(2) If any such postal packet be posted, or tendered for conveyance by post, each postal packet contained therein may be forwarded to the addressee subject to such charges as the Director may fix in the particular case, not exceeding the total of the charges which would have been payable in respect of each of the separate postal packets contained therein if they had been posted singly without prepayment of postage.

Packing.

7. - (e) The Director may require proof to his satisfaction that an applicant for a parcel is entitled to receive it.
- (f) Where an applicant fails to prove to the satisfaction of the Director that he is entitled to receive the parcel, the parcel may be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Director may think fit.
