removal from the Register.

18.(1) Notwithstanding that any pleasure yacht in respect of which an application for registration has been made is entitled to be registered, the Registrar may refuse to register the pleasure yacht if—

- (a) having regard—
  - (i) to the condition of the pleasure yacht so far as relevant to its safety or to any risk of pollution;
  - (ii) to the safety, health and welfare of persons employed or engaged in any capacity on board the pleasure yacht; or
  - (iii) to the interests of Gibraltar or to international pleasure yachting, it would be inappropriate for the pleasure yacht to be registered; or

- (b) such conditions as are prescribed by regulations or Registrar's Instructions have not been complied with;
- (c) the pleasure yacht is of a class or description the registration of which is prohibited by virtue of its inclusion in Schedule 2;
- (d) the name by which it is proposed to register the pleasure yacht has not been approved under regulation 13;
- (e) prescribed fees in relation to registration or annual charges are owed to the Register.

(2) Without prejudice to the interest of a mortgagee in a pleasure yacht registered under these Regulations, the Registrar—

- (a) may, in his discretion, terminate the registration of any pleasure yacht so registered if—
  - (i) the pleasure yacht's owner or operator has intentionally or recklessly failed to comply with the laws of Gibraltar with respect to safety of life at sea;
  - (ii) the pleasure yacht's owner or operator is in breach of an obligation to the Register in respect of the payment of fees or other charges due and owing;

- (iii) the pleasure yacht has been transferred to a registry outside of Gibraltar, or has been registered therein, without the consent of the Registrar;
- (iv) the pleasure yacht has been lost or scrapped;
- (v) the pleasure yacht is taken in war or hostilities as a result of which the owner has lost control over it;
- (vi) a registered agent being required in respect of that pleasure yacht, no registered agent is appointed in respect of that pleasure yacht;

- (b) shall terminate the registration of any pleasure yacht if that pleasure yacht ceases to be eligible for registration because a majority interest in the pleasure yacht ceases to be owned by one or more qualified persons.

(3) If, for any reason it appears to the Registrar that a pleasure yacht in respect of which an application for registration has been made may not be registerable, the Registrar may, by notice served on the applicant, require that person to furnish such information as the Registrar thinks necessary for the purpose of determining whether the pleasure yacht is registerable.

(4) Where the Registrar has served a notice under subregulation (3) in respect of a pleasure yacht, he may refuse to register the pleasure yacht unless within the period of thirty days commencing on the date of service of the notice, he has become satisfied that the pleasure yacht is registerable.

(5) If for any reason it appears to the Registrar that—

- (a) a registered pleasure yacht may no longer be entitled to be registered; or
- (b) one or more of the provisions of subregulations (1) or (2) applies to that pleasure yacht; or
- (c) that any penalty imposed on the owner of a registered pleasure yacht in respect of a contravention of any statutory provision relating to the owning or operating of a pleasure yacht has remained unpaid for a period of more than ninety days (and no appeal against the penalty is pending); or
- (d) that any summons for any such contravention has been duly served on the owner of a registered pleasure yacht but that person failed to appear at the time and place appointed for the trial of the information or complaint in question and a period of not less than ninety days has elapsed since that time, the Registrar may serve a notice on the owner and on any mortgagee or holder of a related instrument whose interest is recorded on the Register and on the registered agent—

- (e) that the Registrar is not satisfied that the pleasure yacht in question is entitled to be registered or (as the case may be) is satisfied of one or more of the matters referred to in paragraph (a), (b), (c) or (d); and
- (f) that the Registrar intends, after the end of the period of fourteen days beginning with the date of service of the notice, to direct that the pleasure yacht in question should cease to be registered unless he is satisfied that it would be inappropriate to do so by any representations made to him by or on behalf of the owner or mortgagee or holder of a related instrument whose interest is recorded on the Register within that period.

(6) As soon as practicable after the end of the period provided for in subregulation (5)(b) the Registrar shall accordingly terminate the pleasure yacht's registration unless he is satisfied by any such representations as are referred to in that subregulation that it would be inappropriate to do so.

