PART I
PRELIMINARY

Title, commencement, revocation and application.

- 1.(1) These rules may be cited as the Supreme Court Rules 2000 and shall come into effect on 4th May 2000.
- (2) The Supreme Court Rules, 1979, are hereby revoked.
- (3) These rules shall not apply to proceedings in -
 - (a) Admiralty matters, except so far as these rules are expressly applied by rules made under the Colonial Courts of Admiralty Act, 1890; or
 - (b) matters of Prize.

Construction and effect.

2. Any party may apply to a judge to resolve any question as to the construction and effect of these rules.

Service of documents.

- 3.(1) A document may be served -
 - (a) by personal service;
 - (b) by post in a registered letter addressed to the person to be served at his usual or last known address;
 - (c) by fax or other means of electronic communication;
 - (d) by any alternative method ordered by a judge.
- (2) A document shall be deemed to be served:
 - (a) if served by registered post, at the time at which the letter would in the ordinary course be delivered;
 - (b) if served by fax -

SUPREME COURT RULES 2000

This version is out of date

- (i) if transmitted on a business day before 1.00 pm, on that day;
 - (ii) in any other case, on the business day after the day on which it is transmitted;
 - (c) if served by other means of electronic communication, on the second day after the day on which it is transmitted.
- (3) The Court may dispense with service of a document.
- (4) On matters of service the provisions of the rules and directions that apply for the time being in England in the High Court will apply, so far as circumstances permit.
- (5) Where any claim form is served outside the jurisdiction the time limited for filing an acknowledgement of service or filing or serving an admission, or filing a defence, or otherwise responding to it, shall be the period for the time being prescribed in England plus seven days:

Provided that where the service is effected in the United Kingdom the time shall be twenty-one days.

PART II.
SITTINGS AND OFFICE HOURS

Sittings of the Court.

- 4.(1) The legal year shall begin on the first day of the Michaelmas sittings.
- (2) There shall be three sittings in each year, that is to say -
- (a) the Michaelmas sittings, which shall begin on 1st October and end on 20th December;
 - (b) the Hilary sittings, which shall begin on 7th January and end on the Saturday before Good Friday;
 - (c) the Trinity sittings, which shall begin on the second Monday after Easter Sunday and end on 30th June.

Office hours of the Registry.

- 5.(1) The Registry shall be open to the public during the following hours—

(a) from 9.30 am to 12.30 pm and from 2.30 pm to 4.30 pm, except during the long vacation; and

(b) from 9.00 am to 2.30 pm during the long vacation, on every day of the year except -

(i) on Saturdays and Sundays;

(ii) on Maundy Thursday after 12.15 pm;

(iii) on such days as may be appointed by the Governor to be public holidays or bank holidays; and

(iv) on such other days as the Chief Justice may appoint.

(2) The Registry may be opened to the public at any time and on any day if in the opinion of the Registrar it is necessary for urgent business.

PART III

PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE IN ORIGINAL CIVIL MATTERS

Application of English rules of court.

6.(1) Where no other provision is made by these rules or by any Act, rule or regulation in force in Gibraltar, and subject to the express provisions of these rules, the rules of court that apply for the time being in England in the High Court shall apply to all original civil proceedings in the court.

(2) The following rules, formerly in force in England, shall apply in the court, to the exclusion of any rules which in England replace them -

(a) the Companies (Winding-up) Rules, 1929 (S. R. & O. 1929 No 612, as amended by S.R. & O. 1929 No 1177; 1931 No 70; 1932 No 802; 1933 No 234 and 1937 No 115);

(b) the Matrimonial Causes Rules, 1957 (S.I. 1957 No 619, as amended by S.I. 1957 Nos 1177 and 2202; 1958 No 2082; 1959 No 1958; 1960 Nos 477, 544, 1213 and 1261; 1961 Nos 1082 and 2364; 1962 Nos 839 and 2615; and 1963 No 989).

