“licensed non-residential establishment” means a bar, cafe, night club, registered club, casino, restaurant or other premises at which it is lawful for intoxicating liquor to be sold or supplied for consumption on the premises and which is not a residential establishment within the meaning of this Order;

“manager” means an employee responsible to the employer for the cleanliness, care and supervision of the premises and equipment of a licensed non-residential establishment, for the keeping of records and for the correct handling of the cash and stocks, for the control of the staff where any are employed and for the conduct of the establishment as required by law;

“public holiday” has the same meaning as it has in paragraph 2 of the Employment (Annual and Public Holidays) Order;

“regular worker” means a worker who ordinarily works for not less than 34 hours a week on any employment or work to which this Order applies;

“relief manager” means a worker who is appointed by the employer to take charge of a licensed non-residential establishment in the absence of the manager and who is not in receipt of statutory minimum remuneration, other than the remuneration provided for a relief manager;

“residential establishment” means an establishment which contains two or more rooms ordinarily available as sleeping accommodation for guests or lodgers;

“trainee manager” means a worker during his first year of employment under a trainee manager’s contract or a contractual series of such contracts with any one employer;

“time and a half” and “double time” mean respectively one and a half times and twice the hourly rates of pay obtained by dividing the workers agreed weekly wage by the agreed number of working hours in a normal week;

“weekly rest day” means a day in the week, fixed at the time of the workers engagement, which may be changed by agreement between the employer and the worker subject to 7 days notice; or, if no such day is fixed or agreed, the last day in the week.

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT (LICENSED NON-RESIDENTIAL ESTABLISHMENTS) ORDER, 1986

Application.

3. (1) This Order applies to all workers who are employed in any licensed non-residential establishment and who:—

- (a) are employed in a catering undertaking; and
- (b) are employed by the person or body or persons carrying on that undertaking; and
- (c) are employed to engage in any of the following work:—
 - (i) the preparation of food or drink;
 - (ii) the service of food and drink;
 - (iii) work incidental to such preparation or service;
 - (iv) work in connection with any retail sale of goods;
 - (v) any other work performed in or about a licenced non-residential establishment, including work in connection with any service or amenity provided in or about such establishment.

1986/054

4.(1) Subject to the provisions of paragraph 5 and 6, the minimum weekly remuneration payable to a regular worker to whom this Order applies shall be as follows:-

GRADE	AGE	REMUNERATION
Regular worker	Under 18	£113.10
	18 and over	£120.00

(2) The remuneration specified in subparagraph (1) relates to a week of 40 hours exclusive of overtime and, except in the case of guaranteed weekly remuneration under paragraph 6 is subject to a proportionate reduction where the number of hours worked is less than 39.

(3) In calculating remuneration for the purpose of this Order recognized breaks for meal time aggregating up to a maximum of 2 hours on any day shall be excluded.

Minimum overtime rates.

5. (1) Overtime rates of pay shall be:-

- (a) time and a half for overtime on all normal working days;
- (b) for all time worked on Christmas Day, Good Friday or a weekly rest day in all undertakings double time with a minimum of 4 hours that is, 8 hours payment, and in addition, in the case of time worked on Good Friday or Christmas Day, one day's holiday in lieu or payment in compensation therefor, in accordance with paragraph 9(2) of the Employment (Annual and Public Holidays) Order.

(2) The number of hours worked in a week shall not exceed 60 unless approved by the Director under section 41 of the Act. Double time shall be payable for the period in excess of 60 hours.

(3) Where a regular worker is allowed time off in lieu of overtime worked or a day off during any week as piece meal apportionment of a statutory holiday period or in lieu of a public holiday, such time off or day off shall count in full towards the 39 hours to be worked in a week under paragraph 4(2).

Guaranteed weekly remuneration.

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT (LICENSED NON-RESIDENTIAL ESTABLISHMENTS) ORDER, 1986

6. (1) Although in a week a regular worker may work less than 39 hours at his normal duties, he shall still receive the minimum remuneration in paragraph 4 provided that:-

- (a) the hours so worked are at least 34; and
- (b) he is willing, available and capable of performing other reasonable duties as required by his employer.

(2) Where in any week a regular worker works for less than 34 hours but for more than 15 hours at his normal duties, his guaranteed minimum remuneration shall be that amount to which he would be entitled if he were categorised as any other worker.

Provided that the regular worker voluntarily makes himself unavailable for work for less than 34 hours in any week and he obtains his employers written consent to be absent from work for less than this period but for more than 15 hours.

(3) Overtime worked on a weekly rest day or a half holiday shall not be taken into account for the purpose of the guaranteed weekly remuneration.
