CHAPTER 1 VALUATION OF ASSETS AND LIABILITIES AND RULES RELATING TO TECHNICAL PROVISIONS

Valuation of assets and liabilities

Valuation of assets and liabilities.

- 65.(1) An insurance or reinsurance undertaking must value-
 - (a) assets at the amount for which they could be exchanged between knowledgeable and willing parties in an arm's length transaction; and
 - (b) liabilities at the amount for which they could be transferred, or settled, between knowledgeable and willing parties in an arm's length transaction.
- (2) For the purposes of sub-regulation (1)(b), when valuing liabilities no adjustment must be made to take account of the own credit standing of the undertaking.

Technical provisions

General provisions.

- 66.(1) An insurance or reinsurance undertaking must establish adequate technical provisions with respect to all of its insurance and reinsurance obligations towards policy holders and beneficiaries of insurance or reinsurance contracts.
- (2) The value of technical provisions must correspond to the current amount that the undertaking would have to pay if it were to transfer its insurance and reinsurance obligations immediately to another insurance or reinsurance undertaking.
- (3) An insurance or reinsurance undertaking must calculate its technical provisions—
 - (a) using, and consistent with, information provided by the financial markets and generally available data on underwriting risks (market consistency);
 - (b) in a prudent, reliable and objective manner;
 - (c) taking account of the principles in sub-regulation (2); and

(d) in accordance with regulations 67 to 71.

Calculation of technical provisions.

- 67.(1) The value of technical provisions must be equal to the sum of a best estimate and a risk margin, calculated in accordance with this regulation.
- (2) The best estimate must–
 - (a) correspond to the probability-weighted average of future cashflows, taking account of the time value of money (expected present value of future cash-flows), using the relevant risk-free interest rate term structure; and
 - (b) be calculated-
 - (i) based on up-to-date and credible information and realistic assumptions;
 - (ii) using adequate, applicable and relevant actuarial and statistical methods; and
 - (iii) gross, without deduction of the amounts recoverable from reinsurance contracts and special purpose vehicles, which must be calculated separately in accordance with regulation 76.
- (3) The cash-flow projection used in the calculation of the best estimate (whether valued separately or on the basis of financial instruments in accordance with sub-regulation (6)) must take into account all the cash in-flows and out-flows required to settle the insurance and reinsurance obligations over their lifetime.
- (4) The risk margin must be such as to ensure that the value of the technical provisions is equivalent to the amount that an insurance or reinsurance undertaking would be expected to require in order to take over and meet the insurance and reinsurance obligations.
- (5) Subject to sub-regulation (6) an insurance or reinsurance undertaking must value the best estimate and the risk margin separately.
- (6) In a case where–
 - (a) future cash flows associated with insurance or reinsurance obligations can be replicated reliably; and

- (b) that replication is provided using financial instruments; and
- (c) those financial instruments have a reliable market value which is observable, then the value of technical provisions associated with those future cash flows must be determined on the basis of the market value of those financial instruments.

- (7) Where an insurance or reinsurance undertaking values the best estimate and risk margin separately, the risk margin must be calculated by determining the cost of providing an amount of eligible own funds equal to the Solvency Capital Requirement necessary to support the insurance and reinsurance obligations over their lifetime.
- (8) The rate used in the determination of the cost of providing that amount of eligible own funds (the "cost of capital rate") must be the same for all insurance and reinsurance undertakings.
- (9) The cost of capital rate used must be equal to the additional rate, above the relevant risk-free interest rate, that an insurance or reinsurance undertaking would incur holding an amount of eligible own funds, as set out in Chapter 2, equal to the Solvency Capital Requirement necessary to support insurance and reinsurance obligations over their lifetime.
- (10) The determination of the relevant risk-free interest rate term structure referred to in sub-regulation (2)(a)–
 - (a) must make use of, and be consistent with, information derived from relevant financial instruments;
 - (b) must take into account relevant financial instruments of those maturities where the markets for those financial instruments as well as for bonds are deep, liquid and transparent; and
 - (c) must be extrapolated for maturities where the markets for the relevant financial instruments or for bonds are no longer deep, liquid and transparent.
- (11) The extrapolated part of the relevant risk-free interest rate term structure must be based on forward rates converging smoothly from one or a set of forward rates in relation to the longest maturities for which the relevant financial instrument and the bonds can be observed in a deep, liquid and transparent market to an ultimate forward rate.

- 68.(1) An insurance or reinsurance undertaking may apply a matching adjustment to the relevant risk-free interest rate term structure to calculate the best estimate of a portfolio of life insurance or reinsurance obligations, including annuities stemming from non-life insurance or reinsurance contracts subject to prior approval by the GFSC where the following conditions are met—
 - (a) the undertaking has assigned a portfolio of assets, consisting of bonds and other assets with similar cash-flow characteristics, to cover the best estimate of the portfolio of insurance or reinsurance obligations and maintains that assignment over the lifetime of the obligations, except for the purpose of maintaining the replication of expected cash flows between assets and liabilities where the cash flows have materially changed;
 - (b) the portfolio of insurance or reinsurance obligations to which the matching adjustment is applied and the assigned portfolio of assets are identified, organised and managed separately from the undertaking's other activities and the assigned portfolio of assets cannot be used to cover losses arising from those other activities;
 - (c) the expected cash flows of the assigned portfolio of assets replicate each of the expected cash flows of the portfolio of insurance or reinsurance obligations in the same currency and any mismatch does not give rise to risks which are material in relation to the risks inherent in the insurance or reinsurance business to which the matching adjustment is applied;
 - (d) the contracts underlying the portfolio of insurance or reinsurance obligations do not give rise to future premium payments;
 - (e) the only underwriting risks connected to the portfolio of insurance or reinsurance obligations are longevity risk, expense risk, revision risk and mortality risk;
 - (f) where the underwriting risk connected to the portfolio of insurance or reinsurance obligations includes mortality risk, the best estimate of the portfolio of insurance or reinsurance obligations does not increase by more than 5% under a mortality risk stress that is calibrated in accordance with regulation 91(2) to (5);
 - (g) the contracts underlying the portfolio of insurance or reinsurance obligations include no options for the policy holder or only a surrender option where the surrender value does not exceed the value of the assets, valued in accordance with regulation 65, covering the insurance or reinsurance obligations at the time the surrender option is exercised;

