“wholesale trade” means the trade of selling articles in large quantities to be retailed by others and in respect of which an appropriate Trade Licence issued under the Trade Licensing Act is held.

Application.

3. This order applies to all employees in Gibraltar in any undertaking or any branch or department of any undertaking engaged in the wholesale trade.

Minimum remuneration.

4.(1) Subject to the provisions of paragraph 5 and 6, the minimum weekly remuneration payable to employees to whom this Order applies shall be as set out in the Schedule.

(2) The remuneration specified in subparagraph (1) relates to a week of 39 hours exclusive of overtime and except in the case of guaranteed weekly remuneration under paragraph 6, is subject to a proportionate reduction accordingly where the number of hours worked is less than 39.

(3) In calculating the remuneration for the purpose of this Order recognized breaks for meals aggregating up to a maximum of 2 hours in any day shall be excluded.

Minimum overtime rates.

5.(1) Overtime rates of pay shall be—

- (a) time and a half for overtime on normal working days including Saturdays;
- (b) double time for all time worked on weekly rest days or on public holidays and in addition in the case of time worked on Good Friday or Christmas Day one day’s holiday in lieu of payment in compensation therefor, in accordance with paragraph 9(2) of the Employment (Annual and Public Holidays) Order.

(2) The number of hours worked in a week shall not exceed 60 unless approved by the Director under section 41 of the Act, in which case double time shall be payable for any hours in excess of 60.

(3) Where an employee is allowed time off in lieu of overtime worked or a day off during any week as piece meal apportionment of a statutory holiday period or in lieu of a public holiday, such time off or day off shall count in full towards the 39 hours to be worked in any week under paragraph 4(2).

Guaranteed minimum remuneration.

6.(1) Although in a week an employee may work less than 39 hours at his normal duties, he shall still receive the minimum remuneration in paragraph 4, provided that the hours so worked are at least 34 and provided that he is willing, available and capable of performing other reasonable duties as required by his employer.

(2) Where in any week an employee at his request and with the consent of his employer is absent from work, the amount of the guaranteed minimum weekly remuneration shall be reduced proportionately.

(3) Overtime worked on a rest day shall not be taken into account for the purpose of the guaranteed weekly remuneration.

Records.

7. For the purpose of showing that the provisions of this Order have been complied with, every employer shall maintain and retain for the period of twelve months weekly records showing clearly the hours of commencing and of ceasing work, the meal or other breaks included, the number of hours worked daily, the wages paid and the holidays allowed in relation to every employee.

Minimum nature of conditions prescribed.

8. The provisions of this Order shall not prevent agreements for wages and or conditions more favourable than those prescribed herein.

Redundancy payment.

9.(1) Where an employee's employment is terminated by reason of redundancy, he shall be paid by his employer by way of compensation—

- (a) for each of the first five completed years of service, two week's pay;
- (b) for each of the next five complete years of service, three week's pay;
- (c) for each additional completed year thereafter, four week's pay;

---

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT
(WHOLESALE TRADE) ORDER, 1995*Subsidiary
1995/110

- (d) in respect of an employee aged 41 years and over, for each completed year of service after the age of 40 years, two week's pay.

Provided that the total amount of the redundancy payment shall not exceed the amount of one year's pay and that no payment will be made to an employee who has not completed one year's service.

- (2) For the purposes of this paragraph—
- (a) “redundancy” has the meaning given to it in section 74(1) of the Employment Act;
- (b) “week's pay” means the average of the gross weekly payments made to that employee in the thirteen weeks immediately prior to the termination of the employment.
