Thresholds for identifying a financial conglomerate.

3.(1) For the purpose of determining whether the activities of a group mainly occur in the financial sector within the meaning in paragraph (a)(i) of the definition “financial conglomerate” in regulation 2, the ratio of the balance sheet total of the regulated and non-regulated financial sector entities in the group to the balance sheet total of the group as a whole must exceed 40%.

(2) For the purpose of determining whether activities in different financial sectors are significant within the meaning in paragraph (a)(iii) or (b)(iii) of the definition “financial conglomerate” in regulation 2, for each financial sector the average of the ratio of the balance sheet total of that financial sector to the balance sheet total of the financial sector entities in the group and the ratio of the solvency requirements of the same financial sector to the total solvency requirements of the financial sector entities in the group should exceed 10%.

(3) For the purpose of these Regulations, the smallest financial sector in a financial conglomerate is the sector with the smallest average and the most important financial sector in a financial conglomerate is the sector with the highest average.

(4) For the purpose of calculating the average and for the measurement of the smallest and the most important financial sectors, the banking sector and the investment services sector must be considered together.

(5) UCITS management companies and alternative investment fund managers must be added to the sector to which they belong within the group, and if they do not belong exclusively to one sector within the group, they must be added to the smallest financial sector.

(6) Cross-sectoral activities must also be presumed to be significant within the meaning in paragraph (a)(iii) and (b)(iii) of the definition “financial conglomerate” in regulation 2 if the balance sheet total of the smallest financial sector in the group exceeds 6 billion Euro but where the group does not reach the threshold referred to in sub-regulation (2), the GFSC may decide not to regard the group as a financial conglomerate, or not to apply the provisions of regulations 7, 8 or 9, if it is of the opinion that the inclusion of the group in the scope of these Regulations or the application of such provisions is not necessary or would be inappropriate or misleading with respect to the objectives of supplementary supervision.

(7) Decisions taken in accordance with sub-regulation (6) must, save in exceptional circumstances, be made by public by the GFSC.

Financial Services

(8) If the group reaches the threshold referred to in sub-regulation (2), but the smallest sector does not exceed 6 billion Euro, the GFSC may decide by common agreement not to regard the group as a financial conglomerate, or not to apply regulations 7, 8 or 9, if it is of the opinion that the inclusion of the group in the scope of these Regulations or the application of such provisions is not necessary or would be inappropriate or misleading with respect to the objectives of supplementary supervision.

(9) Decisions taken in accordance with sub-regulation (8) must, save in exceptional circumstances, be made by public by the GFSC.

(10) For the purposes of sub-regulations (1) to (7) the GFSC may—

- (a) exclude an entity when calculating the ratios, in the cases referred to in regulation 6(10), unless the entity moved from Gibraltar to a third country and there is evidence that the entity changed its location in order to avoid regulation;
- (b) take into account compliance with the thresholds envisaged in sub-regulations (1) to (5) for three consecutive years so as to avoid sudden regime shifts, and disregard such compliance if there are significant changes in the group's structure; and
- (c) exclude one or more participations in the smaller sector if such participations are decisive for the identification of a financial conglomerate, and are collectively of negligible interest with respect to the objectives of supplementary supervision.

(11) Where a financial conglomerate has been identified in accordance with sub-regulations (1) to (7), the decisions referred to in sub-regulation (10)(a) must be taken by the GFSC.

(12) For the purposes of sub-regulations (1) to (7), the GFSC in exceptional cases may either replace the criterion based on balance sheet total with one or more of the following parameters or add one or more of the following parameters—

- (a) income structure;
- (b) off-balance sheet activities; and
- (c) total assets under management,

if the GFSC is of the opinion that these parameters are of particular relevance for the purposes of supplementary supervision under these Regulations.

(13) For the application of sub-regulations (1) and (2), if the ratios referred to in those sub-regulations fall below 40% and 10% respectively for conglomerates already subject to supplementary supervision, a lower ratio of 35% and 8% respectively must apply for the following three years to avoid sudden regime shifts.

(14) For the application of sub-regulation (6), if the balance sheet total of the smallest financial sector in the group falls below 6 billion Euro for conglomerates already subject to supplementary supervision, a lower figure of 5 billion Euro must apply for the following three years to avoid sudden regime shifts.

(15) During the period referred to in sub-regulations (13) and (14), the GFSC may decide that the lower ratios or the lower amount referred to in those sub-regulations must cease to apply.

