Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the Social Security (Insurance) Act.

Interpretation.

2. (1) In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

“beneficiary”, in relation to any benefit, means a person entitled to that benefit;

“benefit” means benefit under this Act;

“Board” means the Social Insurance Appeals Board established under section 33;

“contract of service” means any contract of service or apprenticeship, whether written or oral, and whether express or implied;

“contribution week” means a period of seven days commencing from midnight between Sunday and Monday and “contribution year” means, in relation to any person, such period of fifty-two or fifty-three contribution weeks as may be prescribed;

“Director” means the person for the time being holding or carrying out the duties of the office of Director of Labour and Social Security, or such other person as the Governor may appoint to administer the provisions of this Act;

“earnings” include any remuneration or profit derived from a gainful occupation;

“employer's contribution” means a contribution payable by a person otherwise than as an insured person;

“employed person” means a person occupied in employment being employment under a contract of service or in employment by or under the Government and includes apprentices and learners under agreement whether written or oral and whether express or implied;

“employed contributor’s employment” means any employment by virtue whereof an insured person is an employed person;

“entry into insurance” means, in relation to any person, the date on which he becomes an insured person;

“Fund” means the Social Insurance Fund established under section 29;

“Her Majesty’s dominions” includes British protectorates and protected states;

“incapable of work” means incapable of work by reason of some specific disease or bodily or mental disablement or deemed, in accordance with regulations, to be so incapable;

“insured person” means a person insured under this Act;

“pensionable age” means the age of sixty-five, in the case of a man, and sixty, in the case of a woman;

“regulations” means regulations made by the Governor under this Act;

“relevant contribution conditions”, in relation to benefit of any description, means the contribution conditions for benefit of that description;

“self-employed person” mean—

- (a) a person occupied in gainful employment in Gibraltar who is not an employed person; or
- (b) a person exercising functions in Gibraltar as an ordained minister of religion or as a member of a religious order, who is not an employed person;

(2) For the purposes of this Act the expression “child” means a person under the age of—

- (a) fifteen years; or
- (b) nineteen years and over the age of fifteen years who is receiving full time instruction at any university, college, school, or other educational establishment.

(3) For the purposes of this Act each of the following shall be treated as constituting a family, that is to say-

- (a) a man and his wife living together and any child or children living together with them who is or are either issue of theirs, his or hers, or maintained by them;
- (b) a man not having a wife or not living together with his wife and any child or children living together with him who is or are either issue of his, or maintained by him;
- (c) a woman not having a husband or not living together with her husband, and any child or children living together with her who is or are either issue of hers, or maintained by her.

Where a child could otherwise be treated as included at the same time in one family as being issue of his or her parents or either of them, and in another family as being maintained by any other person, the child shall be treated as included in that family only in which he or she can be treated as included as being issue of the parents or parent.

(4) For the purposes of this section-

- (a) "issue" means issue of the first generation;
- (b) where a child born before the marriage of the child's parents has been legitimated by virtue of the subsequent marriage of the parents, the child shall be deemed to be issue of the marriage;
- (c) an adopted child within the meaning of the Adoption Act shall be treated as if the child were legitimate issue of the adopter, or, if the child was adopted by two spouses jointly, or by one of two spouses after their marriage, as if the child were legitimate issue of their marriage, and shall not be treated as being issue of any other person;
- (d) an illegitimate child shall not be treated as being issue of the child's father;
- (e) references to the parents, a parent, the father or the mother of a child, or to an illegitimate child shall be construed in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this subsection.

(5) For the purposes of this Act, two persons shall not be deemed to have ceased to reside together by reason of any temporary absence of either or both of them, and in particular by reason of any such absence at school or while receiving medical treatment as an in-patient in a hospital or similar institution.

(6) For the purposes of this Act –

- (a) a person shall be deemed to be over or under any age therein mentioned if he has or has not attained that age;
- (b) a person shall be deemed to be between two ages therein mentioned if he has attained the first-mentioned age but has not attained the second-mentioned age;
- (c) a person shall be deemed not to have attained the age of twenty years until the commencement of the twentieth anniversary of the day of his birth, and similarly with respect to any other age;
- (d) regulations may provide that, for the purpose of determining whether a contribution is payable in respect of any person, or at what rate a contribution is payable, that person shall be treated as having attained at the beginning of a contribution week, or as not having attained until the end of a contribution week, any age which he attains during the course of that week.

(7) For the purpose of this Act, the amount of a person's earnings for any period, and the rate of a person's remuneration, shall be calculated or estimated in such manner and on such basis as may be prescribed.

PART I.

INSURED PERSONS AND CONTRIBUTIONS.

Description of insured persons.

3. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, every person who on or after the 6th day of January, 1975, is–

- (a) under pensionable age; and
- (b) either self-employed or in insurable employment under the Social Security (Employment Injuries Insurance) Act, shall be insured under this Act and shall thereafter continue throughout his life to be so insured.

(2) Provision may be made by regulations for modifying the application of this Act to persons who are insured under the provisions of the United Kingdom's Social Security Act, 1975.

(3) Provision may be made by regulations for modifying the application of this Act in relation to cases where it appears to the Governor desirable by reason of the nature or circumstances of a person's employment or otherwise, and such regulations may in particular provide—

- (a) for disregarding employment which is of a casual or subsidiary nature or in which the insured person is engaged only to an inconsiderable extent;
- (b) for treating a person's employment as continuing during periods of holiday, unemployment or incapacity for work and in such other circumstances as may be prescribed.

(4) Repealed.

3A, 3B and 3C. Omitted.

Source of funds.

4.(1) For the purpose of providing the funds required for paying benefit, and for making any other payments which under this Act are to be made out of the Fund established under this Act, contributions shall be payable by self-employed persons, employed persons and by employers in accordance with the following provisions of this section.

- (a) Every employed person of the classes set out in the first column of Part I of Schedule 1 and every employer of such person shall be liable to pay weekly contributions at the respective rates set out in the second and third columns of that Part.
- (b) Every self-employed person of the classes set out in the first column of Part II of Schedule 1 shall be liable to pay weekly contributions at the rates set out in the second column of that Part.

(3) Regulations may provide that where an insured person ceases to be a self-employed person or an employed person at a time when he satisfies such other conditions as may be prescribed, he may elect to pay such contributions as may be prescribed.

This version is out of date

(4) Subject to the provisions of this Act and of any regulations, no person shall be entitled to pay any contribution thereunder other than a contribution which he is liable to pay.

(5) An employer or insured person who fails to pay any contribution which he is liable under this Act to pay, is guilty of an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of £50.

Number and class of contribution for any week.

5.(1) A person shall not be liable to pay more than one contribution as an insured person for any contribution week, and not more than one employer's contribution shall be payable in respect of any person for any contribution week.