- (h) the cash flows of the assigned portfolio of assets are fixed and cannot be changed by the issuers of the assets or any third parties;
- (i) the insurance or reinsurance obligations of an insurance or reinsurance contract are not split into different parts when composing the portfolio of insurance or reinsurance obligations for the purpose of this paragraph.
- (2) Despite sub-regulation (1)(h), an insurance or reinsurance undertaking may use assets where the cash flows are fixed except for a dependence on inflation, if those assets replicate the cash flows of the portfolio of insurance or reinsurance obligations that depend on inflation.
- (3) In the event that issuers or third parties have the right to change the cash flows of an asset in such a manner that the investor receives sufficient compensation to allow it to obtain the same cash flows by re-investing in assets of an equivalent or better credit quality, the right to change the cash flows must not disqualify the asset for admissibility to the assigned portfolio in accordance with sub-regulation (1)(h).
- (4) An insurance or reinsurance undertaking that applies the matching adjustment to a portfolio of insurance or reinsurance obligations must not revert back to an approach that does not include a matching adjustment.
- (5) Where an insurance or reinsurance undertaking that applies the matching adjustment is no longer able to comply with the conditions set out in sub-regulation (1)–
 - (a) it must immediately inform the GFSC and take the necessary measures to restore compliance with those conditions; and
 - (b) where the undertaking is not able to restore compliance with those conditions within two months of the date of non-compliance, it must cease to apply the matching adjustment to any of its insurance or reinsurance obligations and must not apply the matching adjustment for a period of a further 24 months.
- (6) The matching adjustment must not be applied with respect to insurance or reinsurance obligations where the relevant risk-free interest rate term structure to calculate the best estimate for those obligations includes a volatility adjustment under regulation 70 or transitional measure on the risk free interest rates under paragraph 2 of Schedule 1.

Calculating matching adjustment.

- 69.(1) For each currency the matching adjustment referred to in regulation 68 must be calculated in accordance with the following principles—
 - © Government of Gibraltar (www.gibraltarlaws.gov.gi)

2020/044

This version is out of date

- (a) the matching adjustment must be equal to the difference of the following-
 - (i) the annual effective rate, calculated as the single discount rate that, where applied to the cash flows of the portfolio of insurance or reinsurance obligations, results in a value that is equal to the value in accordance with regulation 65 of the portfolio of assigned assets;
 - (ii) the annual effective rate, calculated as the single discount rate that, where applied to the cash flows of the portfolio of insurance or reinsurance obligations, results in a value that is equal to the value of the best estimate of the portfolio of insurance or reinsurance obligations where the time value of money is taken into account using the basic risk-free interest rate term structure;
- (b) the matching adjustment must not include the fundamental spread reflecting the risks retained by the insurance or reinsurance undertaking;
- (c) despite paragraph (a), the fundamental spread must be increased where necessary to ensure that the matching adjustment for assets with sub-investment grade credit quality does not exceed the matching adjustments for assets of investment grade credit quality and the same duration and asset class;
- (d) the use of external credit assessments in the calculation of the matching adjustment must be in accordance with the Solvency 2 Regulation.
- (2) For the purposes of sub-regulation (1)(b), the fundamental spread must be—
 - (a) equal to the sum of the following-
 - (i) the credit spread corresponding to the probability of default of the assets;
 - (ii) the credit spread corresponding to the expected loss resulting from downgrading of the assets;
 - (b) for exposures to the government of Gibraltar or the government or central bank of the United Kingdom, no lower than 30% of the long-term average of the spread over the risk-free interest rate of assets of the same duration, credit quality and asset class, as observed in financial markets;

2020/044

Financial Services (Insurance Companies) Regulations 2020

This version is out of date

- (c) for assets other than those exposures, no lower than 35% of the long term average of the spread over the risk-free interest rate of assets of the same duration, credit quality and asset class, as observed in financial markets.
- (3) The probability of default referred to in sub-regulation (2)(a)(i) must be based on long-term default statistics that are relevant for the asset in relation to its duration, credit quality and asset class and, where no reliable credit spread can be derived from the default statistics referred to in sub-regulation (2)(a)(ii), the fundamental spread must be equal to the portion of the long term average of the spread over the risk-free interest rate set out in sub-regulation (7)(b) and (c).

Volatility adjustment to relevant risk-free interest rate term structure.

- 70.(1) An insurance or reinsurance undertaking may, with the prior approval by the GFSC, apply a volatility adjustment to the relevant risk-free interest rate term structure to calculate the best estimate referred to in regulation 67(2).
- (2) For each relevant currency, the volatility adjustment to the relevant risk-free interest rate term structure must be based on the spread between the interest rate that could be earned from assets included in a reference portfolio for that currency and the rates of the relevant basic risk-free interest rate term structure for that currency.
- (3) The reference portfolio for a currency must be representative for the assets which are denominated in that currency and which insurance and reinsurance undertakings are invested in to cover the best estimate for insurance and reinsurance obligations denominated in that currency.
- (4) The amount of the volatility adjustment to risk-free interest rates must correspond to 65% of the risk-corrected currency spread, which must be calculated as the difference between—
 - (a) the spread referred to in sub-regulation (2); and
 - (b) the portion of that spread attributable to a realistic assessment of expected losses or unexpected credit or other risk of the assets.
- (5) The volatility adjustment must apply only to the relevant risk-free interest rates of the term structure that are not derived by means of extrapolation in accordance with regulation 67(11) and the extrapolation of the relevant risk-free interest rate term structure must be based on those adjusted risk-free interest rates.

2020/044

- (6) For each relevant country, the volatility adjustment to the risk-free interest rates referred to in sub-regulation (4) for the currency of that country must, before application of the 65% factor, be increased by the difference between the risk-corrected country spread and twice the risk-corrected currency spread, whenever that difference is positive and the risk-corrected country spread is higher than 85 basis points.
- (7) The increased volatility adjustment must be applied to the calculation of the best estimate for insurance and reinsurance obligations of products sold in the insurance market of that country.
- (8) The risk-corrected country spread is calculated in the same way as the risk-corrected currency spread for the currency of that country, but based on a reference portfolio that is representative for the assets which insurance and reinsurance undertakings are invested in to cover the best estimate for insurance and reinsurance obligations of products sold in the insurance market of that country and denominated in the currency of that country.
- (9) The volatility adjustment must not be applied with respect to insurance obligations where the relevant risk-free interest rate term structure to calculate the best estimate for those obligations includes a matching adjustment under regulation 68.
- (10) By way of derogation from regulation 91, the Solvency Capital Requirement must not cover the risk of loss of basic own funds resulting from changes to the volatility adjustment.