(16) The calculations referred to in this regulation regarding the balance sheet must be made on the basis of the aggregated balance sheet total of the entities of the group, according to their annual accounts, and for the purpose of this calculation, undertakings in which a participation is held must be taken into account as regards the amount of their balance sheet total corresponding to the aggregated proportional share held by the group but where consolidated accounts are available they must be used instead of aggregated accounts.

(17) The solvency requirements referred to in sub-regulations (2) and (6) must be calculated in accordance with the provisions of the relevant sectoral rules.

(18) The GFSC must, on an annual basis, reassess waivers of the application of supplementary supervision and must review the quantitative indicators set out in this regulation and risk-based assessments applied to financial groups.

Identifying a financial conglomerate.

(5) Where a person holds a participation or capital ties in one or more regulated entities or otherwise exercises significant influence over such entities without holding a participation or capital ties, other than the cases referred to in sub-regulations (2) to (4), the GFSC must determine whether and to what extent supplementary supervision of the regulated entities is to be carried out, as if they constitute a financial conglomerate and in taking such determination they must take into account the objectives of the supplementary supervision, as provided for by these Regulations

(6) In order to apply such supplementary supervision, at least one of the entities must be a regulated entity and the conditions set out in paragraph (a)(ii) or (b)(ii) and paragraph (a)(iii) or (b)(iii) of the definition “financial conglomerate” in regulation 2 must be met, and the GFSC must take its decision, taking into account the objectives of the supplementary supervision as provided for by these Regulations.

(7) For the purpose of applying the provisions of sub-regulation (5) to cooperative groups, the GFSC must take into account the public financial commitment of these groups with respect to other financial entities.

(8) Without prejudice to regulation 14, the exercise of supplementary supervision at the level of the financial conglomerate must in no way imply that the GFSC is required to play a supervisory role in relation to mixed financial holding companies, third-country regulated entities in a financial conglomerate or unregulated entities in a financial conglomerate, on a stand-alone basis.

(9) When applying 'Method 2: Deduction and aggregation method' as set out in Schedule 1, the calculation must take account of the proportion of the subscribed capital which is directly or indirectly held by the parent undertaking or undertaking which holds a participation in another entity of the group.

7.(1) Without prejudice to the sectoral rules, supplementary supervision of the risk concentration of regulated entities in a financial conglomerate must be exercised in accordance with the rules laid down in these Regulations.

(5) The GFSC may set quantitative limits in relation to risk concentration at the level of a financial conglomerate and may also take other supervisory measures in relation to risk concentration which would achieve the objectives of supplementary supervision with regard to any risk concentration at the level of a financial conglomerate.

(6) Where a financial conglomerate is headed by a mixed financial holding company, the sectoral rules applicable to risk concentration of the most important financial sector in the financial conglomerate, if any, must apply to that sector as a whole, including the mixed financial holding company.

- (a) by the regulated entity which is at the head of the financial conglomerate; or

SCHEDULE 1CAPITAL ADEQUACY

Regulation 6

The calculation of the supplementary capital adequacy requirements of the regulated entities in a financial conglomerate referred to in regulation 6(1) must be carried out in accordance with the technical principles and one of the methods described in this Schedule.

Without prejudice to the provisions (A) and (B), the GFSC, must decide, after consultation with the financial conglomerate itself, which method must be applied by that financial con.

(A) Where a financial conglomerate is headed by a regulated entity that is an authorised person, the GFSC may determine which particular method among those described in this Schedule must be used for the purpose of the calculation; and

(B) Where a financial conglomerate is not headed by a regulated entity, a method among those described in this Schedule must be used for the purpose of the calculation.

I. Technical principles1. Extent and form of the supplementary capital adequacy requirements calculation.

Whichever method is used, when the entity is a subsidiary undertaking and has a solvency deficit, or, in the case of a non-regulated financial sector entity, a notional solvency deficit, the total solvency deficit of the subsidiary has to be taken into account. Where in this case, in the opinion of the GFSC, the responsibility of the parent undertaking owning a share of the capital is limited strictly and unambiguously to that share of the capital, the GFSC may give permission for the solvency deficit of the subsidiary undertaking to be taken into account on a proportional basis.

Where there are no capital ties between entities in a financial conglomerate, the GFSC, must determine which proportional share will have to be taken into account, bearing in mind the liability to which the existing relationship gives rise.

