5.(1) Every application for a wholesale or retail licence shall be made in the prescribed form.

(2) An application for a wholesale or retail licence for a partnership shall be made in the names of all partners jointly.

(3) An application for a wholesale or retail licence for a company incorporated in Gibraltar or elsewhere shall be signed by all the directors thereof provided that the Collector of Customs may, in his absolute discretion waive or modify this requirement in cases where he is satisfied about the repute of the applicant and that compliance is unduly onerous in practice.

This version is out of date

- (4) A person who knowingly—
- (a) gives any false information to the Collector of Customs in connection with an application for a wholesale or retail licence, or
 - (b) makes any false entry in the prescribed form in respect of any application for a wholesale or retail licence, shall be guilty of an offence.

Issue of wholesale and retail licences.

6.(1) The Collector of Customs may, subject to subsections (6) and (7) below, in his absolute discretion issue a wholesale or retail licence, subject to such terms, conditions and restrictions as he considers necessary or expedient.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1) above, the Collector of Customs may issue to persons duly licensed to carry on the business of ship agent or ship chandler, a wholesale licence, limited to the sale of tobacco to bona fide merchant shipping.

(3) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1) above, every wholesale and retail licence shall be issued only in respect of commercial premises and subject to the following conditions—

- (a) it shall relate only to the premises specified therein provided that a licence may relate to more than one premises,
- (b) it shall not be transferable,
- (c) where the wholesale or retail licence, as the case may be, is issued to a body corporate, the shareholders and directors thereof may not change, save with the written consent of the Collector of Customs provided—
 - (i) that this condition shall not apply to bodies corporate that are quoted on a recognised stock exchange, and that
 - (ii) the Collector of Customs may, on application, waive this condition in the case of a body corporate of whose repute the Collector of Customs is, in his absolute discretion, satisfied, and which, by reason of the number of its shareholders, would find it impractical to comply with this condition;

- (d) it shall authorise the licensee to trade as a principal only and on the condition that the licensee does not enter into any transaction as a trustee, agent, nominee or otherwise howsoever on behalf of any third party; and
- (e) it shall be subject to annual renewal at the discretion of the Collector of Customs.

(4) Every retail licence shall be issued—

- (a) subject to the condition that it authorises the sale of no more than 1000 cigarettes to the same individual at any one time;
- (b) subject to the condition that it authorises the sale of cigarettes in either individual packets of up to twenty five cigarettes or cartons of a maximum of two hundred and fifty cigarettes, and that the said cartons must each be sold and delivered separately, and may not be sold or delivered in the box in which they were packed by the manufacturer of the cigarettes.

(5) Every wholesale licence shall be issued subject to the condition that the holder shall, on the occasion of each sale of cigarettes and prior to the delivery of cigarettes so sold, issue an invoice showing the name and address of the purchaser and the quantities and brand of the cigarettes sold, and that the signature of the purchaser shall be obtained on a copy of the said invoice upon the purchaser taking receipt of the cigarettes.

(6) The Collector of Customs shall not issue a wholesale or retail licence to any person who has, at any time, been convicted of an offence contrary to this Act or any one or more of the following enactments, namely—

- (a) The Imports and Exports Act 1986;
- (b) The Fast Launches (Control) Act 1987;
- (c) The Port Act or the Port Rules;
- (d) The Drugs (Misuse) Act;
- (e) The Drug Trafficking Offences Act 1995;
- (f) The Criminal Justice Act 1995.

(7) The Collector of Customs shall not issue a wholesale or retail licence to a body corporate where any shareholder (legal or beneficial) directly or indirectly holding or controlling at least ten percent of the issued share capital of the body corporate or any Director thereof has at any time been convicted of any one or more of the offences as are mentioned in subsection (6) above.

(8) Subject to the provisions of subsections (2) above and (12) below, a wholesale licence shall authorise the sale of cigarettes only to the holder of a valid retail licence issued under this section.

(9) The Collector of Customs shall publish in the Gazette details of all holders of such retail licences and, for the purposes of this section only, a person shall be deemed to hold a valid licence until the fact of its revocation has been published in the Gazette.

(10) A wholesale or retail licence issued under subsection (1) above (or a photocopy of it, if it relates to more than one premises) shall, at all times, be displayed in a prominent position on the premises to which it relates.

(11) A licence holder who contravenes the provisions of subsection (10) above shall be guilty of an offence.

(12) Notwithstanding subsection (8) the holder of a valid wholesale licence may sell and deliver cigarettes in any quantity to—

- (a) bona fide merchant shipping,
- (b) bona fide visiting yachts moored or anchored in the port of Gibraltar for the reasonable consumption of its passengers and crew during their voyage; provided that no cigarettes shall be sold or delivered to a fast launch, as defined in the Fast Launches (Control) Act,
- (c) bona fide visiting private and commercial aircraft for exportation from Gibraltar aboard that aircraft,

Provided that all cigarettes so sold shall be delivered by the seller or on his behalf directly to the ship, yacht or aircraft in question.

(13) For the purposes of subsection (12) above, “port of Gibraltar” shall have the same meaning as in the Port Act.