(7) Where the registration of any pleasure yacht has terminated by virtue of this regulation, the Registrar may subsequently, if he is satisfied that it will be appropriate to do so, and on receipt of the prescribed fee, restore the pleasure yacht's registration.

(8) Termination of registration shall be without prejudice to the position of any mortgagee or of any holder of any related instrument whose interest is recorded on the Register.

(9) Where the Registrar has—

- (a) refused an application for registration of a pleasure yacht on the Register; or
- (b) terminated the registration of a pleasure yacht on the Register;

the owner of the pleasure yacht or the mortgagee or holder of any related instrument whose interest is recorded on the Register may within thirty days of the Registrar having given notice of the Registrar's decision appeal against that decision to the Minister and the Minister shall hear and determine that appeal within a reasonable time and in accordance with the requirements of natural justice.

(10) In the case of a decision to terminate the registration, and unless the owner or the mortgagee or holder of any related instrument whose interest is recorded on the Register shall have given notice in writing to the Registrar that no appeal will be made against the decision, the registration of the pleasure yacht on the Register shall be suspended for the period of thirty days from the day on which the Registrar gave notice of his decision and for such longer period not exceeding a further ninety days while that appeal is heard and determined.

(11) In determining an appeal under this regulation the Minister shall have regard to the provisions of these Regulations and no appeal shall be allowed if the effect would be to permit or continue a registration in contravention of the Act or these Regulations.

(12) Where, as a result of an appeal under this regulation, a registration is permitted or continued, the liability of the owner in respect of fees shall not exceed the liability which he would have had had his application for registration not been refused by the Registrar or had the Registrar not decided to terminate the registration, as the case may be.

(13) Except as is provided for in subregulation (12) the Registrar shall have no liability to an owner or a mortgagee or holder of any related instrument whose interest is recorded on the Register in respect of a refusal to register a pleasure yacht or the termination of a registration of a pleasure yacht unless that refusal or termination is shown by the owner or the mortgagee or holder of any related instrument whose interest is recorded on the Register to have resulted from bad faith on the part of the Registrar.

- (a) regard a pleasure yacht registered outside of Gibraltar, without being remeasured under this regulation, as deemed to be of the tonnage as specified in the certificate of registry of that pleasure yacht issued by a registry outside of Gibraltar, subject to such conditions and restrictions as may be prescribed or as the Registrar may determine, such a determination not to be inconsistent with the regulations or instructions;
- (b) designate persons or bodies to be Certifying Authorities;
- (c) provide for the issue of and the cancellation and delivery up of certificates and other documents appertaining to tonnage and survey required by this regulation or the instructions made hereunder.

(4) Whenever the tonnage of a pleasure yacht has been ascertained in accordance with these Regulations and registered, that tonnage shall thenceforth be deemed to be the tonnage of the pleasure yacht and shall be repeated in every subsequent registration of the pleasure yacht unless—

- (a) an alteration is made in the form or capacity of the pleasure yacht; or
- (b) it is discovered that the tonnage of the pleasure yacht has been incorrectly measured,

A mortgage recorded under the provisions of these Regulations of a pleasure yacht or share shall not be affected by any act of bankruptcy committed by the mortgagor after the date of the recording of the mortgage, notwithstanding that the mortgagor at the commencement of his bankruptcy had the pleasure yacht or share in his possession or order or at his disposition or was reputed owner thereof, and, subject to the provisions of regulation 63, the mortgage shall be preferred to any right, claim or interest of other creditors of the bankrupt, or any trustee or assignee on their behalf as against that pleasure yacht.

Transfer of mortgage.

4.(1) The representative person of a foreign maritime entity shall give notice in writing to the Registrar of any change in any of the matters specified in paragraph 3 and shall provide to the Registrar details of any change which affects the legal nature, the jurisdiction or creation, the power to own or operate a pleasure yacht, or the ability to sue and be sued of the foreign maritime entity and such notice shall comply with the provisions of paragraph 2.