Use of approved technical information.

- 71.(1) An insurance or reinsurance undertaking must use the approved technical information in calculating—
 - (a) the best estimate in accordance with regulation 67;
 - (b) the matching adjustment in accordance with regulation 69; and
 - (c) the volatility adjustment in accordance with regulation 70.
- (2) The "approved technical information" means any technical information for each relevant currency—
 - (a) issued before IP completion day by EIOPA and the European Commission in accordance with Articles 77e.1 and 77e.2 of the Solvency 2 Directive; or
 - (b) issued or approved by the GFSC on or after IP completion day, setting out—

- (ii) for each relevant duration, credit quality and asset class a fundamental spread for calculating the matching adjustment in regulation 69; and
- (iii) for each relevant national insurance market a volatility adjustment to the relevant risk-free interest rate term structure in regulation 70.
- (3) Where, in respect to particular currencies and national markets, the approved technical information does not include a volatility adjustment to the relevant risk-free interest rate term structure, no volatility adjustment is to be applied to the relevant risk free interest rate term structure to calculate the best estimate.
- (4) The issue or approval by the GFSC of any technical information under sub-regulation (2)(b) must be published in a manner that the GFSC considers appropriate to bring it to the attention of persons who may be affected by it.

72. Omitted.

Other elements to be taken into account in calculation of technical provisions.

- 73. In addition to regulation 67, when calculating technical provisions, an insurance or reinsurance undertaking must take account of—
 - (a) all expenses that will be incurred in servicing insurance and reinsurance obligations;
 - (b) inflation, including expenses and claims inflation; and
 - (c) all payments to policy holders, including future discretionary bonuses, which the undertaking expects to make, whether or not those payments are contractually guaranteed.

Valuation of financial guarantees and contractual options included in insurance and reinsurance contracts.

- 74.(1) When calculating technical provisions, an insurance or reinsurance undertaking must take account of the value of financial guarantees and any contractual options included in contracts of insurance and reinsurance contracts.
- (2) Any assumptions used by an insurance or reinsurance undertaking to determine the likelihood that policy holders will exercise contractual options, including lapses and surrenders, must-
 - (a) be realistic and based on current and credible information; and
 - (b) take into account, either explicitly or implicitly, the impact that future changes in financial and non-financial conditions may have on the exercise of those options.

Segmentation.

75. When calculating technical provisions, an insurance or reinsurance undertaking must segment its insurance and reinsurance obligations into homogeneous risk groups, and, as a minimum, by lines of business.

Recoverables from reinsurance contracts and special purpose vehicles.

- 76.(1) An insurance or reinsurance undertaking must calculate amounts recoverable from reinsurance contracts and special purpose vehicles in accordance with regulations 66 to 75.
- (2) For the purposes of sub-regulation (1), an undertaking must take into account the time difference between amounts becoming recoverable and the actual receipt of those amounts.
- (3) An undertaking must adjust the calculation referred to in sub-regulation (1) to take into account expected losses due to the default of the counterparty.
- (4) The adjustment referred to in sub-regulation (3) must be based on an assessment of the probability of default of the counterparty and the average loss that would result from that default (loss given default).

Data quality and application of approximations, including case-by-case approaches, for technical provisions.

77.(1) An insurance or reinsurance undertaking must have internal processes and procedures in place to ensure the appropriateness, completeness and accuracy of the data used in the calculation of its technical provisions.

(2) Where an undertaking has insufficient data of appropriate quality to apply a reliable actuarial method to a set or subset of its insurance and reinsurance obligations, or amounts recoverable from reinsurance contracts and special purpose vehicles, it may use appropriate approximations, including case-by-case approaches, in the calculation of the best estimate.

Comparison against experience.

- 78.(1) An insurance or reinsurance undertaking must have processes and procedures in place to ensure that best estimates, and the assumptions underlying the calculation of best estimates, are regularly compared against experience.
- (2) Where a systematic deviation exists between the undertaking's best estimate calculation and experience, the undertaking must make appropriate adjustments to the actuarial methods being used or the assumptions being made, or both as the case may require.

Appropriateness of level of technical provisions.

- 79. An insurance or reinsurance undertaking must, at the GFSC's request, demonstrate to the GFSC-
 - (a) the appropriateness of the level of the undertaking's technical provisions;
 - (b) the applicability and relevance of the methods applied; and
 - (c) the adequacy of the underlying statistical data used.

Increase of technical provisions.

80. If an insurance or reinsurance undertaking's calculation of technical provisions does not comply with regulations 66 to 78, the GFSC may require the undertaking to increase the amount of technical provisions so that they correspond to the level determined in accordance with those regulations.

- 84.(1) When determining its own funds, an insurance or reinsurance undertaking must not take into account any item of ancillary own funds without the GFSC's approval.
- (2) An undertaking may only attribute an amount to an item of ancillary own funds to the extent that it—
 - (a) reflects the loss-absorbency of the item; and
 - (b) is based on prudent and realistic assumptions.
- (3) Where an item of ancillary own funds has a fixed nominal value, the amount of that item must be equal to its nominal value, where that value appropriately reflects its loss absorbency.
- (4) The GFSC may approve either-
 - (a) a monetary amount for each ancillary own-fund item; or
 - (b) a method by which to determine the amount of each ancillary own-fund item, in which case approval by the GFSC of the amount determined in accordance with that method must be granted for a specified period of time.
- (5) For each ancillary own-fund item, the GFSC must base its approval on an assessment of
 - (a) the status of the counterparties concerned, in relation to their ability and willingness to pay;
 - (b) the recoverability of the funds, taking account of-
 - (i) the legal form of the item; and
 - (ii) any conditions which would prevent the item from being successfully paid in or called up; and
 - (c) any information on the outcome of past calls which insurance or reinsurance undertakings have made for such ancillary own funds, to the extent that the information can be reliably used to assess the expected outcome of future calls.

Characteristics and features used to classify own funds into tiers.

