(8) References to adoption are to the adoption of persons, wherever they may be habitually resident, effected under the law of any country or territory, whether within or outside Gibraltar.

Considerations to be taken in the application of the exercise of powers.

4.(1) Whenever a court or the Agency is coming to a decision relating to the adoption of a child, the paramount consideration of the court or the Agency must be the child’s welfare, throughout the child’s life.

(2) The court or the Agency must at all times consider that, in general, any delay in coming to the decision is likely to prejudice the child's welfare.

(3) The court or the Agency must have regard to the following matters, among others—

- (a) the child's ascertainable wishes and feelings regarding the decision, subject to the child's age and understanding;
- (b) the child's particular needs;
- (c) the likely effect on the child throughout his life of having ceased to be a member of the birth family and become an adopted person;
- (d) the child's age, sex, background and any of the child's characteristics which the court or Agency considers relevant;
- (e) any harm within the meaning of the Children Act 2009 which the child has suffered or is at risk of suffering;
- (f) the relationship which the child has with relatives, with any person who is a prospective adopter with whom the child is placed, and with any other person in relation to whom the court or the Agency considers the relationship to be relevant, including—
 - (i) the likelihood of any such relationship continuing and the value to the child of its doing so;
 - (ii) the ability and willingness of any of the child's relatives, or of any such person, to provide the child with a secure environment in which the child can develop, and otherwise to meet the child's needs;
 - (iii) the wishes and feelings of any of the child's relatives, or of any such person, regarding the child;
- (g) the child's religious persuasion, racial origin and cultural and linguistic background;
- (h) the value to the child of a stable and harmonious family unit.

(4) In coming to a decision relating to the adoption of a child, a court or the Agency must always consider the whole range of powers available to it in the child's case whether under this Act or the Children Act 2009; and the court must not make any order under this Act unless it considers that making the order would be better for the child than not doing so.

(5) In this section, "coming to a decision relating to the adoption of a child", in relation to a court, includes—

- (a) coming to a decision in any proceedings where the orders that might be made by the court include an adoption order (or the revocation of such an order), a placement order (or the revocation of such an order) or an order under section 21 or 47 (or the revocation or variation of such an order);

- (b) coming to a decision about granting permission in respect of any action (other than the initiation of proceedings in any court) which may be taken by the Agency under this Act, but does not include coming to a decision about granting permission in any other circumstances.

(6) For the purposes of this section—

- (a) references to relationships are not confined to legal relationships;
- (b) references to a relative, in relation to a child, include the child's mother and father.

- (a) must extend to the provision of adoption support services to persons who are within a description designated by order by the Minister;
- (b) may extend to the provision of the adoption services to other persons.

(4) The Minister may provide any of the requisite facilities by securing their provision by other persons who are within a description designated by order of persons who may provide the facilities in question.

Arrangements.

6.(1) The Government shall continue to make arrangements and give directions for all or any of its functions within subsection (2) to be carried out on its behalf by the Agency.

(2) The functions mentioned in subsection (1) are functions in relation to—

- (a) the recruitment of persons as prospective adopters;
- (b) the assessment of prospective adopters' suitability to adopt a child;
- (c) the approval of prospective adopters as suitable to adopt a child;

(3) The Agency may request the help of the persons mentioned in section 5(4) in carrying out an assessment.

(4) Where, as a result of an assessment, the Agency decides that a person has needs for adoption support services, they must then decide whether to provide any adoption support services to that person.

(5) If—

- (a) the Agency decides to provide any adoption support services to a person; and
- (b) the circumstances fall within a description designated by order of the Minister, the Agency must prepare a plan in accordance with which adoption support services are to be provided to the person and keep the plan under review.

- (g) as to the consequences of conditions imposed by virtue of subsection (7)(f) not being met.

(8) The Agency may carry out an assessment of the needs of any person under this section at the same time as an assessment of that person's needs is made under any other enactment.

(9) If at any time during the assessment of the needs of any person under this section, it appears to the Agency that there may be a need for the provision of services to that person by-

- (a) the Gibraltar Health Authority;
- (b) the Department of Education; or
- (c) any other person appointed by the Government for the purposes of this section, the Agency must notify the Gibraltar Health Authority, Department of Education or the appointed person.