(c) the Bankruptcy Rules, 1952 (S.I. 1952 No 2113 as amended by S.I. 1956 Nos 117 and 1197; 1961 No 317; 1962 No 295; 1963 No 2067; 1965 No 1571; 1967 No 371; 1968 No 1935; 1969 Nos 1007 and 1162; 1970 No 1868; 1974 Nos 205 and 1236; 1975 No 213; 1977 No 364; 1978 Nos 544 and 1224; 1979 No 1590; 1980 No 2044; 1982 Nos 441, 1148 and 1437; and 1984 No 1371).

(3) The rules applied by sub-rules (1) and (2) shall apply with necessary changes and so far only as the circumstances of Gibraltar may permit; and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing -

- (a) any reference to an English Act shall, where there is a corresponding Gibraltar Act, be read as a reference to that Act; and
- (b) rules which refer or relate to a Division of the High Court shall apply to such causes and matters as would, in England, be assigned to that Division.

(4) In the interpretation of the rules applied by sub-rules (1) and (2) there shall, where the context permits, be substituted for the words and phrases set out in the first column of Schedule 1, the words and phrases set out opposite to them in the second column thereof to the extent indicated in the third column thereof.

Practice and procedure in winding-up, matrimonial causes and bankruptcy.

7. Subject to the provisions of rule 3(5), English practice and procedure shall be followed -

- (a) in the winding-up of companies, as it was on the 5th day of August, 1947;
- (b) in matrimonial causes, as it was on the 10th day of April, 1968;
- (c) in bankruptcy proceedings, as it was on the 28th day of December, 1986.

Certain English rules and practice excluded.

8. Notwithstanding the provisions of rules 6 and 7, no English rule or practice or procedure shall apply or be followed in the Court so far as it relates to any of the matters listed in Schedule 2.

Filing of copies.

9. Whenever in compliance with any rule or order of Court, any person serves any document on any other person, he shall as soon as practicable thereafter lodge a copy of that document with the Registrar for filing:

Provided that this rule shall not apply in respect of any document which, or a copy of which, is filed in the Court.

Hearing of applications.

10. An application or matter which in England would be heard by a master, district judge, district registrar of the High Court, or by a registrar in bankruptcy or a district judge in the Family Division, shall ordinarily be heard by a judge.

Examiners and conveyancing counsel.

11. The Court may appoint the Registrar, the Deputy Registrar or any barrister or solicitor practising in Gibraltar to act ad hoc as an examiner or as conveyancing counsel of the court.

Drawing-up of orders.

12.(1) Every judgment or order which is required to be drawn-up shall be drawn-up by the party in whose favour the judgment or order was made and shall be served by such party.

(2) Any dispute as to the party to draw up any judgment or order shall be determined by the Registrar.

PART IV

APPEALS IN CIVIL MATTERS

Appeals from a Master

Applications for leave to appeal.

13. An application to the Court for leave to appeal from an order or decision of the Court of First Instance shall be filed within seven days of the order or decision against which it is desired to appeal.

Notice of appeal.

14.(1) Any person who desires to appeal to the Court from a judgment, order or other decision of the Court of First Instance shall, within thirty days of the date of the decision against which it is desired to appeal, give notice in writing in duplicate to the clerk of the Court of First Instance and shall, before or within seven days of giving such notice, serve copies thereof on all persons directly affected by the appeal.

(2) Every notice of appeal shall state whether it is intended to appeal against the whole or part only of the decision, and where it is intended to appeal against a part only of the decision, shall specify the part complained of, shall state the address for service of the appellant and shall state the names and addresses of all persons intended to be served with copies of the notice.

(3) Where an appeal lies only with leave, notice of appeal shall not be given before the filing of the application for leave but may be given before the decision on the application.

(4) A notice of appeal shall be substantially in the form numbered CA1 in Schedule 3, shall be signed by or on behalf of the appellant and shall be accompanied by the prescribed fee.

Appeal record.

15.(1) As soon as practicable after receiving a notice of appeal under rule 14(1) the clerk of the Court of First Instance shall prepare the record of appeal, which shall include copies of -

- (a) the documents in the case;
- (b) the judge's notes of evidence or such parts thereof as are relevant to any question at issue on the appeal;
- (c) such witness statements, affidavits, exhibits, or parts of exhibits, as were in evidence in the court below and as are relevant to any question at issue on the appeal;
- (d) the judgment or order;
- (e) where leave to appeal was required, a copy of the order giving leave.