This version is out of date

- 85.(1) Own fund items must be classified into three tiers, depending on whether they are basic own fund or ancillary own fund items and the extent to which they possess the following characteristics—
 - (a) the item is available, or can be called up on demand, to fully absorb losses on a going-concern basis as well as in the case of winding-up (permanent availability); and
 - (b) in the case of winding-up, the total amount of the item is available to absorb losses and the repayment of the item is refused to its holder until all other obligations, including insurance and reinsurance obligations to policy holders, have been met (subordination).
- (2) When assessing the extent to which own funds items possess the characteristics set out in sub-regulation (1), currently and in the future, due consideration must be given to—
 - (a) the duration of the item, in particular whether the item is dated or not and, where an own funds item is dated, the relative duration of the item as compared to the duration of the insurance and reinsurance obligations of the undertaking (sufficient duration);
 - (b) whether the item is free from requirements or incentives to redeem the nominal sum (absence of incentives to redeem);
 - (c) whether the item is free from mandatory fixed charges (absence of mandatory servicing costs); and
 - (d) whether the item is clear of encumbrances (absence of encumbrances).

Main criteria for classification into tiers.

- 86.(1) An insurance or reinsurance undertaking may only include an own funds item in its Tier 1 own funds if—
 - (a) it is an item of basic own funds; and
 - (b) it substantially possesses the characteristics set out in regulation 85(1) taking into consideration the features set out in regulation 85(2).
- (2) An undertaking may only include an own funds item in its Tier 2 own funds if—

- (a) where it is an item of basic own funds, it substantially possesses the characteristics set out in regulation 85(1)(b), taking into consideration the features set out in regulation 85(2); or
- (b) where it is an item of ancillary own funds it substantially possesses the characteristics set out in regulation 85(1)(a) and (b), taking into consideration the features set out in regulation 85(2).
- (3) Any basic or ancillary own fund items which do not fall within sub-regulation (1) or (2) must be classified in the undertaking's Tier 3 own funds.
- (4) In so far as permitted by the GFSC, to the extent that surplus funds fulfil the criteria in sub-regulation (1), they must not be considered as insurance or reinsurance liabilities.

Classification of own funds into tiers.

- 87.(1) An insurance or reinsurance undertaking must classify its own fund items on the basis of the criteria set out in regulation 86.
- (2) For that purpose, the undertaking must refer to the list of own-fund items in the Solvency 2 Regulation.
- (3) Where an own fund item is not covered by that list, the undertaking must assess and classify it in accordance with regulation 86, but any such classification must be approved by the GFSC.

Classification of specific insurance own fund items.

- 88. Without limiting regulation 87, for the purposes of these Regulations the following classifications must be applied—
 - (a) surplus funds to which regulation 86(4) applies must be classified as Tier 1 own funds;
 - (b) letters of credit and guarantees which are held in trust for the benefit of policy holders by an independent trustee and are provided by credit institutions must be classified as Tier 2;
 - (c) any future claims which a which mutual or mutual-type associations of shipowners with variable contributions solely insuring risks listed in Classes 6, 12 and 17 may have against their members by way of a call for supplementary contributions, within the following 12 months, must be classified as Tier 2; and

(d) any future claims which a mutual with variable contributions may have against their members by way of a call for supplementary contributions, within the following 12 months which do not fall within paragraph (c) must be classified as Tier 2 where they substantially possess the characteristics set out in regulation 85(a) and (b), taking into consideration the features set out in regulation 85(2).

Eligibility and limits applicable to Tiers 1, 2 and 3.

- 89.(1) As far as an insurance or reinsurance undertaking's compliance with its Solvency Capital Requirement is concerned, the eligible amounts of Tier 2 and Tier 3 items must be subject to quantitative limits which ensure that the following condition are met—
 - (a) the proportion of Tier 1 items in the eligible own funds must be more than one third of the total amount of eligible own funds; and
 - (b) the eligible amount of Tier 3 items must be less than one third of the total amount of eligible own funds.
- (2) As far as an undertaking's compliance with its Minimum Capital Requirement is concerned, the amount of basic own-fund items eligible to cover the Minimum Capital Requirement which are classified in Tier 2 must be subject to quantitative limits which ensure that, as a minimum, the proportion of Tier 1 items in the eligible basic own funds is more than 50% of the total amount of eligible basic own funds.
- (3) The eligible amount of own funds to cover the Solvency Capital Requirement must be equal to the sum of the amount of Tier 1, the eligible amount of Tier 2 and the eligible amount of Tier 3.
- (4) The eligible amount of basic own funds to cover the Minimum Capital Requirement must be equal to the sum of the amount of Tier 1 and the eligible amount of basic own funds items classified in Tier 2.

- (e) credit risk; and
- (f) operational risk,

and the operational risk referred to in paragraph (f) must include legal risks but exclude risks arising from strategic decisions and reputation risks.

(6) When calculating the Solvency Capital Requirement, an undertaking may take account of the effect of risk-mitigation techniques, if credit risk and other risks arising from the use of such techniques are properly reflected in the Solvency Capital Requirement.

 - (b) life underwriting risk;
 - (c) health underwriting risk;
 - (d) market risk; and
 - (e) counterparty default risk.

- (3) The correlation coefficients for the aggregation of the risk modules referred to in subregulation (1), as well as the calibration of the capital requirements for each risk module, must result in an overall Solvency Capital Requirement which complies with the principles set out in regulation 91.
- (4) Each of the risk modules referred to in sub-regulation (1) must be calibrated using a Value-at-Risk measure, with a 99.5% confidence level, over a one-year period and, where appropriate, diversification effects must be taken into account in the design of each risk module.
- (5) The same design and specifications for the risk modules must be used for all insurance and reinsurance undertakings, both with respect to the Basic Solvency Capital Requirement and to any simplified calculations as set out in regulation 100.

- (6) With regard to risks arising from catastrophes, where appropriate, geographical specifications may be used for the calculation of the life, non-life and health underwriting risk modules.
- (7) Subject to approval by the GFSC, an undertaking may, within the design of the standard formula, replace a subset of its parameters by parameters specific to the undertaking when calculating the life, non-life and health underwriting risk modules and such parameters must be calibrated on the basis of the undertaking's internal data or data which is directly relevant for the undertaking's operations using standardised methods.
- (8) In considering whether to grant approval under sub-regulation (7), the GFSC must verify the completeness, accuracy and appropriateness of the data used.

Calculation of Basic Solvency Capital Requirement.

