OFFENCES RELATING TO ACTS OF TERRORISM

Encouragement of Terrorism

Encouragement of terrorism.

12.(1) This section applies to a statement that is likely to be understood by a person to whom it is made as a direct or indirect encouragement or other inducement to them to the commission, preparation or instigation of acts of terrorism or offences listed in Schedule 1.

(2) A person commits an offence if-

- (a) he makes a statement to which this section applies or causes another to make such a statement; and
- (b) at the time he made it or causes it to be made, he-
 - (i) intends a person to be directly or indirectly encouraged or otherwise induced by the statement to commit, prepare or instigate acts of terrorism or offences listed in Schedule 1; or
 - (ii) is reckless as to whether a person will be directly or indirectly encouraged or otherwise induced by the statement to commit, prepare or instigate such acts or offences.

(3) For the purposes of this section, the statements that are likely to be understood by a person as indirectly encouraging the commission or preparation of acts of terrorism or offences listed in Schedule 1 include every statement which-

- (a) glorifies the commission or preparation, whether in the past, in the future or generally, of such acts or offences; and

- (b) is a statement from which the person could reasonably be expected to infer that what is being glorified is being glorified as conduct that should be emulated by them in existing circumstances.

(4) For the purposes of this section the questions how a statement is likely to be understood and what a person could reasonably be expected to infer from it must be determined having regard both—

- (a) to the contents of the statement as a whole; and
- (b) to the circumstances and manner in which it is made.

(5) It is irrelevant for the purposes of subsections (1) to (3)—

- (a) whether anything mentioned in those subsections relates to the commission, preparation or instigation of one or more particular acts of terrorism or offences listed in Schedule 1, of acts of terrorism or offences listed in Schedule 1 of a particular description or of acts of terrorism or offences listed in Schedule 1 generally; and
- (b) whether any person is in fact encouraged or induced by the statement to commit, prepare or instigate any such act or offence.

(6) In proceedings for an offence under this section against a person in whose case it is not proved that he intended the statement directly or indirectly to encourage or otherwise induce the commission, preparation or instigation of the acts of terrorism or offences listed in Schedule 1, it is a defence for him to show—

- (a) that the statement neither expressed his views nor had his endorsement, whether by virtue of section 14 or otherwise; and
- (b) that it was clear, in all the circumstances in the making of the statement, that it did not express his views and, apart from the possibility of his having been given and failed to comply with a notice under subsection (3) of that section, did not have his endorsement.

(7) A person guilty of an offence under this section shall be liable—

- (a) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 7 years or to a fine, or to both;
- (b) on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months, to a fine not exceeding the level 4 on the standard scale or to both..

Dissemination of terrorist publications.

13.(1) A person commits an offence if he engages in conduct falling within subsection (2) and, at the time he does so—

- (a) he intends an effect of his conduct to be a direct or indirect encouragement or other inducement to the commission, preparation or instigation of acts of terrorism;
- (b) he intends an effect of his conduct to be the provision of assistance in the commission or preparation of such acts; or
- (c) he is reckless as to whether his conduct has an effect mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b).

(2) For the purposes of this section a person engages in conduct falling within this subsection if he—

- (a) distributes or circulates a terrorist publication;
- (b) gives, sells or lends such a publication;
- (c) offers such a publication for sale or loan;
- (d) provides a service to others that enables them to obtain, read, listen to or look at such a publication, or to acquire it by means of a gift, sale or loan;
- (e) transmits the contents of such a publication electronically; or
- (f) has such a publication in his possession with a view to its becoming the subject of conduct falling within any of paragraphs (a) to (e).

(3) For the purposes of this section a publication is a terrorist publication, in relation to conduct falling within subsection (2), if matter contained in it is likely—

- (a) to be understood, by some or all of the persons to whom it is or may become available as a consequence of that conduct, as a direct or indirect encouragement or other inducement to them to the commission, preparation or instigation of acts of terrorism; or
- (b) to be useful in the commission or preparation of such acts and to be understood, by some or all of those persons, as contained in the publication, or made available to them, wholly or mainly for the purpose of being so useful to them.