(2) The clerk of the Court of First Instance shall deliver two copies of the record of appeal and two copies of the notice of appeal to the Registrar and shall send one copy of the record of appeal to each party directly affected by the appeal:

Provided that where two or more parties are represented by one solicitor, it shall be sufficient to send one copy of the record of appeal to that solicitor.

Memorandum of appeal.

16.(1) The appellant shall, within ten days of receiving the record of appeal, file with the Registrar a memorandum of appeal in duplicate and shall within that period serve copies of the memorandum on all persons who were served with the notice of appeal.

(2) The memorandum of appeal shall set forth concisely and under distinct heads, without argument or narrative, the grounds of objection to the decision appealed against, specifying the points which are alleged to have been wrongly decided and the nature of the order for which he proposes to ask.

(3) The grounds of objection shall be numbered consecutively.

(4) A memorandum of appeal shall be substantially in the form numbered CA2 in Schedule 3 and shall be signed by or on behalf of the appellant.

Failure to lodge memorandum.

17. Subject to the right of an appellant to apply to extend time in which to file, if a memorandum of appeal is not filed and served within the time prescribed by rule 16, the appeal shall be deemed to have been withdrawn.

Notice of cross-appeal.

18.(1) A respondent who desires to contend at the hearing of the appeal, either -

- (a) that the decision appealed against or any part thereof should be varied or reversed, either in any event or in the event of the appeal being allowed in whole or in part; or
- (b) that the decision should be affirmed on grounds other than or additional to those relied on by the judge, shall, within ten days of receiving the record of appeal, file with the Registrar in duplicate a notice to that effect, specifying the grounds of his contention and, where appropriate, the nature of the order for which he proposes to ask, and shall, within that period, serve copies of the notice on the appellant and on all, if any, other respondents.

(2) A notice of cross-appeal shall be substantially in the form numbered CA3 in Schedule 3 and shall be signed by or on behalf of the respondent filing it.

Addition of parties.

19. At any stage of the appeal, the court may direct that a copy of the proceedings be served upon any person, whether a party to the original proceedings or not, whom it appears proper to make a respondent.

Setting down and notice of hearing.

20. On receipt of the memorandum of appeal, the Registrar shall fix a date and time for the hearing of the appeal and shall give notice thereof in writing to the clerk of the Court of First Instance and to each of the parties.

Evidence.

21. No evidence shall be admitted at the hearing of an appeal except with the permission of the Court.

Arguments at hearing.

22. At the hearing of the appeal, neither the appellant nor the respondent shall, without the permission of the Court and upon such terms, if any, as the Court shall think just, argue any ground of appeal or cross-appeal other than those stated in the memorandum of appeal or the notice of cross-appeal.

Death of party.

23. An appeal shall not abate on the death of the appellant or a respondent but the Court shall, on the application of any interested person, cause the personal representative of the deceased to be made a party in place of the deceased.

Failure of parties to appear.

24.(1) If, at the time fixed for hearing the appeal -

- (a) the appellant does not appear and is not represented, the Court may dismiss the appeal and, if the respondent appears or is represented, any cross-appeal shall proceed notwithstanding the absence of the appellant;

- (b) the appellant appears or is represented and the respondent does not appear and is not represented, the appeal shall proceed notwithstanding the absence of the respondent and the Court may dismiss any cross-appeal;
- (c) neither the appellant nor the respondent appears or is represented, the Court may dismiss the appeal and any cross-appeal, unless, in any case, the Court shall think fit to adjourn the proceedings.

(2) Where under sub-rule (1) an appeal has been heard and allowed in the absence of the respondent or dismissed in the absence of the appellant or a cross-appeal has been dismissed in the absence of the respondent or heard and allowed in the absence of the appellant, the respondent or the appellant, as the case may be, may within seven days apply to the Court to set aside the determination and restore the appeal or cross-appeal for hearing on the ground that he was prevented by any sufficient cause from appearing or being represented and the Court may restore the appeal or the cross-appeal on such terms as the Court may think just.