- 95.(1) An insurance or reinsurance undertaking must calculate its Basic Solvency Capital Requirement in accordance with sub-regulations (2) to (6).
- (2) The non-life underwriting risk module-
 - (a) must reflect the risk arising from non-life insurance obligations, in relation to the perils covered and the processes used in the conduct of business;
 - (b) must take account of the uncertainty in the undertaking's results related to the existing insurance and reinsurance obligations as well as to the new business expected to be written over the following 12 months; and
 - (c) must be calculated, in accordance with paragraph 2 of Schedule 4, as a combination of the capital requirements for at least the following sub-modules—
 - (i) the risk of loss, or of adverse change in the value of insurance liabilities, resulting from fluctuations in the timing, frequency and severity of insured events, and in the timing and amount of claim settlements (non-life premium and reserve risk); and

- (a) must reflect the risk arising from the underwriting of health insurance obligations, whether it is pursued on a similar technical basis to that of life insurance or not, following from both the perils covered and the processes used in the conduct of business; and
- (b) must cover at least the following risks-
 - (i) the risk of loss, or of adverse change in the value of insurance liabilities, resulting from changes in the level, trend, or volatility of the expenses incurred in servicing insurance or reinsurance contracts;
 - (ii) the risk of loss, or of adverse change in the value of insurance liabilities, resulting from fluctuations in the timing, frequency and severity of insured events, and in the timing and amount of claim settlements at the time of provisioning; and
 - (iii) the risk of loss, or of adverse change in the value of insurance liabilities, resulting from the significant uncertainty of pricing and provisioning assumptions related to outbreaks of major epidemics, as well as the unusual accumulation of risks under such extreme circumstances.

(5) The market risk module-

- (a) must reflect the risk arising from the level or volatility of market prices of financial instruments which have an impact on the value of the undertaking's assets and liabilities;
- (b) must properly reflect the structural mismatch between assets and liabilities, in particular with respect to their duration; and

- (iii) the sensitivity of the values of assets, liabilities and financial instruments to changes in the level or in the volatility of market prices of real estate (property risk);
- (iv) the sensitivity of the values of assets, liabilities and financial instruments to changes in the level or in the volatility of credit spreads over the risk-free interest rate term structure (spread risk);
- (v) the sensitivity of the values of assets, liabilities and financial instruments to changes in the level or in the volatility of currency exchange rates (currency risk); and
- (vi) additional risks to the undertaking stemming either from lack of diversification in the asset portfolio or from large exposure to default risk by a single issuer of securities or a group of related issuers (market risk concentrations).

(6) The counterparty default risk module-

- (a) must reflect possible losses due to unexpected default, or deterioration in the credit standing, of the undertaking's counterparties and debtors over the following 12 months;
- (b) must cover risk-mitigating contracts, such as reinsurance arrangements, securitisations and derivatives, and receivables from intermediaries, as well as any other credit exposures which are not covered in the spread risk sub-module;
- (c) must take appropriate account of collateral or other security held by or for the account of the undertaking and the risks associated with it; and
- (d) for each counterparty, must take account of the overall counterparty risk exposure of the undertaking to that counterparty, irrespective of the legal form of its contractual obligations to that undertaking.

Calculation of equity risk sub-module: symmetric adjustment mechanism.

96.(1) The equity risk sub-module calculated in accordance with the standard formula must include a symmetric adjustment to the equity capital charge applied to cover the risk arising from changes in the level of equity prices.

2020/044

This version is out of date

- (2) The symmetric adjustment made to the standard equity capital charge, calibrated in accordance with regulation 94(4), covering the risk arising from changes in the level of equity prices must be based on a function of the current level of an appropriate equity index and a weighted average level of that index, and that weighted average must be calculated over an appropriate period of time which must be the same for all insurance and reinsurance undertakings.
- (3) The symmetric adjustment made to the standard equity capital charge covering the risk arising from changes in the level of equity prices must not result in an equity capital charge being applied that is more than 10 percentage points lower or 10 percentage points higher than the standard equity capital charge.

Duration-based equity risk sub-module.

- 97.(1) Where, in circumstances falling within sub-regulation (2), a life insurance undertaking provides retirement benefits
 - (a) which are paid by reference to reaching, or the expectation of reaching, retirement; and
 - (b) where the premiums paid for those benefits have a tax deduction which is authorised to policy holders by the law of Gibraltar, the GFSC may authorise the undertaking to apply an equity risk sub-module of the Solvency Capital Requirement, which is calibrated using a Value-at-Risk measure over a time period which is consistent with a typical holding period of equity investments for the undertaking, with a confidence level providing the policy holders and beneficiaries with a level of protection equivalent to that set out in regulation 91 where the approach provided for in this sub-regulation is used only in respect of those assets and liabilities referred to in sub-regulation (2)(a).

- (2) The circumstances referred to in sub-regulation (1) are where—
 - (a) all assets and liabilities corresponding to the business of the undertaking are ringfenced, managed and organised separately from the other activities of the, undertaking without any possibility of transfer;
 - (b) the activities of the undertaking related to sub-regulation (1)(a) and (b), in relation to which the approach referred to in that sub-regulation is applied, are pursued only in Gibraltar; and

- (c) the average duration of the liabilities corresponding to the business held by the undertaking exceeds an average of 12 years.
- (3) In the calculation of the Solvency Capital Requirement, those assets and liabilities must be fully considered for the purposes of assessing the diversification effects, without limiting the need to safeguard the interests of policy holders and beneficiaries.
- (4) Subject to the approval of the GFSC, the approach set out in sub-regulation (1) must be used only where the solvency and liquidity positions as well as the strategies, processes and reporting procedures of the undertaking with respect to asset-liability management are such as to ensure, on an on-going basis, that it is able to hold equity investments for a period which is consistent with the typical holding period of equity investments for the undertaking.
- (5) The undertaking must be able to demonstrate to the GFSC that the condition in subregulation (4) is verified with the level of confidence necessary to provide policy holders and beneficiaries with a level of protection equivalent to that set out in regulation 91.
- (6) An undertaking must not revert to applying the approach set out in regulation 95 other than in duly justified circumstances and subject to the approval of the GFSC.

Capital requirement for operational risk.

- 98.(1) The capital requirement for operational risk-
 - (a) must reflect operational risks to the extent they are not already reflected in the risk modules referred to in regulation 94; and
 - (b) must be calibrated in accordance with regulation 91(3).
- (2) With respect to life insurance contracts where the investment risk is borne by the policy holders, the calculation of the capital requirement for operational risk must take account of the amount of annual expenses incurred in respect of those insurance obligations.
- (3) With respect to insurance and reinsurance operations other than those in sub-regulation (2), the calculation of the capital requirement for operational risk must take account of the volume of those operations, in terms of earned premiums and technical provisions which are held in respect of those insurance and reinsurance obligations; and in that case, the capital requirement for operational risks must not exceed 30% of the Basic Solvency Capital Requirement relating to those insurance and reinsurance operations.