(14) Notwithstanding any other provision hereof to the contrary the holder of a retail licence may loan stocks of cigarettes to another holder of a retail licence, and the holder of wholesale licence may loan stocks of cigarettes to any other holder of a wholesale licence provided that every such loan of stock and the return thereof (which shall take place within 7 days of the loan of the stock) shall be properly recorded in the records of both the lender and the borrower and a loan note issued by the lender and acknowledged by the borrower, showing the brand, description and quantity of the cigarettes loaned and the date and time of the loan and of the repayment of the loaned stock.

Revocation of wholesale and retail licences.

7.(1) Where the holder of a wholesale or retail licence, or, in the case of a licence held by a body corporate, any director or person, directly or indirectly holding or controlling at least 10 per centum of its shares as the case may be, is convicted of any such offence as is mentioned in section 6 (5) above, the Collector of Customs shall forthwith revoke the wholesale or retail licence.

(2) Where a wholesale or retail licence has been issued under section 6 above and the licence holder has not, in the opinion of the Collector of Customs, carried on substantial trade or business authorised by the licence for a period of twelve months, the Collector of Customs may, after giving the licence holder the opportunity to be heard, revoke the licence.

(3) Where the holder of a wholesale or retail licence issued under section 6 above has vacated or ceased to occupy or trade from the premises to which the licence relates the Collector of Customs shall, after giving the licence holder the opportunity to be heard, cancel the licence.

(4) Where the Collector of Customs has reasonable grounds to believe that the holder of a retail or wholesale licence has breached any of the terms and conditions subject to which the licence has been issued, he may after informing the licence holder of his intention to do so and the reasons therefor and after giving the licence holder the opportunity to be heard, cancel the licence.

(5) For the purposes of this section, a notice of the opportunity to be heard shall—

- (a) give the licence holder not less than fourteen days notice of the hearing; and
- (b) state the date, time and place of the hearing.

(2) A person guilty of an offence under sections 5(4), 6(11) or 13(5) of this Act shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £10,000.

(3) Where an offence under this Act which is committed by a body corporate is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of any director or manager, of the body corporate or any person purporting to act in any such capacity, he as well as the body corporate shall be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Forfeiture.

16.(1) The court shall, on convicting any person of an offence mentioned in section 13(1) or 13(3) above and upon an application to that effect being made by or on behalf of the Attorney General or the prosecuting officer order that the cigarettes to which the offence related be forfeited to the Crown.

(2) The court shall, on convicting any person of an offence contrary to section 13(1) or 13(3) above and upon an application to that effect being made by or on behalf of the Attorney General or the prosecuting officer order that the motor vehicle or goods vehicle to which the offence relates be forfeited to the Crown.

(3) The court shall, on convicting any person of an offence contrary to section 11 above, in respect of an exportation by sea, and upon an application to that effect being made by or on behalf of the Attorney General or the prosecuting officer order that the vessel involved in the commission of the offence be forfeited to the Crown.

(4) Where the court directs that any cigarettes, or any vessel, motor vehicle or goods vehicle be forfeited to the Crown under this section, the same shall be disposed of in such manner as the Collector of Customs may direct.

Provisions as to detention and seizure of goods.

17.(1) Any thing liable to forfeiture under this Act may be seized or detained by any Police or Customs Officer.

(2) Any thing seized or detained under subsection (1) above as being liable to forfeiture shall be retained in the custody of the Police or Customs Officer, as the case may be, until any criminal proceedings brought in respect thereof are concluded or it is decided that no such proceeding should be brought.

Protection of officers in relation to the seizure and detention of goods.

18.(1) Where, in any proceedings for an offence under this Act, the defendant is acquitted the court may, if it sees fit, certify that there were reasonable grounds for the seizure or detention of any cigarettes, motor vehicle, goods vehicle or vessel under section 17 above.

(2) Where any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, are brought against any police or customs officer, the Attorney General or any person authorised by or under this Act to seize or detain any thing liable to forfeiture, on account of the seizure or detention of any thing, and judgment is given for the plaintiff or prosecutor, then if either -

- (a) a certificate relating to the seizure has been granted under subsection (1) above; or
- (b) the court is satisfied that there were reasonable grounds for seizing or detaining that thing under this Act, the plaintiff or prosecutor shall not be entitled to recover any damages or costs and the defendant shall not be liable to any punishment.

(3) Any certificate under subsection (1) above may be proved by the production of either the original certificate or a certified copy thereof purporting to be signed by an officer of the court by which it is granted.

Evidence.

This version is out of date

- 19.(1) An averment in any process in proceedings under this Act—
- (a) that the Collector of Customs has or has not granted a wholesale or retail licence under Part II of this Act;
 - (b) that the Collector of Customs has or has not issued a tobacco transportation licence under section 13 of this Act;
 - (c) that the Collector of Customs has or has not issued an import permit under section 9 or an export permit under section 11 of this Act; shall, until the contrary is proved, be sufficient evidence of the matter in question.