(2) Where, as respects any employed contributor's employment—

- (a) no services are rendered by an employed person in any contribution week; and
- (b) no remuneration is paid wholly or partly in respect of any day in that week other than a day on which he either—
 - (i) is incapable of work and would but for the incapacity have been working; or
 - (ii) does not work in a normal week, then that employment shall, in relation to that week, be disregarded for the purposes of the foregoing provisions of this section; and regulations may provide, as respects any period during which no services are rendered by an employed person, that for the purposes of this subsection any payments which he receives or is entitled (whether conditionally or not) to receive in any prescribed circumstances are or are not to be deemed to be remuneration paid in respect of any day in that period.

(3) Regulations may provide for disregarding for the purposes of this section any employment in which a person engages or continues to be engaged solely or mainly for the purpose of acquiring or preserving a right or a larger right to benefit.

Crediting of contributions.

6. Regulations may provide for crediting contributions to insured persons for—

- (a) periods of unemployment or of incapacity for work;
- (b) periods of full-time education or of full-time unpaid apprenticeship;
- (c) the period between the beginning of the contribution year last preceding that in which they became insured persons and their entry into insurance; and
- (d) such other periods as may be prescribed.

Contributions of employed persons and employers.

7.(1) Except where regulations otherwise prescribe, an employer liable to pay a contribution in respect of a person employed by him shall, in the first instance, be liable to pay also, on behalf of and to the exclusion of that person any contribution as an insured person payable by that person for the same contribution week, and for the purposes of this Act contributions paid by an employer on behalf of an insured person shall be deemed to be contributions by the insured person.

(2) Notwithstanding any contract to the contrary, an employer shall not be entitled to deduct from the wages or other remuneration of a person employed by him, or otherwise to recover from such a person, the employer's contribution in respect of that person; and an employer who deducts or attempts to deduct the whole or any part of the employer's contribution in respect of any person from his wages or other remuneration is guilty of an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of £25.

(3) An employer shall be entitled, subject to and in accordance with regulations, to recover from an insured person the amount of any contribution paid or to be paid by him on behalf of that person, and, notwithstanding anything in any enactment, regulations under this subsection may authorize recovery by deductions from the insured person's wages or remuneration:

Provided that any such regulations shall provide that—

- (a) where the insured person does not receive any wages or other pecuniary remuneration in respect of an employed contributor's employment either from the employer or from any other person, the employer shall not be entitled to recover the amount of any such contribution from him; and

This version is out of date

- (b) where the insured person does receive any such wages or remuneration from the employer, the employer shall not be entitled to recover any such contribution otherwise than by deductions from the wages or remuneration.

General provisions as to payment and collection of contributions, etc.

8.(1) Regulations may provide—

- (a) for any matters incidental to the payment and collection of contributions under this Act, including the co-ordination thereof with the payment and collection of contributions under the Social Security (Employment Injuries Insurance) Act, and the modification in that behalf of that Act;
- (b) for treating, for the purpose of any right to benefit, contributions paid after the due dates as paid on those dates or on such later dates as may be prescribed, or as not having been paid and for treating, for the purpose aforesaid, contributions payable by an employer on behalf of an insured person, but not paid, as paid where the failure to pay is shown not to have been with the consent or connivance of, or attributable to any negligence on the part of, the insured person;
- (c) for treating contributions of the wrong class or at the wrong rate as paid on account of the contributions properly payable or on account of contributions under the Social Security (Employment Injuries Insurance) Act, and for treating contributions under that Act which were not payable as paid on account of contributions under this Act, notwithstanding anything in that Act;
- (d) for the return of contributions under this Act paid in error;
- (e) (without prejudice to any other remedy) for the recovery, on prosecutions brought under or by virtue of this Act, of contributions under this Act or under the Social Security (Employment Injuries Insurance) Act.

(2) Where under regulations made by virtue of subsection (1) contributions under this Act, with or without contributions under the Social Security (Employment Injuries Insurance) Act, are payable by means of adhesive stamps, those stamps (hereafter in this Act referred to as "insurance stamps") shall be prepared and issued in such manner as the Governor may direct; and the Governor may provide for the sale of insurance stamps through any post office.

(3) Regulations made by virtue of this section providing for the payment of contributions, at the option of the persons liable to pay, either-

- (a) by means of insurance stamps; or
- (b) by some alternative method, the use of which involves greater expense in administration to the Government departments concerned than would be incurred if the contributions were paid by means of insurance stamps, may include provision for the payment to the Director by any person who adopts any alternative method; and for the recovery by the Director, of the prescribed fees in respect of the difference in the expense in administration.

Persons to be treated as employers.

9.(1) In relation to persons who—

- (a) are employed by more than one employer in any contribution week; or
- (b) work under the general control or management of some person other than their immediate employer, and in relation to any other cases for which it appears to the Governor that special provision is needed, regulations may provide that for the purposes of this Act the prescribed person shall be treated as their employer; and regulations made by virtue of paragraph (b) may provide for adjusting the rights between themselves of the person prescribed as the employer, the immediate employer and the persons employed.

(2) References in this Act to a person's employer shall not be construed as including his employer in any employment other than one which is an employed contributor's employment (or, in the case of a person who is not, but would if he were under pensionable age be, an insured person, an employment which would be an employed contributor's employment in his case if he were under that age).

PART II.—BENEFIT.

Preliminary.

10. Descriptions and rates of benefit and contribution conditions.

(1) Benefit shall be of the following descriptions:—

This version is out of date

- (a) maternity grants;
 - (b) widow's benefit, which shall include widow's allowance, widowed mother's allowance and widow's pension;
 - (c) guardian's allowance;
 - (d) old age pension;
 - (e) death grant;
 - (f) widower's pension.
- (2) Subject to the provisions of this Act-
- (a) the weekly rates of the several descriptions of benefit, other than grants, shall be set out in the second columns of Part I and III of Schedule 2 and the amount of a maternity grant or a death grant shall be as set out in the second columns of Parts II and IV of that Schedule; and
 - (b) the contribution conditions for the several descriptions of benefit set out in Parts I and Part II of Schedule 2 shall be as set out in Part I of Schedule 3; and
 - (c) the additional contribution conditions for the several descriptions of benefit set out in Parts III Part IV of Schedule 2 shall be as set out in Part II of Schedule 3.
- (3) Subject to the provisions of this Act, any reference therein to the yearly average of the contributions paid by or credited to any person shall be construed as referring to contributions as an insured person only, and to that average (calculated in the prescribed manner) over the period--
- (a) beginning with the contribution year in which he attained the age of twenty; and
 - (b) ending with the end of the last complete contribution year before the date as at which the average is to be ascertained.

Residence or contribution conditions for increased rates of benefit.