(10) Where it appears to the Agency that another public authority could, by taking any specified action, help in the exercise of any of the Agency's functions under this section, the Agency may request the help of that other public authority, specifying the action in question.

(11) A public authority whose help is so requested must comply with the request if it is consistent with the exercise of their functions.

10.(1) Regulations made under section 9 may establish a procedure under which any person in respect of whom a qualifying determination has been made by the Agency may apply to the Minister for a review of that determination by a panel constituted by the Minister.

(2) The regulations must make provision as to the description of determinations which are qualifying determinations for the purposes of subsection (1).

(3) The regulations may include provision as to—

- (a) the duties and powers of a panel;
- (b) the administration and procedures of a panel;
- (c) the appointment of members of a panel (including the number, or any limit on the number, of members who may be appointed and any conditions for appointment);
- (d) the duties of the Agency in connection with reviews conducted under the regulations;

- (e) the monitoring of any reviews.

11.(1) The Agency must give to the Minister any statistical or other general information the Minister requires about—

- (a) its performance of all or any of its functions relating to adoption;
- (b) the children and other persons in relation to whom it has exercised those functions.

(2) The relevant officer of the Supreme Court must give to the Minister any statistical or other general information the Minister requires about the proceedings under this Act of the court in question.

(3) In subsection (2), “relevant officer”, in relation to the Supreme Court, means the officer of that court who is designated to act for the purposes of that subsection.

(4) The information required to be given to the Minister under this section must be given at the times, and in the form, directed by the Minister.

(5) The Minister may publish from time to time abstracts of the information given to the Minister under this section.

Default power of the Minister.

12.(1) If the Minister is satisfied that the Agency has failed, without reasonable excuse, to comply with any of the duties imposed on it by virtue of this Act, the Minister may make an order declaring the Agency to be in default in respect of that duty.

(2) An order under subsection (1) must give the Minister’s reasons for making it.

(3) An order under subsection (1) may contain such directions as appear to the Minister to be necessary for the purpose of ensuring that, within the period specified in the order, the duty is complied with.

(4) Any such directions are enforceable, on the Minister’s application, by a mandatory order.

Inspection of premises.

13.(1) The Minister may arrange for any premises in which—

- (a) a child is living with a person with whom the child has been placed by the Agency; or relating to the discharge of any of its functions in relation to adoption which the Minister specifies.

(3) An inspection under this section must be conducted by a person authorised by the Minister.

(4) An officer of the Agency may only be so authorised with the consent of the Agency.

PART III

Placement for adoption and adoption orders

Placement for adoption by the Agency.

14.(1) The Agency may—

- (a) place a child for adoption with prospective adopters; or
- (b) where it has placed a child with any persons (whether under this Part or not), leave the child with them as prospective adopters, but, except in the case of a child who is less than six weeks old, may only do so under section 15 or a placement order.

(2) The Agency may only place a child for adoption with prospective adopters if the Agency is satisfied that the child ought to be placed for adoption.

(3) A child who is placed or authorised to be placed for adoption with prospective adopters by the Agency is looked after by the Agency.

(4) If an application for an adoption order has been made by any persons in respect of a child and has not been disposed of—

- (a) the Agency may leave the child with those persons until the application is disposed of; but
- (b) apart from that, the child may not be placed for adoption with any prospective adopters.

(5) References in this Act (apart from this section) to the Agency placing a child for adoption—

- (a) are to its placing a child for adoption with prospective adopters; and
- (b) include, where it has placed a child with any persons (whether under this Act or not), leaving the child with them as prospective adopters; and references in this Act (apart from this section) to a child who is placed for adoption by the Agency are to be interpreted accordingly.

(6) References in this Part to the Agency being, or not being, authorised to place a child for adoption are to the Agency being or (as the case may be) not being authorised to do so under section 15 or a placement order.

(7) This section is subject to sections 25 to 30.

Placing children with parental consent.

15.(1) Where the Agency is satisfied that each parent or guardian of a child has consented to the child—

- (a) being placed for adoption with prospective adopters identified in the consent; or
- (b) being placed for adoption with any prospective adopters who may be chosen by the Agency, and has not withdrawn the consent, the Agency is authorised to place the child for adoption accordingly.