Adjustment for loss-absorbing capacity of technical provisions and deferred taxes.

This version is out of date

- 99.(1) The adjustment for the loss-absorbing capacity of technical provisions and deferred taxes referred to in regulation 93(c) must reflect potential compensation of unexpected losses through a simultaneous decrease in technical provisions or deferred taxes or a combination of them.
- (2) That adjustment must take account of the risk mitigating effect provided by future discretionary benefits of insurance contracts, to the extent that an insurance or reinsurance undertaking can establish that a reduction in such benefits may be used to cover unexpected losses when they arise.
- (3) The risk mitigating effect provided by future discretionary benefits must be no higher than the sum of technical provisions and deferred taxes relating to those future discretionary benefits.
- (4) For the purposes of sub-regulations (2) and (3), the value of future discretionary benefits under adverse circumstances must be compared to the value of those benefits under the underlying assumptions of the best-estimate calculation.

Standard formula: simplification and modification.

- 100.(1) An insurance or reinsurance undertaking may use a simplified calculation for a specific sub-module or risk module where—
 - (a) the nature, scale and complexity of the risks the undertaking faces justifies it; and
 - (b) it would be disproportionate to require all undertakings to apply the standardised calculation.
- (2) Simplified calculations must be calibrated in accordance with regulation 91(3).
- (3) Where it is inappropriate to calculate the Solvency Capital Requirement in accordance with the standard formula (as set out in regulations 93 to 99 and sub-regulation (1)) because the risk profile of an undertaking deviates significantly from the assumptions underlying the standard formula calculation, the GFSC may direct the undertaking to replace a subset of the parameters used in the standard formula calculation by parameters specific to that undertaking when calculating the life, non-life and health underwriting risk modules, as set out in with regulation 94(7).
- (4) Those specific parameters must be calculated in such a way as to ensure that the undertaking complies with regulation 91(3).

Internal models

General provisions for approval of full and partial internal models.

- 101.(1) An insurance or reinsurance undertaking may calculate its Solvency Capital Requirement using a full or partial internal model as approved by the GFSC.
- (2) An undertaking may use partial internal models for the calculation of one or more of the following—
 - (a) one or more risk modules, or sub-modules, of the Basic Solvency Capital Requirement, as set out in regulations 94 and 95;
 - (b) the capital requirement for operational risk as set out in regulation 98; or
 - (c) the adjustment referred to in regulation 99.
- (3) Partial modelling may be applied to an undertaking's whole business or only to one or more major business units.
- (4) In any application for approval, an undertaking must submit, as a minimum, documentary evidence that the internal model fulfils the requirements set out in regulations 108 to 113.
- (5) Where an application for approval relates to a partial internal model, the requirements set out in regulations 108 to 113 must be adapted to take account of the limited scope of the application of the model.
- (6) The GFSC must determine the application within six months of receiving the complete application.
- (7) The GFSC may approve the application only if it is satisfied—
 - (a) that the undertaking's systems are adequate for identifying, measuring, monitoring, managing and reporting risk; and
 - (b) in particular, that the internal model fulfils the requirements in sub-regulations (4) and (5).

- (8) Where the GFSC refuses an application, it must promptly give the applicant a written notice of refusal, which must include a statement setting out the reasons for the refusal.
- (9) Where the GFSC has approved an application to use an internal model, it may require the undertaking to provide the GFSC with an estimate of the Solvency Capital Requirement determined in accordance with the standard formula, as set out in regulations 93 to 100.
- (10) A requirement under sub-regulation (9) must be given to the undertaking by notice in writing which includes the GFSC's reasons for giving it.

Specific provisions for approval of partial internal models.

- 102.(1) The GFSC must approve a partial internal model only where that model fulfils the requirements set out in regulation 101 and the following additional conditions—
 - (a) the reason for the limited scope of application of the model is properly justified by the undertaking;
 - (b) the resulting Solvency Capital Requirement reflects more appropriately the risk profile of the undertaking and, in particular, complies with the principles set out in regulations 90 to 92; and
 - (c) its design is consistent with the principles set out in regulations 90 to 92 so as to allow the partial internal model to be fully integrated into the Solvency Capital Requirement standard formula.
- (2) The GFSC, when assessing an application for the use of a partial internal model which only covers—
 - (a) certain sub-modules of a specific risk module;
 - (b) some of the business units of an undertaking with respect to a specific risk module; or
 - (c) parts of both,

may require the undertaking to submit a realistic transitional plan to extend the scope of the model.

Financial Services (Insurance Companies) Regulations 2020

(3) The transitional plan must set out the manner in which the undertaking plans to extend the scope of the model to other sub-modules or business units, in order to ensure that the model covers a predominant part of its insurance operations with respect to that specific risk module.

Policy for changing full and partial internal models.

- 103.(1) The GFSC, as part of its initial approval process of an insurance or reinsurance undertaking's internal model, must approve the policy for changing that model.
- (2) The undertaking may change its internal model in accordance with that policy.
- (3) The policy must include a specification of minor and major changes to the internal model.
- (4) Major changes to the internal model or changes to that policy must always be subject to prior approval by the GFSC in accordance with regulation 101.
- (5) Minor changes to the internal model which are developed in accordance with that policy do not require the GFSC's prior approval.

Responsibilities of administrative, management or supervisory bodies.

- 104.(1) An insurance or reinsurance undertaking's administrative, management or supervisory body must approve any application to the GFSC for approval of the internal model referred to in regulation 101 or approval of any subsequent major changes to that model.
- (2) An undertaking's administrative, management or supervisory body is responsible for putting in place systems which ensure that the internal model operates properly on a continuous basis.

Reversion to standard formula

105. An insurance or reinsurance undertaking which has received approval for an internal model in accordance with regulation 101 must not revert to calculating the whole or any part of the Solvency Capital Requirement in accordance with the standard formula (as set out in regulations 93 to 100) other than in duly justified circumstances and subject to the prior approval of the GFSC.

Non-compliance of internal model.

