Execution of the request for recovery.

- 35.(1) Any claim in respect of which a request for recovery in Gibraltar has been made shall be treated as if it was a claim by the Crown and the competent authority shall make use of all powers and procedures under Gibraltar law applying to such claims or, in the absence of such claims in Gibraltar, claims in relation to a similar tax or duty or to claims concerning the tax levied on personal income.

Provided that—

- (a) the obligation to grant other Member States' claims the preferences accorded to similar claims arising in Gibraltar shall apply only where agreement is reached between Gibraltar and that Member State to that effect or is otherwise provided for under the laws of Gibraltar ;

- (c) claims shall be recovered in Sterling.
- (2) The competent authority shall promptly inform the applicant authority of any action it has taken on the request for recovery.
- (3) From the date on which the recovery request is received, the competent authority shall charge interest for late payment in accordance with the provisions of the Supreme Court Act.
- (4) The competent authority may allow the debtor time to pay or authorise payment by instalments and it may charge interest in that respect. It shall subsequently inform the applicant authority of any such decision.

- (5) Without prejudice to the provisions of this Part, the competent authority shall remit to the applicant authority the amounts recovered with respect to the claim and the interest referred to in subsections (3) and (4).

Disputes.

36.(1) Any dispute concerning—

- (a) a claim or the validity of any instrument permitting enforcement, including the uniform instrument;
- (b) the validity of a notification made by the jurisdiction in which the authority requesting the recovery is situate, shall fall within the competence of the competent bodies of the jurisdiction in which the authority requesting the recovery is situate.

- (2) Where, in the course of a recovery procedure in Gibraltar, the claim, the initial instrument permitting enforcement in the applicant authority's Member State or the uniform instrument permitting enforcement in Gibraltar is contested by an interested party, the competent authority shall inform that party that he must bring such an action before the competent body of the applicant authority's Member State in accordance with the laws in force there.
- (3) Any dispute concerning the enforcement measures taken in Gibraltar or concerning the validity of a notification made by the competent authority shall be brought before the Supreme Court.
- (4) Where the competent authority has requested the recovery a claim to a requested authority and an action as referred to in subsections (1) and (2) has been brought in Gibraltar, the competent authority shall inform the requested authority thereof and shall indicate the extent to which the claim is not contested.

(5) Subject to subsection (7), where the competent authority has been informed by the applicant authority or by the interested party—

(a) that an action as referred to in subsections (1) and (2) has been brought in its Member State; and

(b) of the extent of the contested part of the claim, the competent authority shall, upon receipt of that information, suspend the enforcement procedure in Gibraltar relating to the contested part of the claim, pending the decision of the body competent in the matter.

(6) At the request of an applicant authority, or where it otherwise deems it to be necessary, the competent authority may apply for an injunction or other precautionary measure to guarantee recovery in accordance with the laws of Gibraltar.

(7) The applicant authority may send a reasoned request to the competent authority asking it to recover a contested claim or the contested part of a claim, in so far as the relevant laws, regulations and administrative practices in force in Gibraltar allow such action.

(8) The competent authority may send a reasoned request to a requested authority of the nature described in subsection (7) and where the result of contestation is subsequently favourable to the debtor, the competent authority shall be liable for reimbursing any sums recovered, together with any compensation due, in accordance with the laws in force in the requested authority's Member State.

(9) Where a mutual agreement procedure has been initiated by any of the competent authorities representing the jurisdictions involved in a claim and the outcome of the procedure may affect the claim in respect of which assistance has been requested, then, unless it concerns a case of immediate urgency because of fraud or insolvency, the recovery measures shall be suspended or stopped until that procedure has been terminated.

- (10) Where the recovery measures are suspended or stopped, subsection (6) applies.

Amendment or withdrawal of the request for recovery assistance.

37.(1) The competent authority shall forthwith inform the requested authority of any subsequent amendment to its request for recovery or of the withdrawal of its request, indicating the reasons for amendment or withdrawal.

- (2) Where an amendment of a request is caused by a decision of the competent body referred to in section 36(1), the competent authority shall communicate this decision together with a revised uniform instrument permitting enforcement in the requested Member State.

- (3) Where Article 15(2) of the Directive applies, and a request for recovery has been made to the competent authority, the competent authority shall proceed with further recovery measures on the basis of the revised instrument.

- (4) Where recovery or precautionary measures have already been taken in Gibraltar on the basis of the original uniform instrument permitting enforcement, those measures may be continued on the basis of the revised instrument, unless the amendment of the request is due to invalidity of the initial instrument permitting enforcement in the applicant authority's Member State or of the original uniform instrument permitting enforcement in Gibraltar.