2. Other technical principles

Regardless of the method used for the calculation of the supplementary capital adequacy requirements of regulated entities in a financial conglomerate as laid down in Section II of this Schedule, the GFSC concerned, must ensure that the following principles will apply—

2019-26

Financial Services

2020/013 Financial Services (Financial Conglomerates) Regulations
2020

This version is out of date

- (i) the multiple use of elements eligible for the calculation of own funds at the level of the financial conglomerate (multiple gearing) as well as any inappropriate intra-group creation of own funds is not permissible; in order to ensure the elimination of multiple gearing and the intra-group creation of own funds, the GFSC must apply by analogy the relevant principles laid down in the relevant sectoral rules;
- (ii) the solvency requirements for each different financial sector represented in a financial conglomerate must be covered by own funds elements in accordance with the corresponding sectoral rules;

when there is a deficit of own funds at the financial conglomerate level, only own funds elements which are eligible according to each of the sectoral rules (cross-sector capital) must qualify for verification of compliance with the additional solvency requirements; where sectoral rules provide for limits on the eligibility of certain own funds instruments, which would qualify as cross-sector capital, these limits must apply as they apply when calculating own funds at the level of the financial conglomerate subject to the necessary modifications;

when calculating own funds at the level of the financial conglomerate, the GFSC must also take into account the effectiveness of the transferability and availability of the own funds across the different legal entities in the group, given the objectives of the capital adequacy rules;

where, in the case of a non-regulated financial sector entity, a notional solvency requirement is calculated in accordance with Section II of this Schedule, notional solvency requirement means the capital requirement with which such an entity would have to comply under the relevant sectoral rules as if it were a regulated entity of that particular financial sector; in the case of UCITS management companies, solvency requirement means the capital requirement set out in regulation 12(2) of the Financial Services (UCITS) Regulations 2020; the notional solvency requirement of a mixed financial holding company must be calculated according to the sectoral rules of the most important financial sector in the financial conglomerate.

II. Technical calculation methods

Method 1: Accounting consolidation method

The calculation of the supplementary capital adequacy requirements of the regulated entities in a financial conglomerate must be carried out on the basis of the consolidated accounts.

The supplementary capital adequacy requirements must be calculated as the difference between-

- (i) the own funds of the financial conglomerate calculated on the basis of the consolidated position of the group; the elements eligible are those that qualify in accordance with the relevant sectoral rules; and
- (ii) the sum of the solvency requirements for each different financial sector represented in the group; the solvency requirements for each different financial sector are calculated in accordance with the corresponding sectoral rules.

The sectoral rules referred to are in particular Directives 2000/12/EC, Title V, Chapter 3, as regards credit institutions, 98/78/EC as regards insurance undertakings, and 93/6/EEC as regards credit institutions and investment firm as those Directives applied in Gibraltar immediately before IP completion day.

In the case of non-regulated financial sector entities which are not included in the aforementioned sectoral solvency requirement calculations, a notional solvency requirement must be calculated.

The difference must not be negative.

Method 2: Deduction and aggregation method

The calculation of the supplementary capital adequacy requirements of the regulated entities in a financial conglomerate must be carried out on the basis of the accounts of each of the entities in the group.

The supplementary capital adequacy requirements must be calculated as the difference between—

- (i) the sum of the own funds of each regulated and non-regulated financial sector entity in the financial conglomerate; the elements eligible are those which qualify in accordance with the relevant sectoral rules; and
- (ii) the sum of—
 - the solvency requirements for each regulated and non-regulated financial sector entity in the group; the solvency requirements must be calculated in accordance with the relevant sectoral rules; and
 - the book value of the participations in other entities of the group.

In the case of non-regulated financial sector entities, a notional solvency requirement must be calculated. Own funds and solvency requirements must be taken into account for their proportional share as provided for in regulation 6(9) and in accordance with Section I of this Schedule.

The difference must not be negative.

Method 3: “Combination Method”

The GFSC may allow a combination of method 1 and method 2.

SCHEDULE 2

Regulations 8 and 9

TECHNICAL APPLICATION OF THE PROVISIONS ON INTRA-GROUP TRANSACTIONS AND RISK CONCENTRATION

1. The GFSC must identify the type of transactions and risks regulated entities in a particular financial conglomerate have a duty to report in accordance with the provisions of regulation 7(2) and regulation 8(2) on the reporting of intra-group transactions and risk concentration.
2. When defining or giving their opinion about the type of transactions and risks, the GFSC must take into account the specific group and risk management structure of the financial conglomerate.
3. In order to identify significant intra-group transactions and significant risk concentration to be reported in accordance with the provisions of regulations 8 and 9, the GFSC and the conglomerate itself, must define appropriate thresholds based on regulatory own funds and/or technical provisions.
4. When overviewing the intra-group transactions and risk concentrations, the GFSC must in particular monitor the possible risk of contagion in the financial conglomerate, the risk of a conflict of interests, the risk of circumvention of sectoral rules, and the level or volume of risks.