Appeals by case stated from magistrates' court

Form of application.

25. An application under section 62 of the Magistrates' court Act to the justices to state a case for the opinion of the Supreme Court in any civil matter shall be in writing and shall be delivered to the clerk to the Magistrates' court, together with a copy thereof for each of the justices who heard the proceeding.

Contents of application.

26.(1) The application shall state the question or questions of law or jurisdiction to be determined.

(2) Where the question or one of the questions on which the opinion of the Court is sought is whether there was evidence on which the Magistrates' court could come to its decision, the particular finding of fact made by that Court which it is claimed cannot be supported by the evidence shall be specified in the application.

Draft case.

27.(1) The clerk to the Magistrates' court shall send a draft case to the applicant or his solicitor and shall send a copy thereof to the respondent or his solicitor, within twenty-one days -

- (a) after receipt of the application; or
- (b) when the justices have refused to state a case, after the making of an order of mandamus, as the case may be.

(2) Each party may, within twenty-one days after receipt of the draft case, make representations thereon. Such representations shall be in writing, shall be signed by or on behalf of the party making them and shall be delivered to the clerk to the Magistrates' court.

Final case.

28.(1) Within twenty-one days after the latest day on which representations may be made under rule 27(2), the justices whose decision is questioned shall make such adjustments, if any, to the draft case as they may think fit after considering any such representations, and shall state and sign the case.

(2) A case, other than a case stated by the Stipendiary Magistrate, may be stated on behalf of the justices by any two or more of them and may, if the justices so direct, be signed on their behalf by their clerk.

(3) Forthwith after the case has been stated and signed, the clerk of the Magistrates' court shall transmit it to the Registrar, together with a statement of the last known address of each of the parties, and shall send copies of the case stated to the applicant or his solicitor and to the respondent or his solicitor.

Contents of case.

29.(1) The case stated shall state the facts found by the Magistrates' court and the question or questions of law or jurisdiction on which the opinion of the Court is sought.

(2) Where one of the questions on which the opinion of the Court is sought is whether there was evidence on which the Magistrates' court could come to its decision, the particular finding of fact which it is claimed cannot be supported by the evidence before the Magistrates' court shall be specified in the case.

(3) Unless one of the questions on which the opinion of the Court is sought is whether there was evidence on which the Magistrates' court could come to its decision, the case shall not contain a statement of evidence.

Setting down, notice of hearing, arguments at hearing and failure of parties to appear.

30. The provisions of rules 20, 22, 23, and 24 shall apply with the necessary changes to the hearing of cases stated to which these rules apply.

Other Appeals

Appeals from other courts, tribunals and persons.

31. Where any enactment, other than the Court of First Instance Act or the Magistrates' court Act, confers a right of appeal to the Court from any subordinate court, tribunal or person in any civil matter, the procedure prescribed by rules 13 to 24 or rules 25 to 30 inclusive shall be followed, whichever may be appropriate, with such modifications as may be necessary and except so far as may be otherwise provided by such enactment or any rules made thereunder or by these rules.

Rights of tribunals and persons to appear and be heard.

32. Where an appeal is from a tribunal or person and there is no respondent or the respondent does not appear and is not represented, the tribunal or person, as the case may be, shall be entitled to appear and be heard on the appeal.

Electoral registration appeals.

33. Where notice of appeal has been given to the registration officer under rule 21(1) of the Electors (Registration) Rules, the following provisions shall apply –

- (a) the registration officer shall within seven days of receiving the notice of appeal, deliver it to the Registrar, together with the statement required by rule 21(2) of those rules;
- (b) on receipt of the notice of appeal and the statement, the Registrar shall fix a date and time for the hearing of the appeal and shall give notice thereof in writing to the registration officer, the appellant and any other party;

- (c) the Registrar, when giving notice to the appellant and any other party of the date and time for the hearing of the appeal, shall furnish them with copies of the statement made by the Registration Officer;
- (d) on the hearing of the appeal, the statement of the Registration Officer and any other statement in writing which the Court may have required shall be admissible as prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein:

Provided that any other party to the appeal may serve on the Registration Officer a notice in writing requiring his attendance at the hearing for cross-examination on such statement or statements, such notice to be served not less than four clear days before the hearing, or may compel his attendance for cross-examination in the same way as he might compel the attendance of a witness to be examined.