(2) The representative person shall at the time of giving notice in accordance with sub-paragraph (1) provide to the Registrar a certified translation into English of any documents required by that sub-paragraph and which are not in the English language.

(3) When a registered foreign maritime entity is dissolved or its authority or existence is otherwise terminated or cancelled in the jurisdiction of its creation or when such foreign maritime entity is merged into or consolidated with another foreign maritime entity, a copy of the certificate from the competent authority in the jurisdiction of creation of such foreign maritime entity, which certificate attests to the occurrence of any such event, or a copy of an order or decree of a court of such jurisdiction directing the dissolution of such foreign entity, or the termination of its existence shall be delivered to the Registrar who shall register such document.

(4) Where the Registrar has received an application under sub-paragraph (1) or a certificate under sub-paragraph (3) in respect of a foreign maritime entity which is the owner of a registered pleasure yacht, the Registrar shall give notice of that fact to any mortgagee whose interest in the pleasure yacht is recorded on the registration of that pleasure yacht and the Registrar shall not then for a period of ninety days after the service of the notice on the mortgagee deregister the entity.

(5) Where a record provided for in paragraph 6 (2) has been made on the Register of Foreign Maritime Entities in respect of an entity, the provisions of sub-paragraph (4) shall apply in respect of the giving of notice to the mortgagee whose interest has been so recorded, and the entity shall not be deregistered for a period of ninety days from the date on which notice was served on such mortgagee by the Registrar.

(6) The Registrar, on receipt of the application to deregister or the certificate provided for in sub-paragraph (3) or, in circumstances where the provisions of sub-paragraph (4) or (5) apply, after the expiry of the ninety

(7) Paragraph 5(3) shall apply to an entity the registration of which as a foreign maritime entity has ceased under this paragraph, with the substitution of deregistration for striking off.

(2) If an entity on which a notice has been served in accordance with sub-paragraph (1) fails to remedy the defect in the prescribed time, then, subject to the provisions of paragraph 6, the Registrar may strike the name of the entity off the Register of Foreign Maritime Entities and if the Registrar strikes the name off, the entity ceases to be a foreign maritime entity for the purposes of these Regulations.

(3) An entity, the name of which has been struck off the Register of Foreign Maritime Entities in accordance with sub-paragraph (2) remains liable for all claims, debts, liabilities and obligations of the entity and the striking off shall not affect the liability of any of its members, directors, officers, agents or representatives in respect of the activities of the entity.

(4) An entity, the name of which has been struck off the Register of Foreign Maritime Entities, at the date of striking off ceases to be a qualified person.

Notice to pleasure yacht mortgagee of striking off.

6.(1) Where an entity registered under this Schedule is the owner of a registered pleasure yacht, the Registrar shall, where the entity has failed to remedy a defect specified in the notice served on the entity under paragraph 5(1) and the Registrar proposes to strike the entity off the Register of Foreign Maritime Entities, give notice of that intention to any mortgagees whose interest in the pleasure yacht is recorded on the registration of that pleasure yacht, and the Registrar shall not then for a period of ninety days after the service of such notice on the mortgagee strike the name of the entity off the Register of Foreign Maritime Entities.

(2) Where an entity registered under this Schedule is the owner of a pleasure yacht registered in a registry outside of Gibraltar, any mortgagee of such pleasure yacht may, upon the payment of the prescribed fee, cause a record to be made on the entry in the Register of Foreign Maritime Entities in respect of that entity of the mortgagee's interest in the pleasure yacht, and such record shall include the name of the mortgagee, the name and place of registration of the pleasure yacht and the name and address of a representative of the mortgagee to whom notice may be given of an intention to strike the entity off the Register of Foreign Maritime Entities.

(3) Where a record provided for in sub-paragraph (2) has been made on the Register of Foreign Maritime Entities in respect of an entity, the provisions of sub-paragraph (1) shall apply in respect of the giving of notice to the mortgagee whose interest has been so recorded and the entity shall not be struck off the Register of Foreign Maritime Entities for a period of ninety days from the date on which notice was served on such mortgagee by the Registrar.