(2) Consent to a child being placed for adoption with prospective adopters identified in the consent may be combined with consent to the child subsequently being placed for adoption with any prospective adopters who may be chosen by the Agency in circumstances where the child is removed from or returned by the identified prospective adopters.

(3) Subsection (1) does not apply where—

- (a) an application has been made on which a care order might be made and the application has not been disposed of; or
- (b) a care order or placement order has been made after the consent was given.

(4) References in this Act to a child placed for adoption under this section include a child who was placed under this section with prospective adopters and continues to be placed with them, whether or not consent to the placement has been withdrawn.

(5) This section is subject to section 49.

Advance consent to adoption.

16.(1) A parent or guardian of a child who consents to the child being placed for adoption by the Agency under section 15 may, at the same or any subsequent time, consent to the making of a future adoption order.

(2) Consent under this section—

- (a) where the parent or guardian has consented to the child being placed for adoption with prospective adopters identified in the consent, may be consent to adoption by them; or
- (b) may be consent to adoption by any prospective adopters who may be chosen by the Agency.

(3) A person may withdraw any consent given under this section.

(4) A person who gives consent under this section may, at the same or any subsequent time, by notice given to the Agency—

- (a) state that he or she does not wish to be informed of any application for an adoption order; or
- (b) withdraw such a statement.

(5) A notice under subsection (4) has effect from the time when it is received by the Agency but has no effect if the person concerned has withdrawn their consent.

(6) This section is subject to section 49.

Placement orders.

17.(1) A placement order is an order made by the court authorising the Agency to place a child for adoption with any prospective adopters who may be chosen by the Agency.

(2) The court may not make a placement order in respect of a child unless—

- (a) the child is subject to a care order;
- (b) the court is satisfied that the conditions in section 64(2) of the Children Act 2009 are met; or
- (c) the child has no parent or guardian.

(3) The court may only make a placement order if, in the case of each parent or guardian of the child, the court is satisfied—

- (a) that the parent or guardian has consented to the child being placed for adoption with any prospective adopters who may be chosen by the Agency and has not withdrawn the consent; or
- (b) that the parent's or guardian's consent should be dispensed with.

This subsection is subject to section 49.

(4) A placement order continues in force until—

- (a) it is revoked under section 19;
- (b) an adoption order is made in respect of the child; or
- (c) the child marries, forms a civil partnership or attains the age of 18 years.

Applications for placement orders.

18.(1) The Agency must apply to the court for a placement order in respect of a child if—

- (a) the child is placed for adoption by them or is being provided with accommodation by them;
- (b) the Agency is not authorised to place the child for adoption;
- (c) the child has no parent or guardian or the authority consider that the conditions in section 64(2) of the Children Act 2009 are met; and
- (d) the Agency is satisfied that the child ought to be placed for adoption.

(2) If—

- (a) an application has been made (and has not been disposed of) on which a care order might be made in respect of a child; or
- (b) a child is subject to a care order and the Agency is not authorised to place the child for adoption, the Agency must apply to the court for a placement order if it is satisfied that the child ought to be placed for adoption.

(3) If—

- (a) a child is subject to a care order; and
- (b) the Agency is authorised to place the child for adoption under section 15;

the Agency may apply to the court for a placement order.

(4) If the Agency—

- (a) is under a duty to apply to the court for a placement order in respect of a child; or
- (b) has applied for a placement order in respect of a child and the application has not been disposed of; the child is looked after by the Agency.

(5) Subsections (1) to (3) do not apply in respect of a child—

- (a) if any persons have given notice of intention to adopt, unless the period of four months beginning with the giving of the notice has expired without them applying for an adoption order or their application for such an order has been withdrawn or refused; or

- (b) if an application for an adoption order has been made and has not been disposed of.

(6) Where—

- (a) an application for a placement order in respect of a child has been made and has not been disposed of; and
- (b) no interim care order is in force, the court may give any directions it considers appropriate for the medical or psychiatric examination or other assessment of the child; but a child who is of sufficient understanding to make an informed decision may refuse to submit to the examination or other assessment.