(4) For the purposes of this section matter that is likely to be understood by a person as indirectly encouraging the commission or preparation of acts of terrorism includes any matter which—

- (a) glorifies the commission or preparation, whether in the past, in the future or generally, of such acts; and
- (b) is matter from which that person could reasonably be expected to infer that what is being glorified is being glorified as conduct that should be emulated by him in existing circumstances.

(5) For the purposes of this section the question whether a publication is a terrorist publication in relation to a particular conduct must be determined—

- (a) as at the time of that conduct; and
- (b) having regard both to the contents of the publication as a whole and to the circumstances in which that conduct occurs.

(6) In subsection (1) references to the effect of a person's conduct in relation to a terrorist publication include references to an effect of the publication on one or more persons to whom it is or may become available as a consequence of that conduct.

“parking” means leaving a vehicle or permitting it to remain at rest;

“traffic sign” shall mean any object or device (whether fixed or portable) for conveying warnings, information, requirements, restrictions or prohibitions of any description to traffic on roads or any specified description of traffic and any line or mark, on a road for conveying such warnings, information, requirements, restrictions or prohibitions; and

“vehicle” means any vehicle, whether or not it is in a fit state for use on roads, and includes any chassis or body, with or without wheels, appearing to have formed part of such a vehicle, and any load carried by, and anything attached to, such a vehicle.

(2) A person may be released on bail under subsection (1) at any time after arrest or after being taken into custody.

(3) A person released on bail under subsection (1) must be required to attend a specified police station.

(4) Where a police officer releases a person on bail under subsection (1)-

- (b) no security for the person's surrender to custody shall be taken from the person or from anyone else on the person's behalf; and

- (a) to secure that the person surrenders to custody;
- (b) to secure that the person does not commit an offence while on bail;

- (c) to secure that the person does not interfere with witnesses or otherwise obstruct the course of justice, whether in relation to himself or any other person; or

(6) Where a person is released on bail under subsection (1), a requirement may be imposed on the person as a condition of bail only under the preceding provisions of this section.

(7) The police station which the person is required to attend may be any police station.

- (a) must specify the requirements imposed by those conditions;
- (b) must explain the opportunities under section 105(1) and 106(1) for variation of those conditions; and
- (c) if it does not specify the police station at which the person is required to attend, must specify a police station at which the person may make a request under section 105(1)(b).

(6) If the notice does not include the information mentioned in subsection (4), the person must subsequently be given a further notice in writing which contains that information.

(7) The person may be required to attend a different police station from that specified in the notice under subsection (1) or (5) or to attend at a different time.

- (b) taken to a designated police station, not more than 6 hours after his arrival.

(3) Nothing in the Criminal Procedure and Evidence Act 2011 applies in relation to bail under section 102.

105.(1) Where a person released on bail under section 102(1) is on bail subject to conditions-

- (a) a relevant officer at the police station at which the person is required to attend; or

- (b) where no notice under section 103 specifying that police station has been given to the person, a relevant officer at the police station specified under section 103(5)(c), may, at the request of the person but subject to subsection (2), vary the conditions.

(2) On any subsequent request made in respect of the same grant of bail, subsection (1) confers power to vary the conditions of the bail only if the request is based on information that, in the case of the previous request or each previous request, was not available to the relevant officer considering that previous request when he was considering it.

(3) Where conditions of bail granted to a person under section 102(1) are varied under subsection (1)-

- (a) paragraphs (a) to (d) of section 102(4) apply;
- (b) requirements imposed by the conditions as so varied must be requirements that appear to the relevant officer varying the conditions to be necessary for any of the purposes mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (d) of section 102(5); and
- (c) the relevant officer who varies the conditions must give the person notice in writing of the variation.

