Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the Bills of Sale Act.

PART I.
APPLICATION AND INTERPRETATION.

Application.

2. This Act shall apply to every bill of sale executed on or after the commencement of this Act (whether the same be absolute, or subject or not subject to any trust) whereby the holder or grantee has power, either with or without notice, and either immediately or at any future time, to seize or take possession of any personal chattels comprised in or made subject to such bill of sale. (1878 c.31, s.3).

Definition of bill of sale.

- 3.(1) In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,— (1878 c.31, ss.4 and 6; 1890 c.53, s.2).
“bill of sale” includes—
 - (a) bills of sale, assignments, transfers, declarations of trust without transfer;
 - (b) inventories of goods with receipt thereto attached, or receipts for purchase moneys of goods, and other assurances of personal chattels;
 - (c) powers of attorney, authorities, or licences to take possession of personal chattels as security for any debt;
 - (d) any agreement, whether intended or not to be followed by the execution of any other instrument, by which a right in equity to any personal chattels, or to any charge or security thereon, shall be conferred;
 - (e) as regards any personal chattels which may be seized or taken thereunder, every attornment, instrument or agreement whereby a power of distress is given or agreed to be given by any person to any other person by way of security for any present, future or contingent debt or advance, and whereby any rent is reserved or made payable as a mode of providing for the payment of interest on such debt or advance, or otherwise for the purpose of such security only:

Provided that nothing in this paragraph shall extend to any mortgage of any estate or interest in any land, tenement or hereditament which the mortgagee, being in possession, shall have demised to the mortgagor as his tenant at a fair and reasonable rent.

(2) In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

“bill of sale” does not include the following documents—

- (a) assignments for the benefit of the creditors of the person making or giving the same;
- (b) marriage settlements;
- (c) transfers or assignments of any ship or vessel or any share thereof;
- (d) transfers of goods in the ordinary course of business of any trade or calling;
- (e) bills of sale of goods in foreign parts or at sea;
- (f) an instrument charging or creating any security on or declaring trusts of imported goods given or executed at any time prior to their deposit in a warehouse, factory or store, or to their being reshipped for export, or delivered to a purchaser not being the person giving or executing such instrument:

(1934-13)

Provided that nothing in this paragraph shall affect the operation of section 38(1) of the Bankruptcy Act, in respect of any goods comprised in any such instrument as is hereinbefore described in this paragraph, if such goods would, but for this paragraph, be goods within the meaning of that subsection;

- (g) bills of lading, India warrants, warehouse-keepers' certificates, warrants or orders for the delivery of goods, or any other documents used in the ordinary course of business as proof of the possession or control of goods, or authorizing or purporting to authorize, either by indorsement or by delivery, the possessor of such documents to transfer or receive goods thereby represented; and

- (h) an international interest within the definition of regulation 3 of the International Interests in Aircraft Equipment (Cape Town Convention) Regulations 2015.

Definition of personal chattels.

4. (1) In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(1878 c.31, s.4).

“personal chattels” means goods, furniture, and other articles capable of complete transfer by delivery, and (when separately assigned or charged) fixtures and growing crops, but does not include chattel interests in real estate, nor fixtures (except trade machinery as hereinafter in this Act defined) when assigned together with a freehold or leasehold interest in any land or building to which they are affixed, nor growing crops when assigned together with any interest in the land on which they grow, nor shares or interests in the stock, funds, or securities of any government, or in the capital or property of incorporated or joint stock companies, nor choses in action, nor any stock or produce upon any farm or lands which by virtue of any covenant or agreement or of the custom of the country ought not to be removed from any farm where the same are at the time of making or giving of such bill of sale.

- (2) Personal chattels shall be deemed to be in the “apparent possession” of the person making or giving a bill of sale, so long as they remain or are in or upon any house, mill, warehouse, building, works, yard, land, or other premises occupied by him, or are used and enjoyed by him in any place whatsoever, notwithstanding that formal possession thereof may have been taken by or given to any other person.

Application to trade machinery.

5. (1) Trade machinery shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be personal chattels, and any mode of disposition of trade machinery by the owner thereof which would be a bill of sale as to any other personal chattels shall be deemed to be a bill of sale within the meaning of this Act.

(1878 c.31, s.5).

- (2) For the purposes of this Act—

“trade machinery” means the machinery used in or attached to any factory or workshop exclusive of—

- (a) the fixed motive-powers, such as the water-wheels and steam-engines, and the steam-boilers, donkey-engines, and other fixed appurtenances of the motive-powers; and

- (b) the fixed power machinery, such as the shafts, wheels, drums, and their fixed appurtenances, which transmit the action of the motive-powers to the other machinery, fixed and loose; and,
- (c) the pipes for steam gas and water in the factory or workshop.