(2) Where, in any proceedings under this Act, any question arises as to the place from which any tobacco has been brought or as to whether or not—

- (a) any duty has been paid or secured in respect of any tobacco; or
- (b) any tobacco is of the description or nature alleged in the information, indictment, writ or other process; or
- (c) any tobacco has been imported, unloaded, sold or removed from any place; or
- (d) any tobacco has been lawfully loaded into any ship, aircraft, motor vehicle or goods vehicle or lawfully exported;
- (e) any tobacco was lawfully brought to any place for the purpose of being loaded into any ship, aircraft, motor vehicle or goods vehicle or exported; or
- (f) any tobacco is or was subject to any prohibition or restriction on their importation imposed by the Collector of Customs under section 10 of this Act, and where those proceedings are brought by or against the Crown or the Attorney General or any police or customs officer or against any other person in respect of anything purported to have been done in pursuance of any power or duty conferred or imposed on him by or under this Act, the burdens of proof shall lie upon the other party to the proceedings.

Exceptions.

20.(1) Nothing in this Act shall apply–

- (a) to any tobacco carried aboard any aircraft, any passenger ship, merchant ship, military ship or yacht at the time that it arrives in Gibraltar, provided that such tobacco is not unloaded, transferred or otherwise discharged in Gibraltar, or
- (b) to any tobacco aboard such aircraft, passenger ship, merchant ship, military ship or yacht sold and delivered in Gibraltar in a manner permitted by this Act.

(2) The provisions of section 13 and 14 shall not apply in respect of the transportation and possession during bona fide commercial deliveries of tobacco by hand delivery or hand pushed cart or trolley from a vehicle issued with a tobacco transportation licence or from commercial premises to which a wholesale licence relates to any premises to which a wholesale or retail licence relates.

(3) Section 16(3) shall not apply to any passenger ship, merchant ship, military ship or pleasure yacht unless, in the case of pleasure yachts, in the opinion of the court, one of the principal purposes for that pleasure yacht's visit to Gibraltar was the commission of an offence under section 11 above.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3) above, the court shall have regard to all material circumstances including, but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, whether the type of yacht concerned is of a type similar to those commonly used for the commission of offences contrary to the provisions of this Act.

Restriction on the institution of proceedings.

21. Proceedings for any offence or offences contrary to this Act shall not be instituted against any person except by or with the consent of the Attorney General.

Returns.

22.(1) The holder of a wholesale licence shall make and certify as being complete and correct the following returns–

- (a) separate returns for each day containing separately for each brand of cigarette, the particulars set out in the Schedule to this Act relating to–
 - (i) all cigarettes removed from the licensed premises that day for sale within Gibraltar, and

This version is out of date

- (ii) all cigarettes removed from the licensed premises that day for export;
- (b) a monthly return containing such details as are necessary to show the balance of stocks of cigarettes in hand at the beginning of each month and the receipts during the month as against deliveries during that month and stocks in hand at the end of that month;
- (c) such other returns, containing such information as the Collector of Customs may prescribe by Regulations.

(2) A person required to make returns under subsection (1) above shall furnish them to the Collector of Customs within fourteen days of the end of the month to which they relate.

(3) Any person required to make and furnish returns under this section who fails to make the said return or furnish the same by the due date shall be liable to pay a penalty of £500 and to a further penalty of £50 for each day, after the first, on which the failure to make or furnish the said return continues.

Keeping and inspection of records.

23.(1) Save as the Collector of Customs may otherwise allow, the holder of a wholesale licence issued under Part II of this Act and any other person commercially concerned with the importation, exportation, supply or transportation of tobacco shall keep all documents and other records which relate to the receipt, storage, sale, disposal, transportation, importation or exportation of such tobacco and shall retain them for not less than one year from the date on which they were issued.

(2) If requested to do so by a police or customs officer the holder of a wholesale licence issued under Part II of this Act and any other person concerned with the commercial importation, exportation, sale, supply or transportation of tobacco shall produce any relevant documents or other records to which subsection (1) above applies for inspection by the officer at any reasonable time and place and in a readily legible form, and shall allow the officer to make extracts from, copy or remove the documents or other records for a reasonable period.

(3) A wholesale licence holder or other person referred to in subsection (2) above who—

This version is out of date

- (a) fails to produce his wholesale licence upon being requested to do so by a police or customs officer; or
- (b) fails to produce such documents as are mentioned in subsection (2) above upon being requested to do so by a police or customs officer; or
- (c) hinders or obstructs a police or customs officer in the exercise of his powers under this Part of this Act, shall be guilty of an offence and, on summary conviction, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale.

(4) Save as the Collector of Customs may otherwise allow, the holder of a wholesale licence shall keep all the documents or other records which he is required by subsection (1) above to retain, at the relevant licensed premises or at the holder's principal place of business in Gibraltar; provided that any such address other than the licensed premises, is specified in the licence as the address at which such records are kept and may be inspected.

Power to make regulations.

24.(1) The Chief Minister may make regulations generally for giving effect to the provisions of this Act.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), the Chief Minister may make regulations in order to regulate the forms to be used and the fees to be paid in respect of the issue of licences and permits.