(4) Power under subsection (1) to vary conditions is, subject to subsection (3)(a) and (b), power-

- (a) to vary or rescind any of the conditions; and
- (b) to impose further conditions.

(5) In this section “relevant officer”, in relation to a designated police station, means a custody officer but, in relation to any other police station-

- (a) means a police officer who is not involved in the investigation of the offence for which the person making the request under subsection (1) was under arrest when granted bail under section 102(1), if such a police officer is readily available; and

- (i) means a police officer other than the one who granted bail to the person, if such a police officer is readily available; and
- (ii) if no such police officer is readily available, means the police officer who granted bail.

Bail under section 102: variation of conditions by court.

106.(1) Where a person released on bail under section 102(1) is on bail subject to conditions, a magistrates' court may, on an application by or on behalf of the person, vary the conditions if—

- (a) the conditions have been varied under section 105(1) since being imposed under section 102(5);
- (b) a request for variation under section 105(1) of the conditions has been made and refused; or
- (c) a request for variation under section 105(1) of the conditions has been made and the period of 48 hours beginning with the day when the request was made has expired without the request having been withdrawn or the conditions having been varied in response to the request.

(2) In proceedings on an application for a variation under subsection (1), a ground may not be relied upon unless—

- (a) in a case falling within subsection (1)(a), the ground was relied upon in the request in response to which the conditions were varied under section 105(1); or
- (b) in a case falling within paragraph (b) or (c) of subsection (1), the ground was relied upon in the request mentioned in that paragraph,

but this does not prevent the court, when deciding the application, from considering different grounds arising out of a change in circumstances that has occurred since the making of the application.

(3) Where conditions of bail granted to a person under section 102(1) are varied under subsection (1)—

- (a) paragraphs (a) to (d) of section 102(4) apply;
- (b) requirements imposed by the conditions as so varied must be requirements that appear to the court varying the conditions to be necessary for any of the purposes mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (d) of section 102(5); and
- (c) that bail shall not lapse but shall continue subject to the conditions as so varied.

(4) Power under subsection (1) to vary conditions is, subject to subsection (3)(a) and (b), power-

- (a) to vary or rescind any of the conditions; and
- (b) to impose further conditions.

Failure to answer bail under section 102.

- (a) has been released on bail under section 102 subject to a requirement to attend a specified police station as may be varied by section 105 or section 106; but
- (b) fails to attend the police station at the specified time.

(2) A person arrested under subsection (1) must be taken to a police station, which may be the specified police station or any other police station, as soon as practicable after the arrest.

(3) A person who has been released on bail under section 102 may be arrested without a warrant by a police officer if the officer has reasonable grounds for suspecting that the person has broken any of the conditions of bail.

(4) A person arrested under subsection (3) must be taken to a police station, which may be the specified police station mentioned in subsection (1) or any other police station, as soon as practicable after the arrest.

(5) In subsection (1), “specified” means specified in a notice under subsection (1) or (6) of section 103 or, if notice of change has been given under subsection (8) of that section, or as may be varied by section 105 or section 106, in that notice.

(6) An arrest under this section is to be treated as an arrest for an offence.

(7) A person who without reasonable excuse fails to comply with a requirement under section 102, as may be varied by section 105 or section 106, to attend the police station at the time specified in the requirement commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for 12 months or to the statutory maximum fine or both.

2.(1) A customs officer or a police officer may seize any cash if he has reasonable grounds for suspecting that it is terrorist cash.

(2) A customs officer or a police officer may also seize cash part of which he has reasonable grounds for suspecting to be terrorist cash if it is not reasonably practicable to seize only that part.

Detention of seized cash.

3.(1) While a customs officer or a police officer continues to have reasonable grounds for his suspicion, cash seized under this Schedule may be detained initially for a period of 48 hours.

(2) In determining the period of 48 hours specified in subparagraph (1) there shall be disregarded-

- (b) Christmas Day;

- (b) in the case of any further order under this paragraph, beyond the end of the period of two years beginning with the date of the first order.