10A.(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, where a person entitled to a benefit at any of the rates specified in-

This version is out of date

- (a) the second column of Part I, II, III, IV of Schedule 2;
- (b) the third column of Part I or III of Schedule 2; or
- (c) the Fourth column of Part I or III of Schedule 2, has, or the person on whose insurance record title to such benefit is established has, for at least one hundred and four weeks in the aggregate since the 2nd day of July, 1970, been—

- (i) ordinarily resident in Gibraltar; or
- (ii) insured under this Act in a self-employed person's or an employed person's capacity, he shall be entitled to receive benefit at the rates as set out in the corresponding columns of Part V or VI of Schedule 2 in lieu of the rates as set out in Parts I, II, III and IV.

(2) Any person who has on the date of entitlement to a benefit established a right to an increased rate of benefit under subsection (1) shall not lose such right by reason of ceasing to reside in Gibraltar at any time thereafter.

Maternity Grant.

Maternity Grant.

11.(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, a woman shall be entitled to a maternity grant if—

- (a) she has been confined; and
- (b) she or her husband satisfies the relevant contribution conditions;

Provided that she shall not be entitled to a maternity grant by virtue of both of her own and of her husband's insurance.

(2) Except where regulations otherwise provide, a woman shall not be entitled to a maternity grant in respect of a confinement if on the date of the confinement she is outside Gibraltar or the Campo district.

(3) A woman confined of twins or a greater number of children shall, if the other conditions for payment of a maternity grant are satisfied in respect of the confinement, be entitled to a maternity grant for each of them.

This version is out of date

(4) Regulations may modify the provisions of this section with a view to making the grant payable, if the woman's claim indicates that she so desires, by virtue of a certificate that it is to be expected that she will be confined.

(5) For the purposes of this section the expression "husband" includes a widow's late husband, where the benefit is claimed in respect of a posthumous son or daughter of his.

Supplemental provisions as to maternity grants.

12. For the purpose of the provisions of this Act relating to maternity grant—

- (a) the expression "confinement" means labour resulting in the issue of a living child, or labour after twenty-eight weeks of pregnancy resulting in the issue of a child whether alive or dead, and the expression "confined" shall be construed accordingly;
- (b) references to the date of the confinement shall be taken as referring, where labour begun on one day results in the issue of a child on another day, to the date of the issue of the child or, if the woman is confined of twins or a greater number of children, to the date of issue of the last of them.

Widow's Benefit.

Widow's Benefit.

13.(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, a widow shall be entitled to widow's benefit if the husband satisfied the relevant contribution conditions, and —

- (a) in the case of a widow's allowance, if at the husband's death either he was not entitled to an old age pension or she was under pensionable age;
- (b) in the case of a widowed mother's allowance, if the widow has a family which includes a child who, or children one of whom, either was at the husband's death a child of his family or is a son or daughter of theirs;
- (c) in the case of a widow's pension, if (subject to section 14) at the husband's death he and the widow had been married for not less than one year and she was over the age of forty but under pensionable age.

- (2) The period for which widow's benefit is payable to a widow shall be-
- (a) in the case of a widow's allowance, the thirteen weeks next following the husband's death;
 - (b) in the case of a widowed mother's allowance, any period during which she has such a family as aforesaid and for which she is not entitled to a widow's allowance; and
 - (c) in the case of a widow's pension, any period during which she is under pensionable age and for which she is not entitled to widow's allowance or widowed mother's allowance:

Provided that the benefit shall not be payable for any period after her death or remarriage or for any period during which she is cohabiting with a man as his wife.

(3) In this section the expression "the husband", in relation to a woman who has been married more than once, refers only to her last husband.

Widows' pensions in special cases.

14.(1) Where a widow, in relation to whom the conditions for a widow's pension contained in paragraph (c) of section 13(1) are not satisfied, ceases to be entitled to a widowed mother's allowance at a time when-

- (a) she is over the age of forty but under pensionable age; and
- (b) one year has elapsed since the date of the marriage in respect of which the allowance is payable,

she shall for any subsequent period have the same right (if any) to a widow's pension in respect of that marriage as if such conditions were satisfied.

(2) Where a widow, in relation to whom neither the conditions for a widow's pension nor the alternative conditions contained in subsection (1) are satisfied, ceases to be entitled to a widow's allowance or to a widowed mother's allowance at a time when she is pregnant by her late husband, she shall, for the remainder of the period of that pregnancy, have the same right (if any) to a widow's pension in respect of her marriage to the husband as if the said conditions were satisfied.

(3) Regulations may provide that, where a widow, in relation to whom neither the conditions for a widow's pension nor the alternative conditions contained in subsection (1) are satisfied, would but for the regulations cease to be entitled to widow's benefit at a time when she is by reason of any infirmity incapable of self-support and is under pensionable age, she shall, for any subsequent period during which she is incapable of self-support by reason of that infirmity have the same right (if any) to a widow's pension in respect of the marriage in respect of which she was entitled to a widow's benefit as if the said conditions were satisfied.

(4) Where a widow is entitled to a widow's pension by virtue of subsection (3) but ceases to be so entitled at a time when-

- (a) she is over the age of forty but under pensionable age; and
- (b) one year has elapsed since the date of the marriage in respect of which the pension is payable,

she shall, for any subsequent period have the same right (if any) to a widow's pension in respect of that marriage as if she had attained the age of forty and one year had elapsed before the husband's death.

(5) Where a widow has been married more than once, regulations may relax, for the purpose of her right to a widow's pension in respect of her last marriage, the conditions as to the duration of that marriage contained in section 13(1)(c) (or, in a case to which instead of that condition the alternative condition contained in paragraph (b) of subsection (1) or (4) of this section applies, the alternative condition).

Widower's pension.

14A.(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act a widower shall be entitled to a widower's pension if his wife satisfied the relevant contribution conditions, and-

- (a) he is and has been permanently incapable of self-support for not less than ten years and has been wholly or mainly maintained by her during this time; and
- (b) he is under pensionable age:

Provided that the pension shall not be payable for any period after his death or remarriage or for any period during which he is cohabiting with a woman as her husband.

(2) In this section the expression "wife" in relation to a man who has been married more than once, refers only to his last wife.

Guardian's Allowance.

Guardian's Allowance.

15.(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, a person shall be entitled to a guardian's allowance in respect of any child who is for the time being a child of his family, if-

- (a) the parents of the child are dead; and
- (b) the relevant contribution conditions are satisfied:

Provided that regulations may modify paragraphs (a) and (b) in relation to cases-

- (i) where a child has been adopted. or is illegitimate; or
- (ii) where the marriage of a child's parents was terminated by divorce, or the child's parents or one of them cannot be traced.

(2) In the case of a child who is a child of the family of a man and his wife, the wife only shall be entitled to a guardian's allowance.