(3) The machinery or effects excluded by this section from the definition of trade machinery shall not be deemed to be personal chattels within the meaning of this Act.

(4) For the purposes of this Act, “factory or workshop” means any premises on which any manual labour is exercised by way of trade, or for purposes of gain, in or incidental to the following purposes or any of them that is to say,—

- (a) in or incidental to the making of any article or part of an article; or
- (b) in or incidental to the altering, repairing, ornamenting, finishing, of any article; or
- (c) in or incidental to the adapting for sale any article.

Fixtures or growing crops not to be deemed separately assigned when the land passes by the same instrument.

(1878 c.31, s.7). 6. (1) No fixtures or growing crops shall be deemed, under this Act, to be separately assigned or charged by reason only that they are assigned by separate words, or that power is given to sever them from the land or building to which they are affixed, or from the land on which they grow, without otherwise taking possession of or dealing with such land or building, or land, if by the same instrument any freehold or leasehold interest in the land or building to which such fixtures are affixed, or in the land on which such crops grow, is also conveyed or assigned to the same persons or person.

(2) The same rule of construction shall be applied to all deeds or instruments, including fixtures or growing crops, executed before the commencement of this Act, and then subsisting and in force, in all questions arising under any bankruptcy, liquidation, assignment for the benefit of creditors or execution of any process of any court, which shall take place or be issued after the commencement of this Act.

PART II.
PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO BILLS OF SALE GENERALLY.

Bill of sale to be void unless attested and registered.

7. Every bill of sale shall be duly attested and shall be registered under this Act within seven clear days after the execution thereof, or, if it is executed in any place out of Gibraltar, then within seven clear days after the time at which it would in the ordinary course of post arrive in Gibraltar if posted immediately after the execution thereof; and shall truly set forth the consideration for which it was given; otherwise the following consequences shall ensue—

*(1878 c.31, s.8;
1882 c.43, s.8).*

- (a) in the case of a bill of sale made or given by way of security for the payment of money by the grantor thereof, such bill of sale shall be void in respect of the personal chattels comprised therein;
- (b) in the case of any other bill of sale, it shall, as against all trustees or assignees of the estate of the person whose chattels, or any of them, are comprised in such bill of sale under the law relating to bankruptcy or liquidation, or under any assignment for the benefit of the creditors of such person, and also as against all sheriffs, officers and other persons seizing any chattels comprised in such bill of sale, in the execution of any process of any court authorizing the seizure of the chattels of the person by whom or of whose chattels such bill has been made, and also as against every person on whose behalf such process shall have been issued, shall be deemed fraudulent and void so far as regards the property in or right to the possession of any chattels for bankruptcy or liquidation, or of the execution of such assignment, or of executing such process (as the case may be), and after the expiration of such seven days are in the possession or apparent possession of the person making such a bill of sale or of any person against whom the process has issued under or in the execution of which such bill has been made or given, as the case may be.

Avoidance of certain duplicate bills of sale.

8. Where a subsequent bill of sale is executed within or on the expiration of seven days after the execution of a prior unregistered bill of sale, and comprises all or any part of the personal chattels comprised in such prior bill of sale, then, if such subsequent bill of sale is given as a security for the same debt as is secured by the prior bill of sale, or for any part of such debt, it shall, to the extent to which it is a security for the same debt or part thereof, and so far as respects the personal chattels or part thereof comprised in the prior bill, be absolutely void, unless it is proved to the satisfaction of the court having cognizance of the case that the subsequent bill of sale was bona fide given for the purpose of correcting some material error in the prior bill of sale, and not for the purpose of evading this Act.

Mode of registering bills of sale.

*(1878 c.31, s.10;
1882 c.43, s.10).*

9. (1) A bill of sale shall be attested and registered under this Act in the following manner;