(b) may be heard and determined in private in the absence of persons so affected and of their legal representatives.

(5) An order under subparagraph (3) must provide for notice to be given to persons affected by it.

(6) An application for an order under subparagraph (3) may be made by a customs officer or a police officer and the court or justice may make the order if satisfied, in relation to any cash to be further detained, that one of the following conditions is met.

(7) The first condition is that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that the cash is intended to be used for the purposes of terrorism and that either-

- (a) its continued detention is justified while its intended use is further investigated or consideration is given to bringing (in Gibraltar or elsewhere) proceedings against any person for an offence with which the cash is connected; or
- (b) proceedings against any person for an offence with which the cash is connected have been started and have not been concluded.

(8) The second condition is that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that the cash consists of resources of an organisation which is a proscribed organisation and that either-

(9) The third condition is that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that the cash is property earmarked as terrorist property and that either-

Release of detained cash

5.(1) This paragraph applies while any cash is detained under this Schedule.

(2) A magistrates' court may direct the release of the whole or any part of the cash if satisfied, on an application by the person from whom it was seized, that the conditions in paragraph 3 for the detention of cash are no longer met in relation to the cash to be released.

(3) A customs officer or a police officer may, after notifying the magistrates' court or justice under whose order cash is being detained, release the whole or any part of it if satisfied that the detention of the cash to be released is no longer justified.

(4) But cash is not to be released-

- (a) if an application for its forfeiture under paragraph 6, or for its release under paragraph 9, is made, until any proceedings in pursuance of the application (including any proceedings on appeal) are concluded,

- (b) if (in Gibraltar or elsewhere) proceedings are started against any person for an offence with which the cash is connected, until the proceedings are concluded.

(4) An excepted joint owner is a joint tenant who obtained the property in circumstances in which it would not (as against him) be earmarked; and references to his share of the earmarked property are to so much of the property as would have been his if the joint tenancy had been severed.

Compensation.

11.(1) If no forfeiture order is made in respect of any cash detained under this Schedule, the person to whom the cash belongs or from whom it was seized may make an application to the magistrates' court for compensation.

(2) If, for any period after the initial detention of the cash for 48 hours (determined in accordance with paragraph 3(2)), the cash was not held in an interest-bearing account while detained, the court may order an amount of compensation to be paid to the applicant.

(3) The amount of compensation to be paid under subparagraph (2) is the amount the court thinks would have been earned in interest in the period in question if the cash had been held in an interest-bearing account.

(4) If the court is satisfied that, taking account of any interest to be paid under this Schedule or any amount to be paid under subparagraph (2), the applicant has suffered loss as a result of the detention of the cash and that the circumstances are exceptional, the court may order compensation (or additional compensation) to be paid to him.

(5) The amount of compensation to be paid under subparagraph (4) is the amount the court thinks reasonable, having regard to the loss suffered and any other relevant circumstances.

(6) If the cash was seized by a customs officer, the compensation is to be paid by HM Customs.

(7) If the cash was seized by a police officer, the compensation is to be paid out of the fund from which the expenses of the Royal Gibraltar Police are met.

(9) This paragraph does not apply if the court makes an order under paragraph 10.

Part 5

Property Earmarked as Terrorist Property

Property obtained through terrorism.

12.(1) A person obtains property through terrorism if he obtains property by or in return for acts of terrorism, or acts carried out for the purposes of terrorism.

(2) In deciding whether any property was obtained through terrorism-

- (a) it is immaterial whether or not any money, goods or services were provided in order to put the person in question in a position to carry out the acts;
- (b) it is not necessary to show that the act was of a particular kind if it is shown that the property was obtained through acts of one of a number of kinds, each of which would have been an act of terrorism, or an act carried out for the purposes of terrorism.

Property earmarked as terrorist property.

13.(1) Property obtained through terrorism is earmarked as terrorist property.