(7) The Agency—

- (a) in relation to a care order, is the authority in whose care the child is placed by the order; and
- (b) in relation to an application on which a care order might be made, is the authority which makes the application.

Revoking placement orders.

19.(1) The court may revoke a placement order on the application of any person.

(2) But an application may not be made by a person other than the child or the Agency authorised by the order to place the child for adoption unless—

- (a) the court has given permission to apply; and
- (b) the child is not placed for adoption by the Agency.

(3) The court cannot give permission under subsection (2)(a) unless it is satisfied that there has been a change in circumstances since the order was made.

(4) If the court determines, on an application for an adoption order, not to make the order, it may revoke any placement order in respect of the child.

(5) Where—

- (a) an application for the revocation of a placement order has been made and has not been disposed of; and
- (b) the child is not placed for adoption by the authority, the child may not without the court's permission be placed for adoption under the order.

Parental responsibility.

20.(1) This section applies while—

- (a) a child is placed for adoption under section 15 or the Agency is authorised to place a child for adoption under that section; or
- (b) a placement order is in force in respect of a child.

(2) Parental responsibility for the child is given to the Agency.

(3) While the child is placed with prospective adopters, parental responsibility is given to them.

(4) The Agency may determine that the parental responsibility of any parent or guardian, or of prospective adopters, is to be restricted to the extent specified in the determination.

Contact.

21.(1) On the Agency being authorised to place a child for adoption, or placing a child for adoption who is less than six weeks old—

- (a) any contact provision in an order made under section 25 of the Children Act 2009 ceases to have effect;
- (b) any order under section 68 of the Children Act 2009 ceases to have effect; and
- (c) any contact activity direction made in proceedings for the making, variation or discharge of an order made under section 25 of the Children's Act 2009 with respect to the child, or made in other proceedings that relate to such an order, is discharged.

(2) While the Agency is so authorised or a child is placed for adoption—

- (a) no application may be made for —
 - (i) an order made under section 25 of the Children Act 2009 containing contact provision; or
 - (ii) an order under section 68 of the Children Act 2009, but
- (b) the court may make an order under this section requiring the person with whom the child lives, or is to live, to allow the child to visit or stay with the person named in the order, or for the person named in the order and the child otherwise to have contact with each other.

(3) An application for an order under this section may be made by—

- (a) the child or the Agency;
- (b) any parent, guardian or relative;
- (c) any person in whose favour there was provision which ceased to have effect by virtue of subsection (1)(a) or an order which ceased to have effect by virtue of subsection (1)(b);
- (d) if an order made under section 25 of the Children Act 2009 was in force immediately before the Agency was authorised to place the child for adoption or (as the case may be) placed the child for adoption at a time when the child was less than six weeks old, any person named in the order as a person with whom the child was to live;
- (e) if a person had care of the child immediately before that time by virtue of an order made in the exercise of the Supreme Court's inherent jurisdiction with respect to children, that person,
- (f) any person who has obtained the court's permission to make the application.

(4) When making a placement order, the court may on its own initiative make an order under this section.

(5) In this section "contact provision" means provision which regulates arrangements relating to—

- (a) with whom a child is to spend time or otherwise have contact; or
- (b) when a child is to spend time or otherwise have contact with any person;

but in subsections (5)(a) and (b) a reference to spending time or otherwise having contact with a person is to spending time or having contact otherwise than as a result of living with the person.

(6) In this section "contact activity direction" has the meaning given by section 32 of the Children Act 2009.

Supplementary provision as to contact.

22.(1) An order under section 21—

- (a) has effect while the Agency is authorised to place the child for adoption or the child is placed for adoption; but
- (b) may be varied or revoked by the court on an application by the child, the agency or a person named in the order.

(2) The Agency may refuse to allow the contact that would otherwise be required by virtue of an order under that section if—

- (a) it is satisfied that it is necessary to do so in order to safeguard or promote the child's welfare; and
- (b) the refusal is decided upon as a matter of urgency and does not last for more than seven days.

