Title.

1. These rules may be cited as the Business Names Rules.

Notice of refusal to register, etc.

2. Where the Registrar, pursuant to section 16(1) of the Act, decides to refuse to register any business name or to remove any business name from the register, he shall send by post to the firm or individual applying for registration or registered, as the case may be, in respect of such business name, a notice in writing of such decision and such notice shall contain a statement that any person aggrieved by such decision may appeal to the Governor within twenty-one days of such notice.

Removal from register.

3. If within twenty-one days from the date of the notice of a decision of the Registrar as in rule 2 mentioned, no notice of appeal from such decision is received by the Registrar, or if on appeal such decision of the Registrar is upheld, the Registrar shall remove such business name from the register in accordance with his decision.

Time to appeal.

4. Any person intending to appeal to the Governor from any decision of the Registrar under section 16(1) of the Act shall, within twenty-one days of the date of the notice of such decision, send by post or deliver to the Registrar a notice of appeal in the Form R.B.N. 6 set out in the Schedule. Such notice shall be accompanied by a statement of the grounds of appeal and of the appellant's case in support thereof.

Notice of appeal.

5. A copy of the notice of appeal, together with a copy of the statement of the grounds of appeal and of the case in support thereof, and a copy of the Registrar's notice shall at the same time be delivered by the appellant to the Governor.

Hearing of appeal.

6. Upon receipt of such documents the Governor shall, if the appellant states in his notice of appeal that he desires to be heard, fix a time and date for such hearing and shall appoint a committee of not more than three persons to hear the appellant and the Registrar and the committee shall make a report in writing to the Governor for his final decision. If the appellant does not