(2) But if property obtained through terrorism has been disposed of (since it was so obtained), it is earmarked as terrorist property only if it is held by a person into whose hands it may be followed.

(3) Earmarked property obtained through terrorism may be followed into the hands of a person obtaining it on a disposal by-

- (a) the person who obtained the property through terrorism; or
- (b) a person into whose hands it may (by virtue of this subparagraph) be followed.

Tracing property.

14.(1) Where property obtained through terrorism (“the original property”) is or has been earmarked as terrorist property, property which represents the original property is also earmarked.

(2) If a person enters into a transaction by which-

- (a) he disposes of earmarked property, whether the original property or property which (by virtue of this Part) represents the original property; and
- (b) he obtains other property in place of it, the other property represents the original property.

(3) If a person disposes of earmarked property which represents the original property, the property may be followed into the hands of the person who obtains it (and it continues to represent the original property).

Mixing property.

15.(1) Subparagraph (2) applies if a person's property which is earmarked as terrorist property is mixed with other property (whether his property or another's).

(2) The portion of the mixed property which is attributable to the property earmarked as terrorist property represents the property obtained through terrorism.

(3) Property earmarked as terrorist property is mixed with other property if (for example) it is used-

- (a) to increase funds held in a bank account;
- (b) in part payment for the acquisition of an asset;
- (c) for the restoration or improvement of land;
- (d) by a person holding a leasehold interest in the property to acquire the freehold.

Accruing profits.

16.(1) This paragraph applies where a person who has property earmarked as terrorist property obtains further property consisting of profits accruing in respect of the earmarked property.

(2) The further property is to be treated as representing the property obtained through terrorism.

General exceptions.

17.(1) If-

- (a) a person disposes of property earmarked as terrorist property; and
- (b) the person who obtains it on the disposal does so in good faith, for value and without notice that it was earmarked, the property may not be followed into that person's hands and, accordingly, it ceases to be earmarked.

(2) If-

- (a) in pursuance of a judgment in civil proceedings (whether in Gibraltar or elsewhere), the defendant makes a payment to the claimant or the claimant otherwise obtains property from the defendant;
- (b) the claimant's claim is based on the defendant's criminal conduct; and
- (c) apart from this subparagraph, the sum received, or the property obtained, by the claimant would be earmarked as terrorist property, the property ceases to be earmarked.

(3) If-

- (a) a payment is made to a person in pursuance of a compensation order under section 595 Criminal Procedure and Evidence Act 2011; and
- (b) apart from this subparagraph, the sum received would be earmarked as terrorist property, the property ceases to be earmarked.

(4) If-

- (a) a payment is made to a person in pursuance of a restitution order under section 600 Criminal Procedure and Evidence Act 2011 or a person otherwise obtains any property in pursuance of such an order; and
- (b) apart from this subparagraph, the sum received, or the property obtained, would be earmarked as terrorist property,

the property ceases to be earmarked.

(5) If-

- (a) in pursuance of a requirement of the Financial Services Commission, an amount is paid to or distributed among any persons in accordance with the court's directions; and
- (b) apart from this subparagraph, the sum received by them would be earmarked as terrorist property,

the property ceases to be earmarked.

(6) Where-

- (a) a person enters into a transaction to which paragraph 14(2) applies; and
- (b) the disposal is one to which subparagraph (1) applies, this paragraph does not affect the question whether (by virtue of paragraph 14(2)) any property obtained on the transaction in place of the property disposed of is earmarked.

(2) If a person grants an interest in property of his which is earmarked as terrorist property, the question whether the interest is also earmarked is to be determined in the same manner as it is on any other disposal of earmarked property.

(3) A person who makes a payment to another is to be treated as making a disposal of his property to the other, whatever form the payment takes.

(4) Where a person's property passes to another under a will or intestacy or by operation of law, it is to be treated as disposed of by him to the other.

