1. This Order may be cited as the Export Control (Sanctions etc.) Order 2005.

PART IProhibition on export of goods.

2.(1) A person who, without a licence, knowingly exports or facilitates the exportation or arranges the transfer from any place of any goods mentioned in paragraph 1 of the Schedule to the Act to any country or territory mentioned in Schedule 1 to this Order is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine up to a level 5 on the standard scale or on conviction on indictment to a fine or imprisonment for up to 5 years or both.

(2) The licence referred to in subparagraph (1) is a licence granted by the Minister if he is satisfied that such goods may be exported to the relevant country.

Prohibition on transfer of technology.

3.(1) A person who, without a licence, knowingly transfers or facilitates the transfer of technology mentioned in paragraph 1 of the Schedule to the Act to any country or territory mentioned in Schedule 2 to this Order is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine up to a level 5 on the standard scale or on conviction on indictment to a fine or imprisonment for up to 5 years or both.

(2) The licence referred to in subparagraph (1) is a licence granted by the Minister if he is satisfied that such technology may be exported to the relevant country.

Prohibition on technical assistance.

4.(1) A person who, without a licence, knowingly provides or facilitates the provision of technical assistance mentioned in paragraph 1 of the Schedule to the Act to any country or territory mentioned in Schedule 3 to this Order is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine up to a level 5 on the standard scale or on conviction on indictment to a fine or imprisonment for up to 5 years or both.

(2) The licence referred to in sub-paragraph (1) is a licence granted by the Minister if he is satisfied that such technical may be exported to the relevant country.

Making funds available.

5.(1) Any person who, without a licence, makes any funds available to or for the benefit of any designated person or a person acting on his behalf in any country or territory mentioned in Schedule 4 to this Order (where the designated persons in each country or territory are also listed) is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine up to a level 5 on the standard scale or on conviction on indictment to a fine or imprisonment for up to 5 years or both.

(2) The licence referred to in sub-paragraph (1) is a licence granted by the Minister if he is satisfied that such funds may be made available to the relevant country.

Freezing of Funds.

6.(1) Where the Minister has reasonable grounds for suspecting that the person by, for or on behalf of whom any funds are held is or may be a designated person or a person acting on behalf of a designated person, the Minister may by notice direct that those funds are not to be made available to any person, except under the authority of a licence granted by the Minister under paragraph 5.

(2) A direction given under sub-paragraph (1) shall specify either—

(a) the period for which it is to have effect; or

(b) that the direction is to have effect until it is revoked by notice under subparagraph (3).

(3) The Minister may by notice revoke a direction given under paragraph (1) at any time.

(4) The expiry or revocation of a direction shall not affect the application of paragraph 5 in respect of the funds in question.

(5) A notice under sub paragraph (1) or (3) shall be given in writing to the person holding the funds in question (“the recipient”), and shall require the recipient to send a copy of the notice without delay to the person whose funds they are, or on whose behalf they are held (“the owner”).

(6) A recipient shall be treated as complying with the requirement under subparagraph (5) if, without delay, he sends a copy of the notice to the owner at his last-known address or, if he does not have an address for the owner, he makes arrangements for a copy of the notice to be supplied to the owner at the first available opportunity.

(7) Where a direction has been given under subparagraph (1), any person by, for or on behalf of whom those funds are held may apply to the Supreme