(3) In this section the expression "parent" includes a step-parent.

Old Age Pensions.

Old Age Pensions.

16.(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, a person shall be entitled to an old age pension if-

- (a) he is over pensionable age; and
- (b) he satisfies the relevant contribution conditions.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act, an old age pension shall be payable from the date at which the insured person becomes entitled thereto and shall be payable from that date for life.

Special provisions as to men.

16A.(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, a man who is over pensionable age shall be entitled to an old age pension by virtue of the insurance of his wife, being a wife-

This version is out of date

- (a) to whom he is married at the time when he attains that age; or
- (b) in respect of whose death he was immediately before attaining that age entitled to widower's pension; or
- (c) whom he has married after attaining that age-

if the following conditions are satisfied, that is to say:-

- (i) either that she is over pensionable age or that she is dead;
and
- (ii) that she satisfies the relevant contribution conditions;
and
- (iii) in a case where he has married the wife after he has attained pensionable age, such further conditions as may be prescribed:

Provided that any man who immediately before attaining pensionable age he established title to a widower's pension under section 14A(1) shall on attaining pensionable age be entitled to an old age pension at the equivalent rate of his widower's pension entitlement, notwithstanding that his deceased wife had not satisfied the relevant contribution conditions in respect of such an old age pension.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act, an old age pension payable to a man by virtue of his wife's insurance shall commence from the date on which the provisions of subsection (1) of this section are satisfied in relation to the pension and shall be payable for life:

Provided that, if a widower entitled to an old age pension by virtue of his wife's insurance remarries, the pension shall not be payable for any subsequent period.

(3) A man shall not be entitled for the same period to more than one old age pension, but if he would be so entitled but for this provision may, on such occasions and in such manner as may be prescribed, choose which he shall be entitled to.

(4) Where immediately before attaining pensionable age a man is a widower not entitled to widower's benefit, he may elect that, in calculating for the purpose of his right to an old age pension by virtue of his own insurance the yearly average or the contributions paid by or credited to him, there shall be treated as so paid or credited either-

This version is out of date

- (a) for each contribution year falling wholly or partly before his wife's death; or
- (b) for each contribution year falling wholly or partly during the period of their marriage, a number of contributions equal to the yearly average (ascertained as at the date of her attaining pensionable age or dying under that age) of the contributions paid by or credited to her, instead of the number of contributions actually paid by or credited to him for that year.

Special provisions as to women.

17.(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, a woman over pensionable age shall be entitled to an old age pension by virtue of the insurance of her husband, being a husband-

- (a) to whom she is married at the time when she attains that age; or
- (b) in respect of whose death she was immediately before attaining that age entitled to widow's benefit; or
- (c) whom she has married after attaining that age, if the following conditions are satisfied, that is to say:-
 - (i) either that he is over pensionable age or that he is dead; and
 - (ii) that he satisfies the relevant contribution conditions; and
 - (iii) in a case where she has married the husband after she has attained pensionable age, such further conditions as may be prescribed:

Provided that any woman who immediately before attaining pensionable age had established title to a widow's pension under section 13(1) shall on attaining pensionable age be entitled to an old age pension at the equivalent rate of her widow's pension entitlement, notwithstanding that her deceased husband had not satisfied the relevant contribution conditions in respect of such an old age pension.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act, an old age pension payable to a woman by virtue of her husband's insurance shall commence from the date on which the provisions of subsection (1) are satisfied in relation to the pension and shall be payable for life:

This version is out of date

Provided that, if a widow entitled to an old age pension by virtue of her late husband's insurance remarries, the pension shall not be payable for any subsequent period.

(3) A woman shall not be entitled for the same period to more than one old age pension, but if she would be so entitled but for this provision may, on such occasions and in such manner as may be prescribed, choose which she shall be entitled to.

(4) Where immediately before attaining pensionable age a woman is a widow not entitled to widow's benefit, she may elect that, in calculating for the purpose of her right to an old age pension by virtue of her own insurance the yearly average of the contributions paid by or credited to her, there shall be treated as so paid or credited either-

- (a) for each contribution year falling wholly or partly before her husband's death; or
- (b) for each contribution year falling wholly or partly during the period of their marriage, a number of contributions equal to the yearly average (ascertained as at the date of his attaining pensionable age or dying under that age) of the contributions paid by or credited to him, instead of the number of contributions actually paid by or credited to her for that year.

Death grant.

Death grant.

18.(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, a person shall be entitled to a death grant in respect of the death of any person (hereinafter in this section referred to as "the deceased") if-

- (a) he has reasonably incurred or reasonably intends to incur, in connection with the deceased's death, expenses to which this section applies; and
- (b) the deceased either himself satisfied the relevant contribution conditions, or was at death the husband, wife, widower, widow or a child of the family, of a person satisfying those conditions, or a child who-
 - (i) had, immediately before the death of some person satisfying those conditions, been a child of the family of that other person; or

- (ii) was a posthumous son or daughter of a man satisfying those conditions.

(2) The expenses to which this section applies are any expenses, of an appreciable amount, in connection with the funeral of the deceased, or with the claimant's attendance thereat, or with the attendance thereat of other persons, or with the purchase of mourning; and for the purposes of this subsection—

- (a) the expression “funeral” includes any memorial service or similar observance; and
- (b) references to expenses in connection with attendance at a funeral include references to any loss of remunerative time due to the attendance.

(3) Except where regulations otherwise provide, a death grant shall not be payable in respect of a death occurring outside Gibraltar or the Campo district.

(4) A death grant shall not be payable to any body corporate or to any unincorporated association of persons, or to any person in respect of expenses incurred as a member of or on behalf of any such body or association.

(5) The cost, to such amount as may be prescribed, of the burial or cremation of any person by or under the direction of the Director of Medical and Health Services or by or under the direction of any such other association of persons as may be approved by the Governor may be paid into the Consolidated Fund or to the association out of the Social Insurance Fund if—

- (a) the conditions for the payment of a death grant in respect of the said person's death are satisfied so far as relates to subsection (1)(b) and subsection (3); and
- (b) no such death grant has been paid, and where any sum is paid under this subsection in respect of any person's burial or cremation any death grant subsequently paid in respect of his death shall be reduced by the amount of that sum.

(6) Not more than one person shall be entitled to a death grant in respect of the same death; and regulations may make provision—

This version is out of date

- (a) as to the priority of two or more claimants satisfying the conditions for receipt of the grant in respect of the same death; and
- (b) for suspending proceedings on any claim where there is reason to suppose that another claim may be or may have been made in respect of the same death by a person having a prior right by virtue of the foregoing paragraph.

Additional rights to benefit.

Increase of benefit for children.