- (a) constituted an offence under the law in force in a country outside Gibraltar; and
- (b) corresponds to an offence to which this Part applies.

(2) For this purpose an act punishable under the law in force in a country outside Gibraltar is regarded as constituting an offence under that law however it is described in that law.

(3) An act corresponds to an offence to which this Part applies if-

- (a) it would have constituted an offence to which this Part applies by virtue of section 109 if it had been done in Gibraltar; or
- (b) it was, or took place in the course of, an act of terrorism or was done for the purposes of terrorism.

(4) On an application for a notification order the condition in subparagraph (3)(a) or (b) is to be taken to be met unless-

Conditions for making a notification order.

3.(1) The conditions for making a notification order in respect of a person are as follows.

(4) The second condition is that-

- (a) the sentence was imposed or order made after the commencement of this Part; or
- (b) the sentence was imposed or order made before the commencement of this Part and immediately before that time the person-

- (i) was imprisoned or detained in pursuance of the sentence or order;

- (iii) had been released on licence, or was subject to an equivalent form of supervision, having served the whole or part of a sentence of imprisonment for the offence.

(5) The third condition is that the period for which the notification requirements would apply in respect of the offence (in accordance with section 112 as modified by paragraph 6(d)) has not expired.

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

This Bill repeals and replaces the Terrorism Act 2005 in order to update it, while continuing to implement the Council Framework Decision 2002/475/JHA and Council Framework Decision 2008/919/JHA.

PART 1 PRELIMINARY

This Part includes definitions for the interpretation of certain words and phrases in the Act, including the definition of what constitutes "terrorism" and "terrorist property".

Schedule 16 defines the "qualifying offences" for the purposes of the Act.

PART 2
PROSCRIBED ORGANISATIONS

This Part makes an organisation that is a proscribed organisation under the terms of the United Kingdom's Terrorism Act 2000 a proscribed organisation in Gibraltar. An application for deproscription must be made to the Secretary of State in the United Kingdom.

OFFENCES RELATING TO ACTS OF TERRORISM

This Part includes offences related to terrorist acts. Including the encouragement of terrorism, dissemination of terrorist publications (the application of the internet and other electronic services in relation to the aforementioned offences); the preparation of terrorist acts and terrorist training (including travelling abroad, funding travelling and facilitating travel for terrorist training); the making, possession or use of radioactive devices and materials; the making of terrorist threats relating to radioactive devices, materials, or nuclear facilities; trespass on nuclear sites; directing a terrorist organisation; possession for terrorist purposes; eliciting, publishing or communicating information about the police, etc and collection of information; the use of or hoaxes involving noxious substances or things to cause harm and intimidate; and hostage taking. This Part has retained and added to the offences under Part IV of the Terrorism Act 2005.

Schedule 1 sets out a list of "Terrorist offences" that are referred to in Part 3. These represent the parallel offences in Gibraltar law to those offences mentioned in the Council of Europe Convention on the Prevention of Terrorism.

PART 4
FINANCE OFFENCES

This Part includes offences related to terrorist financing and provides offences relating to fund-raising and other kinds of financial support for terrorism, together with power for a court to order forfeiture of any money or other property connected with the offences. This Part replaces and adds to Part II of the Terrorism Act 2005.

Schedule 3 defines the regulated sector and the supervisory authorities.

Schedule 4 gives details of forfeiture procedures.

PART 5
FORFEITURE AND FREEZING ORDERS

This Part includes powers to forfeit and freeze terrorist property and monitor the accounts of terrorists and suspected terrorists.

Terrorist Property - Section 62 and Schedules 4 and 8 of the Act contain provisions to prevent terrorists from gaining access to their money. They ensure that investigative and freezing powers are available wherever funds could be used to finance terrorism. The Act gives law enforcement agencies the power to seize terrorist cash, and the power to freeze assets at the start of an investigation, rather than when the person is about to be charged, reducing the risk that funds will be used or moved before they can be frozen.