This version is out of date

- 106.(1) If, after having received approval from the GFSC to use an internal model, an insurance or reinsurance undertaking ceases to comply with the requirements set out in regulations 108 to 113, it must, without delay—
 - (a) present to the GFSC a plan to restore compliance within a reasonable period; or
 - (b) demonstrate to the GFSC's satisfaction that the effect of non-compliance is immaterial.
- (2) Where the undertaking presents but fails to implement a plan under sub-regulation (1)(a), the GFSC may require the undertaking to revert to calculating the Solvency Capital Requirement in accordance with the standard formula (as set out in regulations 93 to 100).

Significant deviations from assumptions underlying standard formula calculation.

- 107.(1) Where, because an insurance or reinsurance undertaking's risk profile deviates significantly from the assumptions underlying the standard formula calculation, the GFSC considers it is inappropriate to calculate the Solvency Capital Requirement in accordance with the standard formula (as set out in regulations 93 to 100), the GFSC may direct the undertaking to use an internal model to calculate the Solvency Capital Requirement or the relevant risk modules.
- (2) A direction under sub-regulation (1) must be given to the undertaking by notice in writing which includes the GFSC's reasons for giving it.

Use test.

- 108.(1) An insurance or reinsurance undertaking must demonstrate that its internal model is widely used in and plays an important role in the undertaking's system of governance referred to in regulations 43 to 50, and in particular, in its—
 - (a) risk-management system as set out in regulation 45 and its decision-making processes; and
 - (b) economic and solvency capital assessment and allocation processes, including the assessment referred to in regulation 46.
- (2) In addition, the undertaking must demonstrate that the frequency of calculation of the Solvency Capital Requirement using the internal model is consistent with the frequency with which it uses its internal model for the other purposes covered by sub-regulation (1).

(3) The undertaking's administrative, management or supervisory body must be responsible for ensuring the ongoing appropriateness of the design and operations of its internal model, and that the internal model continues to appropriately reflect the undertaking's risk profile.

Statistical quality standards.

- 109.(1) An insurance or reinsurance undertaking's internal model and, in particular, the calculation of the probability distribution forecast underlying it, must comply with the criteria in sub-regulations (2) to (12).
- (2) The methods used to calculate the probability distribution forecast—
 - (a) must be based on adequate, applicable and relevant actuarial and statistical techniques;
 - (b) must be consistent with the methods used to calculate technical provisions; and
 - (c) must be based on current and credible information and realistic assumptions, and the undertaking must be able to justify the assumptions underlying its internal model to the GFSC.

- (3) Data used for the internal model must be accurate, complete and appropriate.
- (4) The undertaking must update the data sets used in the calculation of the probability distribution forecast at least annually.
- (5) The GFSC must not prescribe a particular method for the calculation of the probability distribution forecast.
- (6) Regardless of the calculation method chosen, the undertaking must ensure that the ability of the internal model to rank risk is sufficient to ensure that it is widely used in and plays an important role in its system of governance, in particular its risk-management system and decision-making processes, and capital allocation in accordance with regulation 108.
- (7) The internal model must cover all of the material risks to which the undertaking is exposed and must cover at least the risks set out in regulation 91(5).
- (8) The undertaking may take account in its internal model of dependencies within and across risk categories, so long as the GFSC is satisfied that the system used for measuring those diversification effects is adequate.

- (9) The undertaking may take full account of the effect of risk-mitigation techniques in its internal model, as long as credit risk and other risks arising from the use of risk-mitigation techniques are properly reflected in the internal model.
- (10) The undertaking must accurately assess—
 - (a) the particular risks associated with financial guarantees and any contractual options in its internal model, where material; and
 - (b) the risks associated with both policy holder options and contractual options and, for that purpose, must take account of the impact that future changes in financial and non-financial conditions may have on the exercise of those options.
- (11) In its internal model, the undertaking may take account of future management actions that it would reasonably expect to carry out in specific circumstances; and in such a case, the undertaking must make allowance for the time necessary to implement such actions.
- (12) In its internal model, the undertaking must take account of all payments to policy holders and beneficiaries which it expects to make, whether or not those payments are contractually guaranteed.

Calibration standards.

- 110.(1) An insurance or reinsurance undertaking may use a different time period or risk measure than that set out in regulation 91(3) for internal modelling purposes as long as the outputs of the internal model can be used by the undertaking to calculate the Solvency Capital Requirement in a manner that provides policy holders and beneficiaries with a level of protection equivalent to that set out in regulation 91.
- (2) Where practicable, the undertaking must derive the Solvency Capital Requirement directly from the probability distribution forecast generated by its internal model, using the Value-at-Risk measure set out in regulation 91(4).
- (3) Where the undertaking cannot derive the Solvency Capital Requirement directly from the probability distribution forecast generated by its internal model, the GFSC may allow approximations to be used in the process to calculate the Solvency Capital Requirement, as long as the undertaking can demonstrate to the GFSC that policy holders are provided with a level of protection equivalent to that provided for in regulation 91.

(4) The GFSC may require the undertaking to run its internal model on relevant benchmark portfolios and using assumptions based on external rather than internal data in order to verify the calibration of the internal model and to check that its specification is in line with generally accepted market practice.

Profit and loss attribution.

- 111.(1) An insurance or reinsurance undertaking must review, at least annually, the causes and sources of profits and losses for each of its major business units.
- (2) The undertaking must demonstrate how the categorisation of risk chosen in the internal model explains the causes and sources of profits and losses.
- (3) The categorisation of risk and attribution of profits and losses must reflect the risk profile of the undertaking.

Validation standards.

- 112.(1) An insurance or reinsurance undertaking must have a regular cycle of model validation which includes—
 - (a) monitoring the performance of the internal model, reviewing the ongoing appropriateness of its specification, and testing its results against experience;
 - (b) an effective statistical process for validating the internal model which enables the undertaking to demonstrate to the GFSC that the resulting capital requirements are appropriate;
 - (c) an analysis of the stability of the internal model and, in particular, the testing of the sensitivity of the results of the internal model to changes in key underlying assumptions; and
 - (d) an assessment of the accuracy, completeness and appropriateness of the data used by the internal model.
- (2) The statistical methods applied for the purposes of sub-regulation 1(b) must test the appropriateness of the probability distribution forecast compared not only to loss experience but also to all material new data and information relating to it.

Documentation standards.

- 113.(1) An insurance or reinsurance undertaking must document the design and operational details of its internal model;
- (2) That documentation must-
 - (a) demonstrate compliance with regulations 108 to 112;
 - (b) provide a detailed outline of the theory, assumptions, and mathematical and empirical bases underlying the internal model;
 - (c) indicate any circumstances under which the internal model does not work effectively; and
 - (d) include all major changes to their internal model, as set out in regulation 103.