(3) Regulations may make provisions in respect of —

- (a) the steps to be taken by the Agency after exercising its power under subsection (2);
- (b) the circumstances in which, and conditions subject to which, the terms of any order under section 21 may be departed from by agreement between the Agency and any person for whose contact with the child the order provides;
- (c) notification by the Agency of any variation or suspension of arrangements made (otherwise than under an order under that section) with a view to allowing any person contact with the child.

(4) Before making a placement order the court must—

- (a) consider the arrangements which the Agency has made, or proposes to make, for allowing any person contact with the child; and
- (b) invite the parties to the proceedings to comment on those arrangements.

(5) An order under section 21 may provide for contact on any conditions the court considers appropriate.

Further consequences of placement.

23.(1) Where a child is placed for adoption under section 15 or the Agency is authorised to place a child for adoption under that section—

- (a) a parent or guardian of the child may not apply for an order made under section 25 of the Children Act 2009 regulating the child's living arrangements unless an application for an adoption order has been made and the parent or guardian has obtained the court's permission under subsection (3) or (5) of section 42;

(3) The notice must be given not more than two years, or less than three months, before the date on which the application for the adoption order is made.

The making of adoption orders

Adoption orders.

41.(1) An adoption order is an order made by the court on an application under section 45 or 46 giving parental responsibility for a child to the adopters or adopter.

- (c) any order under the Children Act 2009.

- (3) An adoption order—

- (a) does not affect parental responsibility so far as it relates to any period before the making of the order; and
- (b) in the case of an order made on an application under section 46(2) by the partner of a parent of the adopted child, does not affect the parental responsibility of that parent or any duties of that parent within subsection (2)(d).

- (4) Subsection (2)(b) does not apply to a duty arising by virtue of an agreement—

- (a) which constitutes a trust; or

- (b) which expressly provides that the duty is not to be extinguished by the making of an adoption order.

(5) An adoption order may be made even if the child to be adopted is already an adopted child.

(6) Before making an adoption order, the court must consider whether there should be arrangements for allowing any person contact with the child; and for that purpose the court must consider any existing or proposed arrangements and obtain any views of the parties to the proceedings.

Conditions for making adoption orders.

42.(1) Subject to section 49, an adoption order may not be made if the child has a parent or guardian unless one of the following two conditions is met.

- (c) that the parent's or guardian's consent should be dispensed with.

(3) A parent or guardian may not oppose the making of an adoption order under subsection (2)(b) without the court's permission.

(4) The second condition is that—

- (a) the child has been placed for adoption by the Agency with the prospective adopters in whose favour the order is proposed to be made;
- (b) either—
 - (i) the child was placed for adoption with the consent of each parent or guardian and the consent of the mother was given when the child was at least six weeks old; or
 - (ii) the child was placed for adoption under a placement order; and
- (c) no parent or guardian opposes the making of the adoption order.

(5) A parent or guardian may not oppose the making of an adoption order under the second condition without the court's permission.

(6) The court cannot give permission under subsection (3) or (5) unless satisfied that there has been a change in circumstances since the consent of the parent or guardian was given or the placement order was made.

(7) An adoption order may not be made in relation to a person who-

- (a) is or has been married;
- (b) is or has been a civil partner; or
- (c) has attained the age of 19 years.

Restrictions on making adoption orders.

43. The court may not hear an application for an adoption order in relation to a child, where a previous application to which an adoption order applies made in relation to the child by the same persons was refused by any court, unless it appears to the court that, because of a change in circumstances or for any other reason, it is proper to hear the application.

Applications for adoption.

44.(1) An application for an adoption order may be made by—

- (a) a couple; or
- (b) one person,

but only if it is made under section 45 or 46 and one of the following conditions is met.

- (a) the person's spouse or civil partner cannot be found;
- (b) the spouses or civil partners have separated and are living apart, and the separation is likely to be permanent; or
- (c) the person's spouse or civil partner is by reason of ill-health, whether physical or mental, incapable of making an application for an adoption order.

(4) An adoption order may not be made on an application under this section by the mother or the father of the person to be adopted unless the court is satisfied that—and related expressions are to be interpreted accordingly.

Status conferred by adoption.

62.(1) An adopted person is to be treated in law as if born as the child of the adopters or adopter.