- (5) Sections 34 and 36 apply in relation to a revised instrument under this section.

Request for precautionary measures.

- 38.(1) Subject to subsection (2), the competent authority shall, at the request of an applicant authority, apply for an injunction or such other precautionary measures as are necessary to ensure recovery in circumstances where—

 - (b) a claim is not yet the subject of an instrument permitting enforcement in the applicant authority's Member State,
- (2) The competent authority shall act in accordance with subsection (1) only in so far as the injunction or other precautionary measure is also possible, in a similar situation, under the national law and administrative practices of the applicant authority's Member State.

 - (5) A request for an injunction or other precautionary measures may be accompanied by other documents relating to the claim issued in the applicant authority's Member State.

Rules governing the request for precautionary measures.

- 39. Sections 32(2), 35(1) and (2), 36, and 37 apply mutatis mutandis for the purpose of giving effect to section 38.

Limits to the obligations on the competent authority.

- 40.(1) The competent authority is not obliged to grant the assistance referred to in sections 32 to 38 where recovery of the claim would, because of the situation of the debtor, create serious economic or social difficulties in Gibraltar.

- (2) The following provisions apply–
- (a) the competent authority is not obliged to grant the assistance referred to in sections 27 and 29 to 38 where the initial request for assistance pursuant to sections 27, 29, 30, 32 or 38 is made in respect of claims which are more than 5 years old, starting from the due date of the claim in the applicant authority's Member State to the date of the initial request for assistance;
 - (b) where a claim or initial instrument permitting enforcement in the applicant authority's Member State is contested, the 5-year period referred to in paragraph (a) is deemed to begin from the moment when it is established in the applicant authority's Member State that the claim or the instrument permitting enforcement may no longer be contested;
 - (c) where a postponement of the payment or instalment plan is granted by the competent bodies of the applicant authority's Member State, the 5-year period referred to in paragraph (a) is deemed to begin from the moment when the entire payment period has come to its end,
- but the competent authority is not obliged, in any event, to grant assistance in respect of claims which are more than 10 years old, counting from the due date of the claim in the applicant authority's Member State.
- (3) Assistance need not be granted where the total amount of the claims covered by this Part, for which assistance is requested, is less than EUR1500.
 - (4) The competent authority shall inform the applicant authority of the grounds for refusing a request for assistance.

Limitation periods.

- 41.(1) Questions concerning periods of limitation are governed solely by the laws in force in the jurisdiction in which the authority requesting the recovery is situate.
- (2) The following provisions apply in relation to the suspension, interruption or prolongation of the period of limitation–
- (a) any steps taken in the recovery of claims by the competent authority in pursuance of a request for assistance which have the effect of suspending, interrupting or prolonging the period of limitation according to the laws of Gibraltar shall be deemed to have the same effect in the applicant authority's Member State, provided the corresponding effect is provided for under the laws in force in the applicant authority's Member State; and
 - (b) where suspension, interruption or prolongation of the period of limitation is not possible under the laws in force in the requested jurisdiction, any steps taken in the recovery of claims pursuant to a request for assistance which, if they had been carried out in the applicant jurisdiction, would have had the effect of suspending, interrupting or prolonging the period of limitation according to the laws in force in the applicant jurisdiction, shall be deemed to have been taken in the latter jurisdiction, in so far as that effect is concerned.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not affect the right of the competent authority in the applicant jurisdiction to take measures to suspend, interrupt or prolong the period of limitation.
- (4) The authorities in the applicant and requested jurisdictions shall inform each other of any action which interrupts, suspends or prolongs the limitation period of the claim for which the recovery or precautionary measures were requested, or which may have this effect.

- (5) For the avoidance of doubt, in this section the references to applicant jurisdiction and requested jurisdiction are references respectively to the jurisdiction in which the authority requesting recovery and the authority to which a request for recovery is made.

Costs.

- 42.(1) In addition to the amounts referred to in section 35(5), the competent authority shall seek to recover from the person concerned, and retain, the costs linked to the recovery that it has incurred.
- (2) No costs shall be claimed from the applicant authority's Member State for the reimbursement of expenses arising from assistance granted pursuant to this Part, save that where, in any particular case, recovery creates a specific problem, concerns a very large amount in costs or relates to organised crime, the competent authority and the applicant authority may agree reimbursement arrangements specific to that case.
- (3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), the applicant authority remains liable to the competent authority for any costs and any losses incurred as a result of actions held to be unfounded, as far as either the substance of the claim or the validity of the instrument permitting enforcement or precautionary measures issued by the applicant authority are concerned.