19.(1) Subject in the case of an old age pension to the following provisions of this section, the weekly rate of an old age pension, a widower's pension, a widow's allowance, or a widowed mother's allowance shall, for any period for which the beneficiary has a family which includes a child or children, be increased in respect of such child or children by the amount set out in the fourth column of Pans I and III of Schedule 2:

Provided that increases for children at the rates set out in the fourth column of Part III of Schedule 2 shall become payable from the date from which title to benefit at the rates set out in that Part of that Schedule, partial or otherwise, is established.

(2) Where the beneficiary is a man, a child of the family of any woman for the time being residing with him shall be treated for the purposes of this section as a child of his family if the child-

- (a) is an illegitimate son or daughter of theirs; or
- (b) was born not less than six months before the day for which benefit is claimed and was wholly or mainly maintained by the beneficiary throughout the six months ending immediately before that day.

(3) In the case of an old age pension-

- (a) where a man and his wife are both entitled to a pension by virtue of either his or her insurance, they shall not both be entitled for the same period to an increase under this section in respect of the same child or to increase in respect of more than four children;

- (b) for any reference in subsection (2) to the day for which benefit is claimed there shall be substituted a reference to pensionable age.

(4) Where, but for subsection (3)(a), a man and his wife would both be entitled to an increase of an old age pension under this section, regulations may make provision as to their priority.

Increase of old age pension.

20. Subject to the provisions of this Act the weekly rate of an old age pension shall be increased by the amount set out in the third column of Parts I, III and V of Schedule 2 for any period during which the beneficiary-

- (a) if a man is residing with or is wholly or mainly maintaining his wife who is not over pensionable age and who is not engaged in any gainful occupation from which her weekly earnings exceed £19.30; or
- (b) if a woman, is residing with and is and has been for not less than ten years wholly or mainly maintaining her husband who is not over pensionable age and who is and has been during this period permanently incapable of self-support.

Partial satisfaction of contribution conditions.

21.(1) Subject to the provisions of this section, regulations may provide for entitling to maternity grant, widow's benefit, a widower's pension, an old age pension or a death grant persons who would be entitled thereto but for the fact that the relevant contribution conditions are not satisfied as respects the total number of contributions paid or credited, the number of contributions paid or credited in a contribution year, the number of contributions paid at a particular rate or the yearly average of contributions paid or credited.

(2) Regulations under this section shall provide that benefit payable by virtue of any such regulations shall be payable at a rate, or shall be of an amount, less than that specified in Schedule 2, and the rate or amount prescribed by the regulations may vary with the extent to which the contribution conditions are satisfied:

Provided that the amount of any increase of benefit in respect of a child shall be the same as if the relevant contribution conditions had been fully satisfied.

Miscellaneous provisions as to benefit.

Claims and notices.

22.(1) Subject to the provisions of subsections (3) and (4), it shall be a condition of any person's right to any benefit that he makes a claim therefor in the prescribed manner.

(2) Regulations may provide for disqualifying a person (subject to the provisions of subsection (3)) for the receipt of any benefit if he fails to make his claim therefor within the prescribed time:

Provided that any such regulations shall provide for extending, subject to any prescribed conditions, the time within which the claim may be made in cases where good cause is shown for delay.

(3) Nothing in the foregoing provisions of this section relating to the making of claims shall affect any right of a widow to an old age pension by virtue of the insurance of her husband in respect of whose death she was immediately before attaining pensionable age entitled to widow's benefit or the corresponding right of a widower to an old age pension in such circumstances

(4) Any claim for any benefit under this Act may be treated—

- (a) for the purposes of this section as a claim, in the alternative, for such other benefit thereunder as may be prescribed; or
- (b) for the purposes of the Social Security (Employment Injuries Insurance) Act, as a claim, in the alternative, for such benefit under that Act as may be prescribed, and any claim for benefit under the Social Security (Employment Injuries Insurance) Act, may be treated for the purposes of this section as a claim, in the alternative, for such benefit under this Act as may be prescribed.

(5) For the purposes of this Part any claim or notice made or sent by post shall be deemed to have been made or given on the day on which it was posted.

Disqualification or suspension for absence abroad or imprisonment.

23.(1) Except where regulations otherwise provide, a person shall be disqualified for receiving any benefit, and an increase of benefit shall not be payable in respect of any person as the beneficiary's wife or husband, for any period during which that person—

- (a) is absent from Gibraltar or the Campo district; or
- (b) is undergoing imprisonment or detention in legal custody.

(2) Regulations may provide for the suspension of payment to or in respect of any person during any such period as aforesaid of benefit which is excepted from the operation of subsection (1) or which is payable otherwise than in respect of that period.

Overlapping benefits, etc.

24.(1) Regulations may provide-

- (a) for adjusting benefit payable to or in respect of any person, or the conditions for the receipt thereof where-
 - (i) any pension or allowance payable out of any public funds including any other benefit under this Act (whether of the same or a different description), is payable to or in respect of that person or his wife or her husband; or
 - (ii) that person is undergoing medical or other treatment as an in-patient in a hospital or similar institution;
- (b) for suspending payment of benefit to a person during any period during which he is undergoing medical or other treatment as aforesaid;
- (c) for treating as reduced by the prescribed amount any arrears of benefit payable to or in respect of any person for a period in respect of which there has been granted to or on account of that person by the Director, public assistance of an amount equal to the reduction and for the payment to the Consolidated Fund out of the Fund of an amount equal to the reduction.

(2) Where but for regulations made by virtue of paragraph (a) of subsection (1), two persons would be entitled to an increase of benefit in respect of a third person, regulations may make provisions as to their priority.

Disqualifications, etc., to be disregarded for certain purposes.

25. Regulations may provide that a person who would be entitled to any benefit but for the operation of either section 23 or 24 or of any other provision of this Act disqualifying him for the receipt of that benefit shall be treated as if entitled thereto for the purpose of any rights or obligations under this Part (whether of himself or any other person) which depend on his being so entitled, other than the right to payment of that benefit.

This version is out of date

Benefit to be inalienable.

26. Subject to the provisions of this Act, every assignment of, or charge on, benefit, and every agreement to assign or charge benefit shall be void, and on the bankruptcy of a beneficiary, the benefit shall not pass to any trustee or other person acting on behalf of his creditors.

Supplementary.

Proceedings by employees for benefit lost by employer's default.

27.(1) Where an employer has failed or neglected—

- (a) to pay any contributions which under this Act he is liable to pay on behalf of any employed person in his employment; or
- (b) to comply, in relation to any such person, with the requirements of any regulations relating to the payment and collection of contributions, and by reason thereof that person has lost, in whole or in part, any maternity grant to which she would have been entitled, that person shall be entitled to recover summarily from the employer as a civil debt a sum equal to the amount of the grant so lost.