External models and data.

114. The use by an insurance or reinsurance undertaking of a model or data obtained from a third party does not justify exemption from any of the requirements for the internal model set out in regulations 108 to 113.

CHAPTER 4 MINIMUM CAPITAL REQUIREMENT

General provisions.

115. An insurance or reinsurance undertaking must hold eligible basic own funds to cover the Minimum Capital Requirement.

Calculation of Minimum Capital Requirement.

- 116.(1) An insurance or reinsurance undertaking must calculate the Minimum Capital Requirement in accordance with the following principles—
 - (a) it must be calculated in a clear and simple manner, and in such a way as to ensure that the calculation can be audited;
 - (b) it must correspond to an amount of eligible basic own funds below which policy holders and beneficiaries are exposed to an unacceptable level of risk if the undertaking was allowed to continue its operations;

- (c) the linear function referred to in sub-regulation (2) used to calculate the Minimum Capital Requirement must be calibrated to the Value-at-Risk of the basic own funds of the undertaking subject to a confidence level of 85% over a one-year period;
- (d) it must have an absolute floor of-
 - (i) €2,500,000 for non-life insurance undertaking, including a captive insurer, except in the case where all or some of the risks included in one of Classes 10 to 15 are covered, in which case it must be €3,700,000;
 - (ii) €3,700,000 for a life insurance undertaking, including a captive insurer;
 - (iii) €3,600,000 for a reinsurance undertaking, other than a captive reinsurer, in which case the absolute floor must be €1,200,000; or
 - (iv) the sum of the amounts set out in sub-paragraphs (i) and (ii) for insurance undertakings referred to in regulation 63(6).
- (2) Subject to sub-regulation (3), an undertaking's Minimum Capital Requirement must be calculated as a linear function of a set or sub-set of the following variables measured net of reinsurance—
 - (a) technical provisions;
 - (b) written premiums;
 - (c) capital-at-risk;
 - (d) deferred tax; and
 - (e) administrative expenses.
- (3) Without limiting sub-regulation (1)(d), the Minimum Capital Requirement must neither fall below 25% nor exceed 45% of the undertaking's Solvency Capital Requirement, calculated in accordance with Chapter 3 of Part 6. including any capital add-on imposed in accordance with regulation 39.
- (4) An undertaking must calculate the Minimum Capital Requirement at least quarterly and report the results of that calculation to the GFSC.

- (5) An undertaking is not required to calculate the Solvency Capital Requirement on a quarterly basis for the purposes of calculating the limits referred to in sub-regulation (3).
- (6) Where either of the limits referred to in sub-regulation (3) determines an undertaking's Minimum Capital Requirement, the undertaking must provide the GFSC with the necessary information to allow the GFSC properly to understand the reasons for that.

CHAPTER 5 INVESTMENTS

Prudent person principle.

- 117.(1) An insurance or reinsurance undertaking must invest all its assets in accordance with the prudent person principle, as specified in sub-regulations (2), (3) and (4).
- (2) With respect to the whole portfolio of assets—
 - (a) the undertaking must only invest in assets and instruments whose risks it can properly identify, measure, monitor, manage, control and report, and appropriately take into account in the assessment of its overall solvency needs in accordance with regulation 46(2)(a);
 - (b) all assets, in particular those covering the Minimum Capital Requirement and the Solvency Capital Requirement, must be invested in such a manner as to ensure the security, quality, liquidity and profitability of the portfolio as a whole and, in addition, the localisation of those assets must be such as to ensure their availability; and
 - (c) assets held to cover the technical provisions must also be invested in a manner appropriate to the nature and duration of the insurance and reinsurance liabilities and in the best interest of all policy holders and beneficiaries taking into account any disclosed policy objective; and
 - (d) if a conflict of interest arises, the undertaking or any entity which manages its asset portfolio, must ensure that the investment is made in the best interest of policy holders and beneficiaries.
- (3) Without limiting sub-regulation (2), with respect to assets held in respect of life insurance contracts where the investment risk is borne by the policy holders, the following provisions apply—

- (a) where the benefits provided by a contract are directly linked to the value of units in a UCITS (as defined in section 292(1) of the Act) or to the value of assets contained in an internal fund held by the undertaking, usually divided into units, the technical provisions in respect of those benefits must be represented as closely as possible by those units or, in the case where units are not established, by those assets;
- (b) where the benefits provided by a contract are directly linked to a share index or some other reference value other than those referred to in sub-regulation (a), the technical provisions in respect of those benefits must be represented as closely as possible—
 - (i) by the units deemed to represent the reference value; or
 - (ii) in the case where units are not established, by assets of appropriate security and marketability which correspond as closely as possible with those on which the particular reference value is based; and
- (c) where the benefits referred to in sub-regulations (a) and (b) include a guarantee of investment performance or some other guaranteed benefit, the assets held to cover the corresponding additional technical provisions are subject to sub-regulation (4).
- (4) Without limiting sub-regulation (2), the following provisions apply with respect to assets other than those covered by sub-regulation (3)(a) or (b)–
 - (a) the use of derivative instruments is possible so far as they contribute to a reduction of risks or facilitate efficient portfolio management;
 - (b) investment and assets which are not admitted to trading on a regulated financial market must be kept to prudent levels;
 - (c) assets must be properly diversified so as to avoid excessive reliance on any particular asset, issuer or group of entities, or geographical area and excessive accumulation of risk in the portfolio as a whole; and
 - (d) investments in assets issued by the same issuer, or by issuers belonging to the same group, must not expose the undertaking to excessive risk concentration.

Freedom of investment.

- 118.(1) Subject to sub-regulation (2), the GFSC must not—

- (a) require an insurance or reinsurance undertaking to invest in particular categories of assets; or
- (b) subject the undertaking's investment decisions or those of its investment manager to any kind of prior approval or systematic notification requirements.
- (2) The GFSC may restrict the types of assets or reference values to which policy benefits may be linked where the investment risk is borne by a policy holder who is an individual, but any such restriction must not be more restrictive than those set out in the Financial Services (UCITS) Regulations 2020.

Localisation of assets and prohibition of pledging of assets.

- 119.(1) The GFSC must not require that the assets held to cover the technical provisions related to insurance risks situated in Gibraltar are localised within Gibraltar.
- (2) The GFSC must not-
 - (a) require the localisation within Gibraltar of the assets representing the recoverables from reinsurance contracts; or
