(whichever the less) the determination of the chairperson of the meeting shall be of no effect in respect of that resolution (unless it is upheld by the Law Council) and the chairperson of the meeting may then provisionally take such votes as he may think fit or may adjourn the meeting (or proceed to other business and then adjourn the meeting) so as to enable a vote to be taken on the resolution after the Law Council's determination;

4.10.3 a ballot shall not be capable of being required by persons entitled to vote at the meeting other than the chairperson of the meeting if the chairperson of the meeting declares that the subject matter of the resolution has recently been the subject of a ballot.