Trade union registration appeals.

34. In an appeal from the refusal of the Registrar of Trade Unions to register a trade union or from his decision to cancel the registration of a trade union -

- (a) except where the trade union or the alleged trade union is the appellant, it shall, for the purpose of rules 14(1) and 15(2), be deemed to be a party directly affected by the appeal;
- (b) the court may direct that public notice be given by advertisement or otherwise of the time fixed for the hearing of the appeal or may make provision to enable any interested persons to appear and be heard on the appeal.

PART V

REGISTRATION OF DEEDS AND WILLS PURSUANT TO SECTION 3 OF THE GIBRALTAR LAND TITLES ACT, 1990

Delivery of deed or will for registration.

35.(1) A deed or will requiring registration under the Gibraltar Land Titles Act, 1990 shall be delivered by hand at the Registry, together with -

- (a) in the case of a deed, the affidavit or affidavits of due execution required by section 5 of the Act or such other evidence as the Registrar may deem satisfactory, and

- (b) in the case of a will, a certificate, or other sufficient evidence, of the date of the death of the testator, and
- (c) the prescribed fee.

(2) Where a will has been proved and is in the Registry, the tender of the prescribed fee shall be a sufficient compliance with the requirements of this rule.

Receipt.

36. Immediately on the delivery of a deed or will, the officer receiving it shall give an official receipt therefor.

Registration.

37.(1) Unless the nature of the documents shall render it impossible, any document submitted for registration, shall be -

- (a) on paper of durable quality and of A4 size; and
- (b) have on each page a margin of not less than 4 cms wide to be left blank on the left side of the face of the paper and on the right side of the reverse thereof.

(2) Any document submitted for registration, shall be accompanied by an unbound copy thereof (which copy may be a photocopy acceptable to the Registrar) and that copy shall be endorsed by the person by whom it is submitted for registration as a true copy of the document submitted for registration and shall be retained by the Registrar.

(3) Except in the case of an agreement to enter into a lease or assignment, a plan which forms part of a document submitted for registration, shall be -

- (a) submitted with the document of which it forms part;
- (b) accompanied by a tracing thereof on linen or on paper or other material approved by the Registrar, coloured like the original; and
- (c) retained by the Registrar.

(4) In respect of a document executed prior to the 1st day of April 1993, the Registrar may, in his absolute discretion, accept a document which does not comply with the provisions of sub-rule (1)(b).

(5) The Registrar, after satisfying himself that the deed or will was duly executed and, where necessary, attested and, in the case of a deed -

- (a) has satisfied section 3(4) of the Gibraltar Land Titles Act, 1990, and
- (b) has been duly stamped,

shall thereupon -

- (i) make or cause to be made the appropriate entry in the register of deeds and wills;
- (ii) endorse or cause to be endorsed on the deed or will a certificate of registration in the form set out in Schedule 4 showing the date when the deed or will was registered, its serial number and the amount of the fee paid;
- (iii) make or cause to be made a copy of the will.

Return of deed or will.

38. After registration, the deed or will shall be returned to the person who delivered it, on his signing a receipt therefor in the register referred to in rule 40.

Binding of copies.

39. The Registrar shall retain the copies of deeds and wills made in compliance with paragraphs 2 and 5(iii) of rule 37 and shall from time to time cause them to be bound in volumes.

Register and index.

40.(1) The Registrar shall maintain a register together with an index.

- (2) The register shall be divided in columns, showing respectively -
 - (a) the year in which the deed or will is registered and its serial number in such year;

- (b) a description of the deed or will and, in the case of a deed, whenever possible, the reference number in the general plan of the City of the land concerned;
 - (c) the date of the deed or will, and in the case of a will, the date of the death of the testator;
 - (d) the name of the testator or, in the case of a deed, the names of the parties, other than the grantee;
 - (e) in the case of a deed, the name of the grantee;
 - (f) the date and hour when, and the name of the person by whom the instrument was delivered;
 - (g) the fee for registration;
 - (h) the date when the deed or will was returned to the person who delivered it;
 - (i) the signature of the person to whom the deed or will was returned.
- (3) The index shall contain the names, entered alphabetically, as regards deeds, of all parties thereto and, as regards wills, of the testators.

