(5) Subsection (4) does not affect the retention in domestic law on or after IP completion day in accordance with this Act of any fundamental rights or principles which exist irrespective of the Charter (and references to the Charter in any case law are, so far as necessary for this purpose, to be read as if they were references to any corresponding retained fundamental rights or principles).

(7) Subsections (1) to (6) and Schedule 1 are subject to relevant separation agreement law (for which see section 10C).

8A. The fact that anything which continues to be, or forms part of, domestic law on or after IP completion day by virtue of section 5, 6 or 7 has an effect immediately before IP completion day which is time-limited by reference to the implementation period does not prevent it from having an indefinite effect on and after IP completion day by virtue of section 5, 6 or 7.

- (a) the Supreme Court to be a relevant court;
- (b) the extent to which, or circumstances in which, a relevant court or relevant tribunal not being bound by retained EU case law includes (or does not include) that court or tribunal not being bound by retained domestic case law which relates to retained EU case law;
- (c) other matters arising in relation to retained domestic case law which relates to retained EU case law (including by making provision of a kind which could be made in relation to retained EU case law); or
- (d) the test mentioned in paragraph (c) of subsection (5A) or the considerations mentioned in paragraph (d) of that subsection be determined (whether with or without the consent of a Minister) by a person mentioned in subsection (5C)(a) or (b) or by more than one of those persons acting jointly.

(5C) Before making regulations under subsection (5A), a Minister must consult-

- (a) the Chief Justice; and
- (b) such other persons as the Minister considers appropriate.

(6) Subsection (3) does not prevent the validity, meaning or effect of any retained EU law which has been modified on or after IP completion day from being decided as provided for in that subsection if doing so is consistent with the intention of the modifications.