Freezing orders - enables the Minister to freeze the assets of overseas governments or residents who have taken, or are likely to take, action to the detriment of Gibraltar's economy or action constituting a threat to the life or property of a Gibraltarian or resident of Gibraltar.

Schedule 5 makes further provision about the contents of freezing orders.

Schedule 8 introduces account monitoring orders enabling the police to require financial institutions to provide information on accounts for up to 90 days. The existing requirement to report knowledge or suspicion of terrorist financing has been strengthened, for the regulated sector, so that it is an offence not to report where there were "reasonable grounds" for suspicion.

DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION

This Part and Schedule 6 of the Act deal with information disclosure provisions for public authorities. Section 71 clarifies and extends a number of existing provisions for disclosure of information from public authorities to agencies involved in criminal investigations and proceedings. The gateways ensure that public authorities can disclose information which is subject to a statutory restriction on disclosure for the purposes of a criminal investigation or criminal proceedings. Section 73 creates a new gateway giving the Commissioner of Income Tax and the Collector of Customs a general power to disclose information held by them for law enforcement purposes and to the intelligence services for their purposes.

Schedule 6 deals with information disclosure provisions for public authorities.

PART 7
TERRORIST INVESTIGATIONS

This Part provides the police with a power to set up cordons. Schedule 7 provides a power to investigate terrorist finance.

PART 8
COUNTER-TERRORIST POWERS

This Part provides the police with powers to arrest and detain suspected terrorists, and broader powers to stop and search vehicles and pedestrians, and to impose parking restrictions. It also provides for Bail, with the possibility of variation of conditions, of the suspect before charge.

Schedule 9 provides for the treatment of suspects who are detained and for judicial extension of the initial period of detention. A suspect must be periodically reviewed and extensions of detention must be issued via the court; the total amount of time a person may be detained is for up to 17 days. Where a person is taken to hospital the time spent in hospital (if the person is not being questioned) does not count toward the total amount of time he may be legally detained.

Schedule 10 provides examination powers at ports and borders for police officer, customs officers and borders and coastguard officers.

Schedule 11 provides supplementary provisions on the specified searches (areas or places) under section 89. The authorisation of these searches shall not last for more than 14 days and it must receive Ministerial confirmation within the first 48 hours.

NOTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

This Part makes provision about the notification of information to the police by certain individuals convicted of terrorism (section 109) or terrorism-related offences (section 110). When in the community, such individuals must provide the police with certain personal information, must notify any subsequent changes to this information and confirm its accuracy annually. An individual who has had a notification requirement imposed on him may make an application for review; the Commissioner of Police and the court may amend the notification requirements or make an order which ceases the notification requirements.

Schedule 12 makes provision for notification orders. A notification order might be sought in respect of a national of Gibraltar who has been convicted of a foreign terrorism offence and who is deported to Gibraltar on release from prison abroad. It might also be sought in respect of a foreign national with such a conviction who is in or is coming to Gibraltar.

Schedule 13 makes provision for foreign travel restriction orders which may, in specified circumstances, be made by a court in respect of a person subject to the notification requirements, restricting that person's overseas travel.

Schedule 14 lists the offences in which, during sentencing, a terrorist connection is to be considered as an aggravating factor.

PART 10 TERRORISM OVERSEAS

This Part provides for extraterritorial jurisdiction and covers part of the UN Conventions for the Suppression of Terrorist Bombings and for the Suppression of the Financing of Terrorism.

PART 11 GENERAL

This Part contains further technical provisions.

Schedule 15 provides general powers for police, customs and borders and coastguard officers including powers for them to exchange information.

PART 12 SUPPLEMENTARY PROVISIONS

This Part provides for ancillary provisions to ensure the functionality of the Bill. It houses the powers for the Minister to make orders and regulations and provides for amendment of such and of any section in or schedule to the Act. It also provides for repeal of the Terrorism Act 2005 and for consequential, transitional and savings provisions due to that repeal.