(2) Where the employed person is a man, his wife or widow shall have the same right to recover under subsection (1) in respect of maternity grant lost by her as if the employer's failure or neglect had been in respect of her.

(3) Proceedings may be taken under this section notwithstanding that proceedings have been taken under any other provision of this Act in respect of the same failure or neglect.

(4) Proceedings under this section may, notwithstanding any enactment to the contrary, be brought at any time within one year after the date on which the employed person or his wife or widow, but for the failure or neglect of the employer, would have been entitled to receive the benefit lost.

Provisions as to maintenance and incapacity for self-support.

28.(1) Regulations may provide for determining the circumstances in which a person is or is not to be deemed for the purposes of this Part, to be wholly or mainly maintaining another person.

(2) Regulations under subsection (1) may provide, for the purpose of the provisions relating to an increase of benefit in respect of a husband, wife or other adult dependant, that where-

- (a) a person is partly maintained by each of two or more beneficiaries, each of whom would be entitled to such an increase in respect of that person if he were wholly or mainly maintaining that person; and
- (b) the contributions made by those two or more beneficiaries towards the maintenance of the person amount in the aggregate to sums which would, if they had been contributed by one of those beneficiaries, be sufficient to satisfy the requirements of regulations made by virtue of subsection (1), that person shall be deemed for the purpose of those provisions to be wholly or mainly maintained by such of those beneficiaries as may be prescribed.

(3) For the purposes of this Act, a person shall be deemed to be incapable of self-support if he is incapable of supporting himself by reason of physical or mental infirmity and is likely to remain so incapable for a prolonged period.

PART III.—FINANCE, ADMINISTRATION AND LEGAL PROCEEDINGS.

Finance.

Social insurance Fund.

29.(1) For the purpose of this Act, there shall be established, under the control and management of the Director, a fund called “the Social Insurance Fund,” into which shall be paid all contributions payable under this Act by employers and insured persons and out of which shall be paid all claims for benefit under this Act or for unemployment benefit under the Social Security (Non-Contributory Benefits and Unemployment Insurance) Act, including, notwithstanding the provisions of section 5 of the European Communities Act, claims for such benefits payable by reason of Gibraltar’s obligations under the Regulations of the Council of the European Communities on the application of social security schemes to employed persons and their families moving within the Community and, subject to the provisions of subsection (5) of this section, all expenses incurred with the administration of this Act.

This version is out of date

(2) If at any time the balance to the credit of the Fund be insufficient to meet wholly or in part the payments chargeable to the Fund, such balance shall be supplemented by temporary advances from the Consolidated Fund.

(3) Accounts of the Fund shall be prepared in such form, in such manner and at such times as the Financial and Development Secretary may direct, and the Principal Auditor shall examine and certify every such account.

(4) Any moneys forming part of the Fund may from time to time be invested, in accordance with such directions as may be given by the Financial and Development Secretary and any interest received from such investments shall be credited to the Fund.

(5) Revoked.

(6) Revoked.

Report by actuary.

30. As soon as may be after the 31st day of December of every successive fifth year a report to the Director shall be made by an actuary appointed by the Governor on the financial condition of the Fund and on the adequacy or otherwise of the contributions payable under this Act to support the benefits payable thereunder having regard to the liabilities of the Fund:

Provided that the Governor may at any time direct that the period to be covered by any report under this subsection shall be reduced to some lesser period than five years, not being less than one year.

Administration.

Social Insurance Advisory committee.

31.(1) There shall be constituted a committee, to be called “the Social Insurance Advisory Committee,” to give advice and assistance to the Director in connection with the discharge of his functions under this Act and to perform any other duties allotted to them under this Act.

(2) The provisions of Schedule 4 shall have effect with respect to the constitution of the Committee and other matters relating to the Committee.

(3) The Director may from time to time refer to the Committee for consideration and advice such questions relating to the operation of this Act as he thinks fit (including questions as to the advisability of amending this Act).

(4) The Director shall furnish the Committee with such information as they may reasonably require for the proper discharge of their functions under this Act.

Determination of claims and questions by Director.

32.(1) All questions and claims arising under this Act shall be determined by the Director:

Provided that any question of law arising in connection with such determination may, if the Director thinks fit, at the instance of the Attorney-General, be referred for decision to the Supreme Court.

(2) References and appeals to the Supreme Court under this Act shall be governed by rules of court and such rules shall provide for limiting the time within which appeals may be brought.

(3) The Director shall be entitled to appear and be heard on any such reference.

Constitution of Appeal Board.

33.(1) There shall be established a Social Insurance Appeals Board for the purpose of hearing and determining appeals under this Act.

(2) The Board shall consist of the following members appointed by the Governor:—

- (a) a person entitled to practice in Gibraltar as a legal practitioner, who shall be chairman;
- (b) a person deemed to be representative of the interests of insured persons; and
- (c) a person deemed to be representative of the interests of employers of insured persons.

(3) The Governor may also appoint supplementary members of the Board having the respective qualifications prescribed in subsection (2) to surrogate the chairman or other member of the Board as occasion may require.

(4) The Board shall not be competent to decide any question or appeal unless all members are present and give their opinion thereon.

This version is out of date

(5) Subject to any regulation in that behalf the Board may regulate its proceedings in such manner as it thinks fit.

(6) The Governor shall appoint a secretary to the Board.

Appeals to the Board.

34.(1) Any person aggrieved by the decision of the Director on any question or claim may appeal to the Board.

(2) Where any person desires to appeal to the Board he shall give notice of appeal, setting out his grounds of appeal, to the secretary to the Board within eight days of the date of the communication to him of the decision.

(3) The Board or Director may, if they think that the interests of justice so require, extend the time for appealing notwithstanding that the time for appealing has elapsed.

(4) The Director or his representative shall be entitled to appear and be heard on any appeal.

(5) On an appeal the Board may give such directions and make such decisions in the matter as it shall think proper, including directions as to the costs of the appeal.

(6) Subject to the provisions of section 35 a decision of the Board shall be final and not subject to appeal.

(7) The Board shall have power to take expert advice when necessary at its discretion, and to summon any person to appear before it to give evidence on oath or to produce documents and for these purposes the Board shall have all the powers of the magistrates' court. Every summons shall be signed by the chairman and may be served either personally or by registered post, and in the latter case, in proving service, it shall be sufficient to prove that the summons was properly addressed and posted.

Appeal to Supreme Court.

35.(1) Any person aggrieved by the decision of the Board on any question of law or on any question of mixed fact and law may appeal to the Supreme Court.

(2) On an appeal the Supreme Court may give such directions and make such decisions in the matter as it thinks proper, including directions as to the costs of the appeal.

(3) The Board shall be entitled to appear and be heard on any appeal, either by counsel or in person by any member of the Board.