Revocation.

41. The Land Titles (Registration) Rules 1991 (LN 22 of 1991) and Land Titles (Registration) (Amendment) Rules 1993 (LN 36 of 1993) are hereby revoked.

PART VI ENROLMENT OF DEEDS

Delivery of deed for enrolment.

42. Any person who wishes a deed to be enrolled shall deliver it by hand at the Registry, together with the prescribed fee and any supporting documents required by law or practice.

Receipt.

43. Immediately on the delivery of a deed, the officer receiving it shall give an official receipt therefor.

Enrolment.

44. The Registrar, after satisfying himself that the deed was duly executed and has been duly stamped and that the supporting documents (if any) are in order, shall -

- (a) endorse or cause to be endorsed on the deed a certificate of enrolment showing the date when the deed was delivered for enrolment and its serial number; and
- (b) make or cause to be made a copy of the deed.

Return of deed.

45. After enrolment, the deed shall be returned to the person who delivered it, on his signing a receipt therefor.

Binding of copies.

46. The Registrar shall retain the copies of deeds made in compliance with paragraph (b) of rule 44 and shall from time to time cause them to be bound in volumes.

PART VII RECORDS

Records.

47. The Registrar shall keep the books, or records in computerised form, as listed in the First and Second Parts of Schedule 5 and shall make or cause to be made entries therein recording the proceedings in the Court and all steps taken therein.

Public inspection.

48. The books or records listed in the First Part of Schedule 4 shall be open to inspection by any member of the public on payment of the prescribed fee (if any).

PART VIII
FEES, COSTS, EXPENSES AND COMMISSION

Fees.

49. The fees to be taken by the Registrar shall be the fees set out in Schedule 6, save that where no fee is provided for in that Schedule the fees so taken shall be the fees which are taken for the time being in the county court in England:

Provided that -

- (a) a judge may reduce or remit any fee which it appears to him that owing to the exceptional circumstances of the particular case it would involve undue hardship;
- (b) no fee shall be taken where by any convention or agreement entered into with any country and binding on the Government of Gibraltar it is provided that no fee shall be payable in respect of any class of proceeding; and
- (c) no fee shall be payable by the Crown.

Costs.

50. Costs may be awarded in accordance with the practice, procedure and scales from time to time in force in the High Court in England.

Remuneration of Official Trustee.

51. The remuneration to be allowed to an Official Trustee in bankruptcy shall be regulated by Schedule 7.

Sheriff's expenses.

52. An execution creditor shall pay to the sheriff the reasonable cost, as certified by him, for -

- (a) a person or, when necessary, persons left in physical possession, he or they to provide his or their own board;
- (b) the removal of goods or animals to a place of safekeeping, when necessary;
- (c) warehousing or taking charge of goods or animals when they have been removed;
- (d) the keep of animals while in the custody of the sheriff, whether before or after removal;

- (e) advertising, publicity and labour, where property is sold by private contract, including the cost of preparing an inventory and printing catalogues.

Auctioneer's commission and expenses.

53.(1) Where goods or animals taken in execution are sold by public auction, or are put up to auction subject to a reserve and are not sold, the auctioneer shall be entitled to receive commission at the rate prescribed by law.

(2) Where under an execution an auctioneer negotiates a sale of goods or animals by private treaty, he shall be entitled to commission equal to that which he would have received on a sale by auction:

Provided that if he has received commission in respect of an auction of those goods or animals that did not result in a sale, he shall be entitled to one half only of the commission payable under this sub-rule.

(3) Where an execution is withdrawn, satisfied or stopped before an auction has been held, the auctioneer shall be entitled to receive from the person issuing the execution or the person at whose instance the sale is stopped, as the case may be, his out-of-pocket expenses and, if the work done includes the preparation of a detailed inventory, commission of one per cent of the value of the goods seized.