- (a) the execution of every bill of sale, other than a bill of sale made or given by way of security for the payment of money, shall be attested by a solicitor of the Supreme Court, and the attestation shall state that before the execution of the bill of sale the effect thereof has been explained to the grantor by the attesting solicitor;
- (b) the execution by the grantor of any bill of sale made or given by way of security for the payment of money shall be attested by one or more credible witnesses, not being party thereto;
- (c) every bill of sale, with every schedule or inventory thereto annexed or therein referred to, and also a true copy of such bill and of every such schedule or inventory, and of every attestation of the execution of such bill of sale, together with an affidavit of the time of such bill of sale being made or given, and of its due execution and attestation, and a description of the residence and occupation of the person making or giving the same (or in the case the same is made or given by any person under or in the execution of any process, then a description of the residence and occupation of the person against whom such process issued), and of every attesting witness to such bill of sale, shall be presented to and the said copy and affidavit shall be filed with the registrar within seven clear days after the making or giving of such bill of sale, in like manner as a warrant of attorney in any personal action given by a trader is now by law required to be filed;
- (d) if the bill of sale is made or given subject to any defeasance or condition, or declaration of trust not contained in the body thereof, such defeasance, condition, or declaration shall be deemed to be part of the bill, and shall be written on the same paper or parchment therewith before the registration, and shall be truly set forth in the copy filed under this Act therewith and as part thereof, otherwise the registration shall be void.

(2) A transfer or assignment of a registered bill of sale need not be registered.

Priority given by registration.

10. In case two or more bills of sale are given, comprising in whole or in part any of the same chattels, they shall have priority in the order of the date of their registration respectively as regards such chattels. (1878 c.31, s.10).

Renewal of registration.

11. (1) The registration of a bill of sale must be renewed once at least every five years, and if a period of five years elapses from the registration or renewed registration of a bill of sale without a renewal or further renewal (as the case may be), the registration shall become void. (1878 c.31, s.11).

(2) The renewal of a registration shall be effected by filing with the registrar an affidavit stating the date of the bill of sale and of the last registration thereof, and the names, residences, and occupations of the parties thereto as stated therein, and that the bill of sale is still a subsisting security.

(3) Every such affidavit may be in the form set forth in Schedule 1.

(4) A renewal of registration shall not become necessary by reason only of a transfer or assignment of a bill of sale.

Form of register.

12. (1) The Registrar shall keep a book (in this Act called the “register”) for the purposes of this Act, and shall, upon the filing of any bill of sale or copy under this Act, enter therein in the form set forth in Schedule 2, or in any other prescribed form, the name, residence and occupation of the person by whom the bill was made or given (or in case the same was made or given by any person under or in the execution of process, then, the name, residence and occupation of the person against whom such process was issued, and also the name of the person or persons to whom or in whose favour the bill was given), and the other particulars shown in Schedule 2 or to be prescribed under this Act, and shall number all such bills registered in each year consecutively, according to the respective dates of their registration. (1878 c.31, s.10).

(2) Upon the registration of any affidavit of renewal the like entry shall be made, with the addition of the date and number of the last previous entry relating to the same bill, and the bill of sale or copy originally filed shall be thereupon marked with the number affixed to such affidavit of renewal.

(3) The Registrar shall also keep an index of the names of the grantors of registered bills of sale with reference to entries in the register of the bills of sale given by each such grantor.

(4) Such index shall be arranged in divisions corresponding with the letters of the alphabet, so that all grantors whose surnames begin with the same letter (and no others) shall be comprised in one division, but the arrangement within each such division need not be strictly alphabetical.

Rectification of register.

(1878 c.31, s.14). 13. The Chief Justice on being satisfied that the omission to register a bill of sale or an affidavit or renewal thereof within the time prescribed by this Act, or the omission or misstatement of the name, residence or occupation of any person, was accidental or due to inadvertence, may in his discretion order such omission or mis-statement to be rectified by the insertion in the register of the true name, residence or occupation, or by extending the time for such registration on such terms and conditions (if any) as to security, notice by advertisement or otherwise, or as to any other matter, as he thinks fit to direct.

Entry of satisfaction.

(1878 c.31, s.15). 14. Subject to and in accordance with any rules to be made under and for the purposes of this Act, the registrar may order a memorandum of satisfaction to be written upon any registered copy of a bill of sale, upon the prescribed evidence being given that the debt (if any) for which such bill of sale was made or given has been satisfied or discharged.

Affidavits.

(1878 c.31, s.16). 15. Every affidavit required by or for the purposes of this Act may be sworn before any commissioner for oaths or before any person duly authorized to take affidavits in the Supreme Court.

Order and disposition.

(1878 c.31, s.20). 16. Chattels comprised in a bill of sale which has been and continues to be duly registered under this Act shall not be deemed to be in the possession, order, or disposition of the grantor of the bill of sale within the meaning of the Bankruptcy Act.

Time for registration.

(1878 c.31, s.22). 17. When the time for registering a bill of sale expires on a Sunday, or other day on which the Registrar's office is closed, the registration shall be valid if made on the next following day on which the office is open.