- (2) An adopted person is the legitimate child of the adopters or adopter and, if adopted by—
- (a) a couple; or
 - (b) one of a couple under section 46(2);

is to be treated as the child of the relationship of the couple in question.

- (3) An adopted person—

- (b) in any other case, shall be treated in law, subject to subsection (4), as not being the child of any person other than the adopters or adopter, but this subsection does not affect any reference in this Act to a person's natural parent or to any other natural relationship.

(4) In the case of a person adopted by one of the person's natural parents as sole adoptive parent, subsection (3)(b) has no effect as respects entitlement to property depending on relationship to that parent, or as respects anything else depending on that relationship.

(5) This section has effect from the date of the adoption.

(3) This section does not prejudice the right of a person to follow the property, or any property representing it, into the hands of another person, other than a purchaser, who has received it.

Meaning of disposition.

67.(1) This section applies for the purposes of this Part.

(2) A disposition includes the conferring of a power of appointment and any other disposition of an interest in or right over property; and in this subsection a power of appointment includes any discretionary power to transfer a beneficial interest in property without the furnishing of valuable consideration.

(3) This Part applies to an oral disposition as if contained in an instrument made when the disposition was made.

(4) The date of death of a testator is the date at which a will or codicil is to be regarded as made.

SCHEDULE 1

Section 71

Registration of adoptions

Registration of adoption orders.

1.(1) Every adoption order must contain a direction to the Registrar of Births and Deaths to make in the Adoption and Parental Order Register an entry.

(2) Where, on an application to a court for an adoption order in respect of a child, the identity of the child with a child to whom an entry in the registers of births or other records relates is proved to the satisfaction of the court, any adoption order made in pursuance of the application must contain a direction to the Registrar of Births and Deaths to secure that the entry in the register or, as the case may be, record in question is marked with the word “Adopted”.

(3) Where an adoption order is made in respect of a child who has previously been the subject of an adoption order made by a court in Gibraltar under Part 1 of this Act or any other enactment—

- (a) sub-paragraph (2) does not apply; and
- (b) the order must contain a direction to the Registrar of Births and Deaths to mark the previous entry in the Adoption and Parental Order Register with the word “Re-adopted”.

(4) Where an adoption order is made, an officer of the court which made the order must communicate the order to the Registrar of Births and Deaths; and the Registrar of Births and Deaths must then comply with the directions contained in the order.

(5) If an entry in the registers of births or other records (and no entry in the Adoption and Parental Order Register) relates to the child, the Registrar of Births and Deaths must secure that the entry is marked with—

- (a) the word “Adopted”; followed by
- (b) the name, in brackets, of the part in which the order was made.

(6) If an entry in the Adoption and Parental Order Register relates to the child, the Registrar of Births and Deaths must mark the entry with—

- (a) the word “Re-adopted”; followed by
- (b) the name, in brackets, of the part in which the order was made.

(7) Where, after an entry in either of the registers or other records mentioned in sub-paragraphs (2) and (3) has been so marked, the Registrar of Births and Deaths is notified by the court that—

- (a) the order has been quashed;
- (b) an appeal against the order has been allowed; or
- (c) the order has been revoked;

the Registrar of Births and Deaths must secure that the marking is cancelled.

(8) A copy or extract of an entry in any register or other record, being an entry the marking of which is cancelled under sub-paragraph (4), is not to be treated as an accurate copy unless both the marking and the cancellation are omitted from it.

Registration of other adoptions.

2.(1) If the Registrar of Births and Deaths is satisfied, on an application under this paragraph, that they have sufficient particulars relating to a child adopted under a registrable foreign adoption to enable an entry to be made in the Adoption and Parental Order Register for the child they must make the entry accordingly.

(2) If the Registrar of Births and Deaths is also satisfied that an entry in the registers of births or other records relates to the child, they must—

- (a) secure that the entry is marked “Adopted”, followed by the name, in brackets, of the country in which the adoption was effected; or
- (b) where appropriate, secure that the overseas registers of births are so marked.

(3) An application under this paragraph must be made, in the prescribed manner, by a prescribed person and the applicant must provide the prescribed documents and other information.