Review.

36. Any decision of the Director, Supreme Court or Board may be reviewed at any time by the Director, Supreme Court or Board, as the case may be, if—

- (a) it can be proved that the decision was given in ignorance of, or was based on a mistake as to some material fact; or
- (b) there has been any relevant change of circumstances:

Provided that a decision shall not be reviewed while an appeal is pending against the decision of the Director, or the Board, or before the time for lodging such appeal has expired, and the proviso to section 32(1) shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to such review by the Director.

Administration of benefit.

37.(1) Provision may be made by regulations as to the time and manner of payment of benefit, and as to the information and evidence to be furnished by beneficiaries when applying for payment, and for payment of benefit through the Post Office.

(2) Regulations made under this section as to the time of payment of benefit may provide—

- (a) notwithstanding anything in this Act, for adjusting the commencement and termination of benefit, or of changes in the rate of benefit, so that payments shall not be made in respect of periods less than a week or at different rates for different parts of a week;
- (b) for extinguishing the right to any sum payable by way of benefit where payment thereof is not obtained within thirteen weeks or such shorter period as may be prescribed from the time at which that sum is receivable in accordance with regulations.

(3) Regulations may also provide—

- (a) for enabling a person to be appointed to exercise, on behalf of a claimant or beneficiary who is a child or who may be or become unable for the time being to act, any right or power which the claimant or beneficiary may be entitled to exercise

under this Act, and for authorizing a person so appointed to receive and deal with any sum payable by way of benefit on behalf of the claimant or beneficiary;

- (b) in connection with the death of any person, for enabling a claim for benefit to be made or proceeded with in his name, for authorizing payment or distribution of benefit to or amongst persons claiming as his personal representatives, legatees, next of kin or creditors (or, in cases of illegitimacy of deceased persons, to or amongst others) and for dispensing with strict proof of the title of persons so claiming.

(4) For the purposes of paragraph (b) of subsection (3), the expression “next of kin” shall be construed as referring to persons who would take beneficially on an intestacy under the provisions of Part IV of the Administration of Estates Act.

Interim payments, arrears and repayments.

38.(1) Regulations may make provisions as respects matters arising—

- (a) pending the determination under this Act (whether in the first instance or on an appeal or reference, and whether originally or on review) of any claim for benefit or of any question affecting any person’s right to benefit or to the receipt thereof or any person’s liability for contributions; or
- (b) out of the revision on appeal or review of any decision under this Act, on any such claim or question.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), regulations there under may include provisions—

- (a) for the suspension of benefit where it appears to the Director that there is or may be a question whether the conditions for receipt thereof in accordance with an award are or were fulfilled or whether the award ought to be revised;
- (b) as to the date from which any decision on a review is to have effect or to be deemed to have had effect;
- (c) for treating any benefit paid to any person under an award or by virtue of any provision of the regulations, which it is subsequently decided was not payable, as properly paid or as paid on account of any other benefit which it is decided was payable to him, or for the repayment of any such benefit and the recovery thereof by deduction from other benefit or otherwise;

- (d) for treating benefit paid to one person in respect of another as being a child of the family, or the wife or husband or an adult dependant, of the first-mentioned person as having been properly paid for any period, notwithstanding that under regulations relating to overlapping benefits it is not payable for that period by reason of a subsequent decision either—
 - (i) that the other person is himself entitled to benefit for that period; or
 - (ii) that a third person is entitled to benefit for that period in respect of the other person in priority to the first mentioned person; and for reducing or withholding accordingly any arrears payable for that period by virtue of the subsequent decision.

Recovery of sums by deduction from benefit.

39.(1) Where, in the case of any person, any sum may by virtue of section 38 be recovered by deduction from benefit under this Act, it may instead be recovered from him in whole or in part by deduction from any payment under the Social Security (Employment Injuries Insurance) Act, and any amount so recovered shall be paid to the Fund.

(2) Where, in the case of any person, any sum may by virtue of any provision of the Social Security (Employment Injuries Insurance) Act, be recovered by deduction from any payment under that Act, it may instead be recovered from him in whole or in part by deduction from benefit under this Act, and any amount so recovered shall be paid into the Employment Injuries Insurance Fund.

Inspectors.

40.(1) For the purposes of this Act, the Governor may appoint such inspectors as he may determine.

(2) An inspector appointed under this Act, shall, for the purposes of the execution of this Act, have power to do all or any of the following things, namely—

- (a) to enter at all reasonable times any premises or place liable to inspection under this section;

This version is out of date

- (b) to make such examination and inquiry as may be necessary for ascertaining whether the provisions of this Act are being or have been complied with in any such premises or place;
- (c) to examine, either alone or in the presence of any other person, as he thinks fit, with respect to any matters under this Act on which he may reasonably require information, every person whom he finds in any such premises or place, or whom he has reasonable cause to believe to be or to have been an insured person, and to require every such person to be so examined;
- (d) to exercise such other powers as may be necessary for carrying this Act into effect.

(3) The occupier of any premises or place liable to inspection under this section, and any person who is or has been employing any person, and the servants and agents of such occupier or other person, and any insured person, shall furnish to an inspector all such information and produce for inspection all such documents as the inspector may reasonably require for the purpose of ascertaining whether contributions are or have been payable, or have been duly paid, by or in respect of any person, or whether benefit is or was payable to or in respect of any person.

- (4) A person who—
- (a) wilfully delays or obstructs an inspector in the exercise of any power under this section; or
 - (b) refuses or neglects to answer any question or to furnish any information or to produce any document when required so to do under this section, is guilty of an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of £50 in the case of a first offence under this subsection and of £250 in the case of a second or subsequent such offence:

Provided that no one shall be required under this section to answer any questions or to give any evidence tending to incriminate himself.

(5) For the purposes of subsection (4) an offence shall be deemed not to be a first offence if the offender has previously been found guilty of an offence against the provisions of the Social Security (Employment Injuries Insurance) Act, which relate to inspectors, and for the purposes of the provisions of that Act an offence shall not be deemed to be a first offence if the offender has previously been found guilty of an offence against subsection (4) of this section.

(6) Every inspector shall be furnished with a certificate of his appointment, and on applying for admission to any premises or place for the purposes of this Act shall, if so required, produce such certificate.

(7) The premises and places liable to inspection under this section are any premises or places where an inspector appointed under this Act has reasonable grounds for supposing that any persons are self-employed or employed, except that they do not include any private dwelling-house not used by or by permission of the occupier for the purposes of a trade or business.

Information as to, and proof of, age, marriage and death.

41.(1) Rules made by the Governor under the Births and Deaths Registration Act and the Marriage Act may provide for the furnishing by the Registrar subject to the payment of such fee as may be prescribed by the rules, of such information for the purposes of this Act including copies or extracts from the registers in their custody, as may be so prescribed.

(2) Where the age, marriage or death of a person is required to be ascertained or proved for the purposes of this Act, any person shall

- (a) on presenting to the custodian of the register under the laws relating to the registration of births, marriages and deaths, wherein particulars of the birth, marriage or death, as the case may be of the first mentioned person are entered, a duly completed requisition in writing in that behalf; and
- (b) on payment of the prescribed fee, in the case of a birth certificate, of three pence and, in the case of a marriage or death certificate of five pence, be entitled to obtain a copy, certified under the hand of the custodian, of the entry of those particulars.

(3) Requisitions for the purposes of subsection (2) shall be in such form and contain such particulars as may from time to time be specified by the Registrar, and suitable forms thereof shall, on request, be supplied without charge by the Registrar.

(4) In this section the word "Registrar" means either the Registrar of Births and Deaths appointed under the Births and Deaths Registration Act, or the Marriage Registrar, appointed under the Marriage Act, as the case may be.

Exemption from stamp duty.

42. Stamp duty shall not be chargeable upon such documents used in connection with business under this Act as may be specified in Schedule 5.

Legal Proceedings.

General provisions as to offences and penalties.

43. (1) A person who—

- (a) buys, sells or offers for sale, takes or gives in exchange, or pawns or takes in pawn any insurance card or any used insurance stamps; or
- (b) affixes any used insurance stamp on any insurance card; or
- (c) for the purpose of obtaining any benefit or other payment under this Act, whether for himself or some other person, or for any other purpose connected with this Act—
 - (i) knowingly makes any false statement or false representation; or
 - (ii) produces or furnishes, or causes or knowingly allows to be produced or furnished, any document or information which he knows to be false in a material particular, is guilty of an offence and is liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for three months and to a fine of £400.

(2) Regulations may provide for the recovery on summary conviction of monetary penalties in respect of any offence under this Act, being a contravention of or failure to comply with regulations, so however, that such penalties shall not exceed £50 for each offence or, where the offence consists of continuing any such contravention or failure after conviction thereof, £10 together with a further £10 for each day on which it is so continued.

(3) Where an offence against this Act which has been committed by a body corporate is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any negligence on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other officer of the body corporate, he as well as the body corporate shall be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(4) In this section the expression “insurance card” means any card issued under regulations for the purpose of the payment of contributions by affixing insurance stamps thereto; and in any proceedings under subsection (1) with respect to used stamps, a stamp shall be deemed to have been used if it has been affixed to an insurance card or cancelled or defaced in any way whatsoever and whether it has actually been used for the purpose of payment of a contribution or not.

(5) Nothing in this section shall be construed as preventing the Director from recovering by means of civil proceedings any sums due to the Fund.

General provisions as to prosecutions under Act.

44.(1) Proceedings for an offence under this Act shall not be instituted except by or with the consent of the Attorney-General or by an inspector or other officer authorized in that behalf by special or general directions of the Attorney-General.

(2) Any such inspector or other officer may, although not a barrister or a solicitor, prosecute or conduct before the magistrates’ court any such proceedings as aforesaid.

(3) Notwithstanding any provision in any Act prescribing the period within which summary proceedings may be commenced, proceedings for an offence against this Act may be commenced at any time within the period of three months from the date on which evidence, sufficient in the opinion of the Attorney-General to justify a prosecution for the offence, comes to his knowledge, or within the period of twelve months after the commission of the offence, whichever period last expires.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3) a certificate, purporting to be signed by or on behalf of the Attorney-General as to the date on which such evidence came to his knowledge shall be conclusive evidence thereof.

(5) In any proceedings for an offence against this Act, the wife of the accused shall be competent to give evidence, whether for or against the accused:

Provided that the wife or husband shall not be compellable either to give evidence or, in giving evidence, to disclose any communication made to her or him during the marriage by the accused.

Civil proceedings to recover sums due to fund.

45.(1) All sums due to the Fund shall be recoverable as debts due to the Crown, and without prejudice to any other remedy may be recovered by the Director summarily as a civil debt.

(2) Proceedings for the summary recovery as civil debts of sums due to the Fund may, notwithstanding anything in any law to the contrary, be brought at any time within three years from the time when the matter complained of arose.

(3) Proceedings for the summary recovery as civil debts of sums due to the Fund may be instituted by an inspector or other officer authorized in that behalf by special or general directions of the Director, and any such inspector or officer may, although not a barrister or a solicitor, conduct such proceedings.

PART IV.—MISCELLANEOUS AND GENERAL.

Application to special classes of persons.

Crown servants.

46. This Act shall apply to persons employed by or under the Crown, subject to any special provision made by or by virtue of any other section thereof, in like manner as if the employer were a private person, which such modifications as may be made therein by regulations for the purpose of adapting the provisions of this Act to the case of such persons.

Members of the Gibraltar Regiment.

47.(1) Subject to any prescribed exceptions, any person who, being over school leaving age and under pensionable age, is serving as a member of the Royal Gibraltar Regiment shall, notwithstanding that he does not fulfil the conditions of section 3, be an insured person, and any such person while he is serving as aforesaid shall, in respect of his membership of that Regiment, be an employed person.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of any other power to make regulations, the Governor may make regulations modifying in such manner, subject to the foregoing provisions of this section, as he thinks proper the provisions of this Act, in their application in relation to persons who are or have been members of the Royal Gibraltar Regiment.

Married women.

48. Without prejudice to the generality of any other power to make regulations, the Governor may make regulations modifying in such manner as he thinks proper the provisions of this Act in their application in relation to married women, and in relation to women who have been married and during their marriage were affected by any such regulations.

Reciprocal agreements with United Kingdom, dominions, and foreign countries.

49.(1) For the purpose of giving effect to any agreement with the government of the United Kingdom, or of any part of Her Majesty's dominions, or the government of any foreign country, providing for reciprocity in matters relating to payments in respect of interruption of employment by sickness or otherwise, or payments in respect of the confinement of women, widowhood, orphanhood, retirement, old age or death, it shall be lawful for the Governor by order to make provision for modifying or adapting this Act in its application to cases affected by the agreement.

(2) The modifications of this Act, which may be made by virtue of subsection (1) shall include provision—

- (a) for securing that acts, omissions and events having any effect for the purposes of the law of the country in respect of which the agreement is made shall have a corresponding effect for the purposes of this Act (but not so as to confer a right to double benefit);
- (b) for determining, in cases where rights accrue both under this Act and under the law of the said country, which of those rights shall be available to the person concerned;
- (c) for making any provisions as to administration and enforcement contained in this Act or in any regulations applicable also for the purposes of the law of the said country;
- (d) for making any necessary financial adjustments by payments into or out of the Fund.

50. Revoked.