(4) An entry made in the Adoption and Parental Order Register by virtue of this paragraph must be made in the prescribed form.

(5) In this Schedule “registrable foreign adoption” means an adoption which satisfies prescribed requirements and is—

- (a) adoption under a Convention adoption; or
- (b) adoption under an overseas adoption.

Amendment of orders and rectification of Registers and other records.

3.(1) The court by which an adoption order has been made may, on the application of the adopter or the adopted person, amend the order by the correction of any error in the particulars contained in it.

(2) The court by which an adoption order has been made may, if satisfied on the application of the adopter or the adopted person that within the period of one year beginning with the date of the order any new name—

- (a) has been given to the adopted person (whether in baptism or otherwise); or
- (b) has been taken by the adopted person, either in place of or in addition to a name specified in the particulars required to be entered in the Adoption and Parental Order Register in pursuance of the order, amend the order by substituting or, as the case may be, adding that name in those particulars.

(3) The court by which an adoption order has been made may, if satisfied on the application of any person concerned that a direction for the marking of an entry in the registers of births, the Adoption and Parental Order Register or other records included in the order in pursuance of paragraph 1(2) or (3) was wrongly so included, revoke that direction.

(4) Where an adoption order is amended or a direction revoked under sub-paragraphs (1) to (3), an officer of the court must communicate the amendment in the prescribed manner to the Registrar of Births and Deaths.

(5) The Registrar of Births and Deaths must then—

- (a) amend the entry in the Adoption and Parental Order Register accordingly, or
- (b) secure that the marking of the entry in the registers of births, the Adoption and Parental Order Register or other records is cancelled.

(6) Where an adoption order is quashed or an appeal against an adoption order is allowed by any court, the court must give directions to the Registrar of Births and Deaths to secure the cancellation of—

- (a) any entry in the Adoption and Parental Order Register; and
- (b) any marking of an entry in that Register, the registers of births or other records as the case may be, which was effected in pursuance of the order.

(7) Where an adoption order has been amended, any certified copy of the relevant entry in the Adoption and Parental Order Register which may be issued pursuant to section 72(2)(b) must be a copy of the entry as amended, without the reproduction of—

- (a) any note or marking relating to the amendment; or

(b) any matter cancelled in pursuance of it.

(8) A copy or extract of an entry in any register or other record, being an entry the marking of which has been cancelled, is not to be treated as an accurate copy unless both the marking and the cancellation are omitted from it.

(9) If the Registrar of Births and Deaths is satisfied—

- (a) that a registrable foreign adoption has ceased to have effect, whether on annulment or otherwise; or
- (b) that any entry or mark was erroneously made in pursuance of paragraph 2 in the Adopted Children Register, the registers of births, the overseas registers of births or other records, they may secure that such alterations are made in those registers or other records as they consider are required in consequence of the adoption ceasing to have effect or to correct the error.

(10) Where an entry in such a register is amended in pursuance of sub-paragraph (9), any copy or extract of the entry is not to be treated as accurate unless it shows the entry as amended but without indicating that it has been amended.

Marking of entries on re-registration of birth on legitimation.

4.(1) Without prejudice to paragraphs 1(4) and 3(5), where, after an entry in the registers of births or other records has been marked in accordance with paragraph 1, the birth is re-registered under the Births and Deaths Registration Act, the entry made on the re-registration must be marked in the like manner.

(2) Without prejudice to paragraph 3(9), where an entry in the registers of births or other records is marked in pursuance of paragraph 2 and the birth in question is subsequently re-registered under that Act, the entry made on re-registration must be marked in the like manner.

Cancellations in registers on legitimation.

5.(1) This paragraph applies where an adoption order is revoked under section 52.

(2) An officer of the court must communicate the revocation in the prescribed manner to the Registrar of Births and Deaths who must then cancel or secure the cancellation of—

- (a) the entry in the Adoption and Parental Order Register relating to the adopted person; and
- (b) the marking with the word “Adopted” of any entry relating to the adopted person in the registers of births or other records.

(3) A copy or extract of an entry in any register or other record, being an entry the marking of which is cancelled under this paragraph, is not to be treated as an accurate copy unless both the marking and the cancellation are omitted from it.
